Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective May 31, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was next effective July 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On February 9, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective March 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before May 9, 2017.

On February 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan, effective March 1, 2017.

On March 7, 2017, you uploaded to your NYSOH account income documentation.

On March 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating the documentation you submitted did not confirm the information in your application. You were directed to send in more proof to verify your income by May 9, 2017. The notice referred you to a list of acceptable documents.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

No further documents were submitted by May 9, 2017.

On May 15, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost. The notice stated that you were not eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan because NYSOH did not receive the documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application. This eligibility was effective June 1, 2017.

Also on May 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan would end as of May 31, 2017, because you were no longer eligible to remain in your plan.

On June 1, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared finding you eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan. You selected a plan for enrollment that same day.

Also on June 1, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your Essential Plan for the month of June 2017.

On June 2, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on June 2, 2017, NYSOH issue a plan enrollment notice, based on your plan selection on June 1, 2017, confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan effective July 1, 2017.

On August 31, 2017, you had a scheduled telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. On that date, the Hearing Officer was unable to reach you and your appeal was dismissed for non-appearance at the scheduled hearing. On September 26, 2017, you submitted a request to vacate the dismissal, which was granted and your hearing was rescheduled. On October 26, 2017, you had the rescheduled telephone hearing with the Hearing Officer. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and your testimony, you receive all your notices from NYSOH via regular mail.
- 2) No notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.

- 3) You testified that you knew you needed to submit proof of income and, on March 7, 2017, you uploaded to your account a document showing your income for the last three months in 2016 (see Document [REDACTED].)
- 4) According to your NYSOH account, that document was reviewed on March 16, 2017 and invalidated as proof of household income.
- 5) You testified that you do not remember receiving the March 17, 2017 notice stating that the proof of income documentation you submitted on March 7, 2017 did not confirm the information in your application and that additional documentation needed to be submitted by May 9, 2017.
- 6) You testified that during this May 2017 timeframe you were undergoing extensive [REDACTED].
- 7) Your NYSOH account indicates that, on May 14, 2017, your application was run and you were determined to be no longer eligible for the Essential Plan as of May 31, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you did receive the May 15, 2017 notice stating that your Essential Plan was ending on May 31, 2017.
- 9) You submitted an updated application for financial assistance on June 1, 2017 and you were determined eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited period of time, effective July 1, 2017.
- 10) You were re-enrolled in your Essential Plan effective July 1, 2017.
- 11) You testified that you are seeking enrollment in your Essential Plan as of June 1, 2017, because you have expenses for medical treatment you received that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for the Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

NYSOH must verify the eligibility of an applicant for the Essential Plan consistent with the standards set in 45 CFR § 155.315 and § 155.320 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, pgs. 16-17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>; 42 CFR § 600.345(a)(2)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any updates in eligibility to the Essential Plan effective the first day of the following month for changes received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)). For updates received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(ii); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective May 31, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to his or her household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking enrollment in the Essential Plan, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on February 9, 2017, you were advised that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before May 9, 2017.

You testified that you knew you had to submit proof of income by May 9, 2017 and that, on March 7, 2017, you uploaded a document which you thought would be sufficient proof of your household income. NYSOH reviewed that document on March 16, 2017 and it was invalidated as proof of income. On March 17, 2017, NYSOH issued the notice stating that the document you submitted was insufficient proof of income and that you needed to submit additional documents by May 9, 2017. You testified that you do not recall seeing that March 17, 2017 notice because you were in the process of undergoing extensive [REDACTED]. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, NYSOH properly notified you of an inconsistency in your account and that documentation was needed to confirm the income you listed in the account.

If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine an individual's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation.

Accordingly, your eligibility for the Essential Plan terminated as of May 31, 2017 because you did not submit documentation within the required timeframe and did not adequately demonstrate that you could not provide documentation to confirm your income.

Therefore, the May 15, 2017 eligibility determination and disenrollment notices are AFFIRMED.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was next effective July 1, 2017.

You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you updated your NYSOH application on June 1, 2017. That day you were redetermined eligible, for a limited period of time, for the Essential Plan and you selected an Essential Plan for enrollment.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since on June 1, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan, your enrollment would properly take effect on the first day of the month following June 2017; that is, on July 1, 2017.

Therefore, the June 2, 2017 eligibility determination notice, and the June 2, 2017 plan enrollment notice stating respectively that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective July 1, 2017, are correct and must be AFFIRMED.
