Decision

Decision Date: September 05, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000018940

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Does NY State of Health (NYSOH) Appeals Unit have the authority to review whether your coverage in your qualified health plan was properly terminated for non-payment of premium, effective March 31, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were disenrolled from your stand-alone dental plan, effective May 31, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On October 21, 2016, NYSOH issued a renewal and eligibility determination notice stating that you remained eligible for, and had been reenrolled in, the Fidelis Care Gold ST INN Pediatric Dental Dep25 (Fidelis Care) qualified health plan (QHP) and Guardian Essentials for Families and Individuals, NS, INN, OON, Adult/Family Dental, Dep25, Family Dental, DP (Guardian) stand-alone dental plan, in each case effective January 1, 2017.

On November 18, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in the Fidelis Care QHP and Guardian stand-alone dental plan, effective January 1, 2017. This notice cautioned you that you must pay the monthly premium to start and keep your coverage.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On May 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a termination notice stating that your enrollment in your Fidelis Care QHP was terminated, effective March 31, 2017, because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan.

On May 13, 2017, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost, effective June 1, 2017. You also attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan but were unable to select a plan for enrollment.

Also on May 13, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

On May 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the May 13, 2017 application for financial assistance, stating that you were eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost, effective June 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

Also on May 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Guardian stand-alone dental plan coverage would end effective May 31, 2017 because you were no longer eligible for such coverage.

On August 24, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You were enrolled in a QHP for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $447.82, effective January 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you timely paid your QHP premiums to Fidelis Care for coverage during the months of January, February, and March 2017.
- 3) You testified that you paid your bill for QHP coverage during the month of April 2017 on or about May 2, 2017.
- 4) You testified that Fidelis Care accepted the $447.82, but then subsequently terminated your coverage as of March 31, 2017. You further testified that Fidelis Care has yet to return the premium you paid for coverage during April 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

- 5) You were disenrolled from your Fidelis Care QHP, effective March 31, 2017.
- 6) On May 13, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to reenroll into a qualified health plan.
- 7) Your stand-alone dental plan coverage was terminated effective May 31, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you have been without medical insurance since April 1, 2017.
- 9) You testified that since filing your application on May 13, 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 10) You testified that you were seeking for your QHP and stand-alone dental plan coverage to be reinstated. In the alternative, you were seeking to have your $447.82 premium for April 2017 returned to you.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.
- (5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH permits a qualified health plan to terminate an individual's coverage if (1) the enrollee is no longer eligible for coverage or (2) non-payment of the premiums by the enrollee (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(i)-(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH Appeals Unit has the authority to review whether you were properly terminated from your QHP for non-payment of premium, effective March 31, 2017.

On November 16, 2016, you were enrolled in a QHP for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $447.82, effective January 1, 2017.

You testified that you timely paid your premiums to your QHP for coverage during the months of January, February and March 2017. However, you made a late payment for your coverage during April 2017.

You testified that Fidelis Care accepted the $447.82 premium amount, but then subsequently terminated your coverage as of March 31, 2017. You further testified that Fidelis Care has yet to return the premium you paid for coverage during April 2017. You were disenrolled from your Fidelis Care QHP, effective March 31, 2017.

On May 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective March 31, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the May 5, 2017 termination notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether you were properly disenrolled from your stand-alone dental plan, effective May 31, 2017.

On November 16, 2016, you were enrolled in a stand-alone dental plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $24.74, effective January 1, 2017.

The record reflects that you QHP coverage during the 2017 plan year was terminated effective March 31, 2017.

Your eligibility was redetermined on May 13, 2017, and you were found no longer eligible to enroll in the stand-alone dental plan because you were no longer eligible for coverage under a QHP.

NYSOH rules require that you must be enrolled in a QHP to maintain coverage under a stand-alone dental plan.

Accordingly, the May 14, 2017 disenrollment notice stating that your Guardian stand-alone dental plan coverage was terminated, effective May 31, 2017, is AFFIRMED.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On May 13, 2017 you submitted a request to reenroll in a QHP.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in a health plan, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period. You testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017.

Although you did lose health coverage as a result of the March 31, 2017 disenrollment, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums which NYSOH considers a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, the May 14, 2017 eligibility determination notice, to the extent it denied you a special enrollment period, was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the May 5, 2017 termination notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The May 14, 2017 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.

The May 14, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to facilitate a return to you of premium amounts held in escrow by Fidelis Care, if any, pending the resolution of this appeal.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 05, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your Fidelis Care QHP coverage ended effective March 31, 2017.

Your Guardian stand-alone dental plan coverage ended effective May 31, 2017.

You do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
