Decision

Decision Date: September 12, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019063

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $228.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC), effective June 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On February 22, 2017, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance and uploaded documentation to your NYSOH account.

On February 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium for a limited time, effective April 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to submit documentation of your household income by May 23, 2017.

Also on February 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, confirming your enrollment in a Healthfirst Essential Plan, beginning April 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that the documentation you submitted did not confirm the information in your application. The notice further directed you to submit documentation of your income by May 23, 2017.

On March 13, 2017, you uploaded documentation to your NYSOH account.

On March 23, 2017, NYSOH issued another notice stating that the documentation you submitted did not confirm the information in your application. The notice further directed you to submit income documentation by May 23, 2017.

On April 12, 2017, you uploaded documentation to your NYSOH account.

On April 17, 2017, NYSOH verified the documentation you submitted and updated your NYSOH application.

On April 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $228.00 per month in APTC, and eligible for cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective June 1, 2017. The notice further stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan or for Medicaid because your income was above the allowable limits for those programs.

Also on April 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that your enrollment in your Essential Plan would end, effective May 31, 2017, because you were no longer eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan.

On May 17, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the April 18, 2017 eligibility determination, insofar as you were not eligible for the Essential Plan. You also requested Aid to Continue, pending the outcome of your appeal.

On June 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium for a limited time, effective June 1, 2017. This was because your request for Aid to Continue, pending the outcome of your appeal, had been approved.

Also on June 6, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, confirming your enrollment in your Healthfirst Essential Plan, beginning July 1, 2017. This was also a result of NYSOH's decision to grant your request for Aid to Continue, pending the outcome of your appeal.

On September 7, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of head of household with qualifying individual. You will claim your sister as a dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are appealing on behalf of yourself only.
- 3) On April 12, 2017, you uploaded seven biweekly paystubs to your NYSOH account for the following dates and gross pay:
 - a. 1/10/2017 - $1,381.25 (Document [REDACTED]);
 - b. 1/24/2017 - $1,270.75 (Document [REDACTED]);
 - c. 2/7/2017 - $1,177.25 (Document [REDACTED]);
 - d. 2/21/2017 - $1,360.00 (Document [REDACTED]);
 - e. 3/7/2017 - $1,241.00 (Document [REDACTED]);
 - f. 3/21/2017 - $1,583.13 (Document [REDACTED]);
 - g. 4/4/2017 - $1,224.00 (Document [REDACTED]).
- 4) Based on the March 21, 2017 and April 4, 2017 paystubs, NYSOH calculated your expected annual gross income to be $36,492.00, and based its April 18, 2017 eligibility determination on this amount.
- 5) You testified that this income figure sounded correct. You testified that you earn $17.00 an hour, and work between 30 and 35 hours per week.
- 6) You testified that your sister is a full-time student and does not have any income, and that there is no other income coming into the household.
- 7) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return, and you confirmed this in your testimony.
- 8) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED].
- 9) You testified that you cannot afford the out of pocket costs associated with enrolling in a qualified health plan, and that you are appealing to be eligible for the Essential Plan instead.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable FPL or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $228.00 per month.

The April 18, 2017 eligibility determination was based on an annual household income of $36,492.00. NYSOH calculated this to be your expected gross annual income after reviewing your March 21, 2017 and April 4, 2017 biweekly paystubs. You testified that this income amount sounded correct to you.

You are in a two-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as head of household with qualifying individual, and will claim one dependent on that tax return.

You reside in [REDACTED], where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $453.37 per month.

An annual income of $36,492.00 is 227.79% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 227.79% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 7.42% of income, or $225.64 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($453.37 per month) minus your expected contribution ($225.64 per month), which equals $227.73 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $228.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $36,492.00 is 227.79% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan, as of April 17, 2017.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $36,492.00 is 227.79% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the April 18, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $228.00 per month in
