Decision

Decision Date: August 25, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000018828

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was your family's qualified health plan (QHP) properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums?

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that as of December 15, 2016, you, your spouse, and child were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On March 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your family's coverage was ending because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On May 10, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

Also on May 10, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your family's QHP coverage was terminated and you and your spouse did not qualify for a special enrollment period.

On May 11, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that you and your spouse did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On August 10, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you, your spouse, and child were enrolled in a Fidelis Care gold-level QHP, effective January 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you received an invoice from Fidelis Care, dated March 1, 2017, stating that you had until March 31, 2017 to pay your premium balance of $3,138.15. If the balance was not paid, the coverage would be cancelled retroactively to January 31, 2017.
- 3) You testified that you paid $2,092.10 to Fidelis Care on March 11, 2017.
- 4) You testified that you were verbally informed by Fidelis Care that your coverage had been cancelled for late payment of your health insurance premiums.
- 5) You testified that you are concerned that you will be assessed a tax penalty on your 2017 federal income tax return for not having health insurance for the entire year.
- 6) You testified that you received an electronic notice from NYSOH stating that your family's coverage had been cancelled January 31, 2017.
- 7) You testified that you contacted NYSOH and were informed that you and your spouse were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.
- 8) You testified you want to be able to enroll you and your spouse in a QHP through NYSOH, effective August 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by

HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether your family’s QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums.

The record reflects that your family was enrolled in a QHP effective January 1, 2017. On March 11, 2017, NYSOH issued you a notice stating that your health plan was terminated for non-payment of premiums.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not your family was properly terminated from your QHP for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal regarding whether your family’s QHP coverage was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums is DISMISSED.

Fidelis Care may be able to help you with your request for coverage. If you have not already been assisted with your coverage issue, please contact 1-888-343-3547.

In addition, since your issue concerns a health insurer and/or payment, reimbursement, coverage, benefits, rates and premiums, you can contact NY Department of Financial Services at their Consumer Hotline at (800) 342-3736 (Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM); or locally to (212) 480-6400; or you can file a complaint at <http://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumer/fileacomplaint.htm>

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your and your spouse's health plan through NYSOH.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

The loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums. NYSOH considers nonpayment of premiums to be a voluntary action that caused your family's coverage to be terminated.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you have not experienced a triggering event that would qualify you or your spouse for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH properly denied you and your spouse the ability to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017, such that the May 11, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

You testified that you are concerned that you will be assessed a tax penalty because you were not enrolled in health insurance for the entire year. NYSOH's Appeals Unit lacks the jurisdiction to determine whether an individual is eligible to claim an exemption from being assessed a tax penalty.

Sometimes after an appeal decision, an appellant can claim an exemption from the requirement to have health insurance. You might qualify for a health coverage exemption in 2017 if you didn't have health coverage while you were waiting for an appeal decision about coverage eligibility or savings and your appeal was eventually successful (emphasis added).

You must claim this exemption through the United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Currently, NYSOH does not accept hardship exemption applications.

You will find the information you need to claim the exemption due to an appeal decision at <https://www.healthcare.gov/exemptions-tool/#/results/2017/details/eligible-based-on-appeal>. You can also call 1-800-318-2596.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Important: If you do not get a response from HHS to your exemption application in time to file your tax return, write the word “pending” in column “c” and file your return. If HHS does not approve your exemption, you will need to file an amended return later.

Decision

Your appeal regarding whether your family’s QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The May 11, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: August 25, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You and your spouse do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
