Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective, July 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 26, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance.

On April 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) up to $116.00 per month, effective June 1, 2017. The notice stated you must confirm your health plan selection by June 29, 2017.

You enrolled in a qualified health plan on May 3, 2017.

On May 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a silver level qualified health plan with a premium responsibility of $356.49 per month after the application of your tax credit, effective May 1, 2017.

On May 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating your coverage in your silver level qualified health plan was ending on May 1, 2017. The notice stated this was because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On May 26, 2017, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to receive up to $116.00 in APTC, effective July 1, 2017. You also attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan but were unable to select a plan for enrollment.

Also on May 26, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On May 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the May 26, 2017 application for financial assistance, stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $116.00 per month, effective July 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On August 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 2) On April 26, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance.
- 3) You testified you lost your health insurance April 30, 2017, under your father's health plan as a result of [REDACTED] in the month of April 2017.
- 4) The April 27, 2017 notice of eligibility granted you a special enrollment period to enroll into coverage for 2017 and to pick a plan by June 29, 2017.
- 5) The record supports you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan on May 3, 2017.
- 6) The record supports you were disenrolled from your silver level qualified health plan per the May 17, 2017 notice, effective May 1, 2017. The notice stated your coverage was ending because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

- 7) You testified that you were notified you had been disenrolled for non-payment of premium before you had even received correspondence or a bill from the health plan.
- 8) On May 26, 2017, you attempted to enroll in a qualified health plan but were denied.
- 9) You testified that you are appealing because you do not want to be responsible for tax penalty when you file your 2017 tax return for being without coverage.
- 10) The record shows you live in [REDACTED], NY.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective July 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

On April 26, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance and requested to enroll in a qualified health plan. You testified you were losing coverage under your father's health insurance plan effective April 30, 2017 because you were [REDACTED] in the month of April 2017.

Involuntary loss of insurance coverage outside of NYSOH is considered a triggering life event which would allow you 60 days from the date of that event to enroll in coverage if you were found eligible.

A special enrollment period was granted for you to enroll in a qualified health plan. The April 27, 2017 notice issued by NYSOH stated you had until June 29, 2017 to confirm your health plan selection.

You confirmed your selection on May 3, 2017. However, based on your enrollment, your plan selected was set to begin as of May 1, 2017. Generally, when qualified health plans are selected before the 15th of the month, they begin the first of the following month, or in your case June 1, 2017.

Upon enrolling in the plan, you were subsequently disenrolled from that plan on May 17, 2017, or within 14 days of your selection for that plan. You testified that you were notified you had been disenrolled for non-payment of premium before you had even received correspondence or a bill from the health plan.

A special enrollment period can be granted to an enrollee if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment into a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

On April 27, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you qualified for a special enrollment and that you needed to select and confirm a qualified health plan by June 29, 2017. You subsequently attempted to select another plan on May 26, 2017, but were denied.

Since the April 27, 2017, determination notice stated you had until June 29, 2017, to select and confirm a qualified health plan, NYSOH had to honor this granting of a special enrollment period until June 29, 2017. It was in error that you were not allowed to select a plan on May 26, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's May 27, 2017, eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your May 26, 2017 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of May 26, 2017, because NYSOH failed to honor the special enrollment period it had granted to you. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

NYSOH's failure to grant you a special enrollment period resulted in you being without insurance coverage for part of the 2017 coverage year. During the hearing, you testified that you are concerned about receiving a tax penalty as a result of being without coverage.

Sometimes after an appeal decision, an appellant can claim an exemption from the requirement to have health insurance. You might qualify for a health coverage exemption in 2017 if you did not have health coverage while you were waiting for an appeal decision about coverage eligibility or savings and your appeal was eventually successful.

You must claim this exemption through the United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Currently, NYSOH does not accept hardship exemption applications.

You will find the information you need to claim the exemption due to an appeal decision at <https://www.healthcare.gov/exemptions-tool/#/results/2016/details/eligible-based-on-appeal>. You can also call 1-800-318-2596.

Important: If you do not get a response from HHS to your exemption application in time to file your tax return, write the word "pending" in column "c" and file your return. If HHS does not approve your exemption, you will need to file an amended return later.

Decision

The May 27, 2017, eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your May 26, 2017, application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of May 26, 2017, if so choose. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision. You will be responsible for premium payments for any months you are enrolled into coverage.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 1, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH improperly denied you a special enrollment period.
