NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019025

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective April 30, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective June 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective January 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before March 13, 2017.

Also on December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan.

On March 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to receive up to $318.00 in advance payments of the premium tax credit and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enroll in a silver-level qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017. The notice stated that your eligibility was based on income information from federal and state data sources.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on March 21, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan would end as of April 30, 2017, because you were no longer eligible to remain in your plan.

On April 22, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance.

On April 23, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective June 1, 2017.

Also on April 23, 2017, NYSOH issue an enrollment confirmation notice, based on your plan selection on April 22, 2017, stating that you were enrolled in an Essential Plan effective June 1, 2017.

On May 17, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your Essential Plan for the month of April 2017.

On August 21, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your application indicates, that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH via regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you think that you received the December 14, 2016 notice stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your household's income.
- 3) No notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 4) You testified that you believe you submitted your tax return by uploading it into your account.
- 5) The record reflects that NYSOH did not receive any income documentation.
- 6) Your NYSOH account indicates that on March 20, 2017, your application was run and you were found no longer eligible for the Essential Plan as of April 30, 2017, based on income information from federal and state data sources.

- 7) You updated the income information in your NYSOH account on April 22, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking enrollment in your Essential Plan as of May 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for the Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

NYSOH must verify the eligibility of an applicant for the Essential Plan consistent with the standards set in 45 CFR § 155.315 and § 155.320 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, pgs. 16-17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>; 42 CFR § 600.345(a)(2)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any updates in eligibility to the Essential Plan effective the first day of the following month for changes received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)). For updates received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(ii); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective April 30, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to his or her household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking enrollment in the Essential Plan, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on December 14, 2016, you were advised that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before March 13, 2017.

You testified that you believe you received the December 14, 2016 notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to provide income documentation to confirm your eligibility. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, NYSOH properly notified you of an inconsistency in your account and that documentation was needed to confirm the income you listed in the account.

You testified that you think you uploaded your tax transcript in response to this notice. However, there is no evidence in the record that NYSOH received any income documentation from you prior to the deadline.

If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine an individual's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation.

Accordingly, your eligibility for the Essential Plan terminated as of April 30, 2017 based on income information from federal and state data sources because you did not submit documentation and did not adequately demonstrate that you could not provide documentation to confirm your income.

Therefore, the March 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective June 1, 2017.

You testified, and your account confirms, that you updated your NYSOH application on April 22, 2017. That day, you selected an Essential Plan for reenrollment.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since on April 22, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan, your enrollment would properly take effect on the first day of the second month following April 22, 2017; that is, on June 1, 2017.

Therefore, the April 23, 2017 eligibility determination notice, and the April 23, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective June 1, 2017, are correct and must be AFFIRMED.
