Decision

Decision Date: September 29, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019356

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly terminate your qualified health plan for non-payment of premium, effective April 30, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you do not qualify to change health plans outside of the open enrollment period, effective July 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On November 19, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a plan enrollment notice, confirming that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan (QHP) with a premium of $569.71 per month, effective January 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you must pay the monthly premium to start and keep your coverage.

On May 30, 2017, NYSOH issued a preliminary eligibility determination stating in part that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

Also on May 30, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On May 31, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, consistent with the May 30, 2017 preliminary eligibility determination, which stated in part that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On June 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your QHP was terminated, effective April 30, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On September 8, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you called your health plan in May 2017, and requested to make your May 2017 and June 2017 payments late. You testified that you were told by the health plan representative that this would be fine.
- 2) You testified that you made your payments but they were not sufficient to cover your premium and those payments have been refunded to you by the health plan.
- 3) According to your NYSOH account, you were disenrolled from your QHP for non-payment of premium, effective April 30, 2017.
- 4) You testified that the health plan refused to reinstate your health coverage.
- 5) You testified that, on May 30, 2017, you attempted to change health plans because the current health plan is unaffordable to you, but were unable to do so.
- 6) You testified that, since the open enrollment period ended on January 31, 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a QHP, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when a triggering events occur, such as:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)(4)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b)).

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Affordability Exemption

Under some circumstances, a person may receive an exemption from paying a penalty for not purchasing health insurance coverage. Such an exemption may be granted if that person can show that he or she experienced a financial hardship or has domestic circumstances that (1) caused an unexpected increase in essential expenses that prevented that person from obtaining health coverage under a QHP; (2) would have caused the person to experience serious deprivation of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, as a result of the expense of purchasing health coverage under a QHP; or (3) prevented that person from obtaining coverage under a QHP (45 CFR § 155.605(a), (g)).

NYSOH has deferred to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on the matter of hardship exemptions (see 45 CFR § 155.505(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your QHP for non-payment of premium, effective April 1, 2017.

On November 19, 2016, you were enrolled in a QHP for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $569.71, effective January 1, 2017.

You testified that, although the health plan representative told you that you could make late payments on your monthly premiums for May 2017 and June 2017, the payments you made were not sufficient to cover your premium and this resulted in your health coverage being terminated.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective April 30, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the June 3, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to change health plans, effective July 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On May 30, 2017, after the open enrollment period ended, you submitted a request to re-enroll in a health plan.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, as in your case, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, you lost health coverage as stated in the April 30, 2017 disenrollment notice, but your loss of health insurance coverage cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums. NYSOH considers nonpayment of premium to be a voluntary action that caused your health insurance coverage to be terminated. As such, a special enrollment period cannot be granted on this basis.

You testified that there have been no changes to your household size or income in 2017. Therefore, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period.

Since the credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience any other triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing, the May 31, 2017 eligibility determination notice, to the extent it denied you a special enrollment period, was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Lastly, if you wish to be considered for a hardship exemption, which would exempt you from paying a penalty for not having health insurance during 2017, you can check the Federal Marketplace website (www.healthcare.gov) for direction.

Decision

The May 31, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 29, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility
