Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) provide a timely determination of your child's Child Health Plus eligibility on April 21, 2017?

Did the NYSOH properly determine that your child's eligibility and enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective June 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On March 15, 2017, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On March 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating more information was needed to make a determination. The notice explained the income documentation you provided NYSOH did not match what was obtained from state and federal data sources. You were asked to submit income documentation for your household by March 30, 2017. Page four of this notice states that you must report all income for your household, including income for household members who are not applying for coverage.

Also on March 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's enrollment in a Medicaid Managed Care plan would end on March 31, 2017.

On March 21, 2017, you submitted income documentation.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 30, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the documentation you submitted did not confirm the information in your application. You were directed to send additional proof of income by April 14, 2017.

On April 19, 2017, you submitted additional income documentation.

On April 20, 2017, NYSOH verified the documentation you submitted as sufficient proof of income and a new application was submitted on your behalf.

On April 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus, effective June 1, 2017.

On April 26, 2017, you enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan.

On April 27, 2017, an enrollment confirmation notice was issued confirming your selection of a Child Health Plus plan on April 26, 2017. The notice confirmed your child's enrollment in a plan starting June 1, 2017.

On May 8, 2017, you contacted the NYSOH Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of the start date of your child's Child Health Plus plan, requesting that it begin May 1, 2017.

On August 14, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and the record reflects, that you are appealing the start date of your child's eligibility and enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance on March 15, 2017.
- 3) Page four of the March 16, 2017 notice states that you must report all income for your household, including income for household members who are not applying for coverage.
- 4) On March 21, 2017, you submitted a letter stating that your child does not have any income. On March 30, 2017, that letter was invalidated as insufficient proof of income.

- 5) On April 19, 2017, you submitted copies of your paystubs to NYSOH for verification of the income stated in your March 15, 2017 application.
- 6) On April 20, 2017, your paystubs were verified as acceptable proof of income.
- 7) The record reflects that you enrolled your child into a Child Health Plus plan on April 26, 2017.
- 8) You testified that a NYSOH representative advised you that you did not need to submit your paystubs to confirm your household's income, but that you only needed to submit a letter stating that your child has no income.
- 9) You testified that you need your child's Child Health Plus plan to begin on May 1, 2017, because you have outstanding bills for services rendered in May 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification Process

For all individuals, whose income is needed to calculate the household's eligibility, NYSOH must request data from state and federal data sources that will allow NYSOH to verify the household's income (45 CFR §155.320(c)(1)(i), 42 CFR § 435.945).

If NYSOH cannot verify the income information required to determine eligibility they must attempt to resolve the inconsistency including giving the applicant the opportunity to submit satisfactory documentary evidence (45 CFR §155.315(f) 42 CFR § 435.952).

Timely Notice of Child Health Plus Eligibility

When an individual applies for insurance through NYSOH, NYSOH must determine that person's eligibility promptly and without undue delay (45 CFR § 155.310(e)(1); 42 CFR § 435.1200(b)(3)(iii)).

To assess whether an eligibility determination was untimely, NYSOH must base the time period from the date of application to the date NYSOH notifies the applicant of its decision (45 CFR § 155.310(e)(2)). However, if the applicant submits an incomplete application or there is not sufficient information for NYSOH to make an eligibility determination, then NYSOH must notify that applicant that more information is needed to complete the application (45 CFR § 155.310(k)(1)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

NYSOH must provide Medicaid applicants notice of their eligibility determination within 30 days from the date of the application for a child who is at least 1 year of age but younger than 19 years of age (18 NYCRR 360-2.4(a)(3)(ii)). NYS has elected to use a common application for Medicaid and Child Health Plus, therefore the timeliness standards for Child Health Plus determinations are the same as those for Medicaid determinations (see State Plan Amendment NY-CSPA-19, approved March 22, 2012 and effective November 11, 2011).

Child Health Plus

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage” (42 CFR § 457.340(f)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see e.g. State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH provided you with timely determination of your child’s Child Health Plus eligibility as of April 21, 2017.

For all individuals whose income is needed to calculate the household’s eligibility, NYSOH must request data that will allow NYSOH to verify the household’s income.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If NYSOH cannot verify the income information required to determine eligibility they must attempt to resolve the inconsistency including giving the applicant the opportunity to submit satisfactory documentary evidence.

You updated your NYSOH account on March 15, 2017. The income amount that was entered into this application did not match federal and state data sources. As a result, NYSOH asked that you submit additional documentation to confirm your household's income. Page four of the March 16, 2017 notice states that you must report all income for your household, including income for household members who are not applying for coverage.

On March 21, 2017, you uploaded a letter stating that your child has no income. On March 30, 2017, that letter was invalidated as insufficient proof of household income. On April 19, 2017, you uploaded a copy of your paystubs and on April 20, 2017 NYSOH verified those paystubs as acceptable proofs of income.

Therefore, your application was considered complete as of April 19, 2017 for purposes of issuing an eligibility determination.

NYSOH must provide Child Health Plus applicants notice of their eligibility determination within 30 days from the date of the completed application. To assess whether an eligibility determination was untimely, NYSOH must look at the time from the date of the completed application to the date NYSOH notifies the applicant of its decision.

NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice on April 21, 2017 that stated your child was eligible for Child Health Plus, effective June 1, 2017. Since NYSOH issued an eligibility determination two days from the date your application was considered complete, the April 21, 2017 eligibility determination was timely.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your child's eligibility and enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective June 1, 2017.

The record reflects that you selected a Child Health Plus plan for enrollment on April 26, 2017.

The date on which a Child Health Plus plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is selected between the first day and fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you selected a plan for your child on April 26, 2017, between the sixteenth day of the month and the end of the month, NYSOH properly determined that enrollment went into effect on the first day of the second following month, or June 1, 2017.

Therefore, the April 21, 2017 eligibility determination and April 27, 2017 enrollment confirmation notices stating that your child's eligibility and enrollment in her Child Health Plus plan was effective June 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.
