Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to switch your qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective July 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 3, 2016, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On December 4, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan (QHP), effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 4, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your selection of a silver-level QHP as of December 3, 2016. The notice confirmed that your coverage would begin effective January 1, 2017.

On January 25, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice confirming that you had requested to end your silver-level QHP coverage as of January 24, 2017. The notice stated that your silver-level QHP coverage would end effective February 28, 2017.

Also on January 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your selection of a bronze-level QHP as of January 24, 2017. The notice confirmed that your coverage under this plan would begin effective March 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On May 19, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not able to switch your QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

On May 24, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility.

On May 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you remained eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost, effective July 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On August 29, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On May 24, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility.
- 2) On May 19, 2017, you attempted to switch your QHP.
- 3) You testified that during the month of January 2017, you were enrolled in UnitedHealth Care plan, which was accepted by four of your providers through [REDACTED].
- 4) You testified that as of February 1, 2017, [REDACTED] and the four providers that you were seeing ceased to accept the UnitedHealth Care plan you were enrolled in. You further testified that you did not receive any notification from [REDACTED] that the plan would cease to be accepted, effective February 1, 2017.
- 5) You testified that had you known that the plan would no longer have been accepted as of February 1, 2017, you would not have selected a UnitedHealth Care plan when you switched plans during the open enrollment period on January 24, 2017.
- 6) You testified that since filing your initial application on December 3, 2016, there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 7) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a qualified health plan sooner.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to switch your QHP outside of the open enrollment period, effective July 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On or about May 19, 2017, you attempted to switch your QHP, but were prevented from doing so. On May 24, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility. On May 25, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You testified that as of February 1, 2017, [REDACTED] and the four providers that you were seeing ceased to accept the UnitedHealth Care plan you were enrolled in. You further testified that you did not receive any notification from [REDACTED] that the plan would have ceased to be accepted effective February 1, 2017. Finally, you testified that had you known that the plan would no longer have been accepted by February 1, 2017, you would have not selected a UnitedHealth Care plan when you switched plan during the open enrollment period on January 24, 2017.

However, [REDACTED] is not an instrumentality or agent of NYSOH. Since the record does not indicate that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information, a special enrollment period cannot be granted.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's May 25, 2017 eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
