Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your parents' eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan ended effective May 31, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that your parents' eligibility for the Essential Plan resumed no earlier than July 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that your parents were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective February 1, 2017. The notice directed you to provide documentation confirming proof of income before May 2, 2017.

Also on February 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your parents' enrollment in an Essential Plan, effective February 1, 2017.

On May 7, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your parents' eligibility.

On May 8, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that your parents were eligible to purchase a health plan only at full cost, effective June 1, 2017, because NYSOH had not received the income documentation needed to verify their eligibility.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on May 8, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your parents' enrollment in their Essential Plan would end on May 31, 2017, because they were no longer eligible to remain in that plan.

On June 2, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance several times, and several preliminary eligibility determinations were prepared. The first stated that your parents were not eligible for financial assistance, and the second found your parents eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit. The third, which referenced household income of $65,832.01, found your parents eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on June 2, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the July 1, 2017 start of your parents' eligibility and reenrollment in the Essential Plan, instead requesting a start date of June 1, 2017.

On June 3, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your June 2, 2017 applications, stating that your parents were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017, with no premium.

Also on June 3, 2017, NYSOH issue a notice of enrollment confirmation, based on your plan selection on June 2, 2017, stating that your parents were reenrolled in an Essential Plan, effective July 1, 2017.

On September 14, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your application indicates, that you receive your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you did not receive any notices stating that your parents' eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your household's income.
- 3) No notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 4) You testified that you did not know that you needed to submit income documentation until a doctor's visit in May or June, at which time the coverage was inactive.

- 5) You testified that you did not think you had ever submitted any income documentation.
- 6) You testified that you are seeking enrollment for your parents in their Essential Plan to be effective June 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for the Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

NYSOH must verify the eligibility of an applicant for the Essential Plan consistent with the standards set in 45 CFR § 155.315 and § 155.320 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, pgs. 16-17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>; 42 CFR § 600.345(a)(2)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any updates in eligibility to the Essential Plan effective the first day of the following month for changes received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)). For updates received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(ii); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your parents' eligibility for the Essential Plan ended after May 31, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to his or her household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking enrollment in the Essential Plan, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on February 2, 2017, you were advised that your parents were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, and that you needed to confirm income by providing documentation before May 2, 2017.

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to provide income documentation to confirm your parents' eligibility. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, the Appeals Unit finds that NYSOH properly notified you of an inconsistency in your account and the need to provide income documentation.

If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine an individual's eligibility based on the information available from data sources. Because NYSOH could not confirm household income, it properly found that your parents were no longer eligible for the Essential Plan after May 31, 2017.

Therefore, the May 8, 2017 eligibility determination and disenrollment notices must be AFFIRMED.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your parents' eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan resumed effective July 1, 2017.

You testified, and your account confirms, that you updated your NYSOH application multiple times on June 2, 2017. Your parents were once again found eligible for the Essential Plan, and they were reenrolled in coverage.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Because you selected an Essential Plan for your parents on June 2, 2017, their enrollment would properly take effect on the first day of the first month following; that is, on July 1, 2017.

Therefore, the June 3, 2017 eligibility determination and enrollment notices stating that your parents' eligibility for and reenrollment in the Essential Plan was effective July 1, 2017 were correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

The May 8, 2017 eligibility determination and disenrollment notices are AFFIRMED.

The June 3, 2017 eligibility determination and enrollment notices are AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 12, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH properly found your parents ineligible to enroll in the Essential Plan after May 31, 2017, because you did not provide income documentation as directed.

NYSOH properly found that your parents' reenrollment in the Essential Plan was effective July 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
