Decision

Decision Date: September 20, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019412

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for Medicaid?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On January 30, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your initial application for financial assistance with your health insurance.

On January 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium per month for a limited time, effective March 1, 2017. The notice requested you provide proof of your income by April 30, 2017.

On February 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating your Essential Plan would start March 1, 2017.

On April 24, 2017, NYSOH received your income documentation.

On April 25, 2017, a NYSOH representative invalidated your income documentation.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On April 26, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating the documentation it reviewed does not confirm the information in your application. The notice requested you to provide proof of your income by May 15, 2017.

On May 15, 2017, NYSOH received your income documentation.

On May 16, 2017, a NYSOH representative verified your income documentation and your eligibility was redetermined.

On May 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective May 1, 2017. The notice stated this was because your household income of $16,477.50 was at or below the income limit for that program.

On May 27, 2017, an enrollment confirmation notice was issued stating your Medicaid Managed Care plan enrollment would start July 1, 2017.

On May 31, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed Medicaid eligibility finding, requesting your eligibility be redetermined for the Essential Plan.

On June 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time. You were granted Aid to Continue until a decision was made on your appeal, effective June 1, 2017.

On June 7, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan, effective June 1, 2017.

On September 8, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) You testified you would like to have your eligibility redetermined for the Essential Plan.

- 4) The application that was submitted on May 16, 2017, listed annual household income of $16,477.50, consisting of income you earn you're your employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time, but you have since been granted a dollar an hour increase.
- 5) You provided proof of your income to NYSOH on May 15, 2017. The documentation you provided shows you earned $10.00 an hour and were paid bi-weekly.
- 6) You provided copies of your paystubs for pay periods of March 12, through March 25, 2017, and March 26 through April 8, 2017, in the gross amounts of $602.50 and $665.00 respectively.
- 7) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return, you testified this was correct.
- 8) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED].

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4).

On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for Medicaid.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You provided copies of your paystubs for pay periods of March 12, through March 25, 2017, and March 26 through April 8, 2017, in the gross amounts of $602.50 and $665.00 respectively. Averaged together for four weeks you would make $316.87 per week, and carried over for 52 weeks for the year would be an annual income of $16,477.50.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your annual household income to be $16,477.50 in the March 16, 2017 application that was submitted on your behalf.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $16,477.50 is 136.63% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the Federal Poverty Level (FPL) for the applicable family size and is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. An annual household income of $16,477.50 is 138.69% of the 2016 FPL which would make you eligible for the Essential Plan on a financial basis, however since you were eligible for Medicaid based on the Medicaid rules you had coverage that is considered minimum essential coverage. As a result, you would not be eligible for the Essential Plan because you were properly found eligible for Medicaid.

Since the May 17, 2017, eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were ineligible for the Essential Plan, and eligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision
