NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019545

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective June 30, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 26, 2016, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On December 27, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for up to $232.00 per month in advanced premium tax credits, effective February 1, 2017.

On January 1, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan with the application of your advanced premium tax credits, effective February 1, 2017.

On June 5, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance indicating that you no longer needed insurance through NYSOH.

Also on June 5, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the date you were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, requesting that the disenrollment be made effective March 31, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating that coverage in your qualified health plan would end effective June 30, 2017.

Also on June 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a discontinuance notice stating that you were no longer eligible for health insurance through NYSOH, effective July 1, 2017.

On September 8, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the proceeding.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and the record reflects, that you enrolled into a qualified health plan through NYSOH on December 26, 2016 and your enrollment start date was February 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you were unable to afford the premium amount and deductible due to other living expenses.
- 3) You testified that in the end of March 2017, you contacted your qualified health plan and requested that you be disenrolled from coverage.
- 4) You testified that you continued to get monthly premium bills from your qualified health plan.
- 5) You testified that when you called your qualified health plan to ask why you were still receiving monthly premium bills, you were informed that you needed to call NYSOH to disenroll yourself from coverage.
- 6) The record reflects, and you testified, that on June 5, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to disenroll yourself from your qualified health plan.
- 7) You testified that you have paid your insurance premium to your qualified health plan from February 2017 to May 2017.
- 8) You testified that you have not used your qualified health plan since March 2017.
- 9) You testified that you are seeking retroactive disenrollment from your qualified health plan effective March 31, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Termination of a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to terminate his or her coverage with a qualified health plan coverage, with appropriate notice to the NYSOH or qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(1)(i)).

For enrollee-initiated terminations, the last day of coverage is either:

- 1) The termination date specified by the enrollee, if the enrollee provides reasonable notice (at least 14 days before the requested termination date);
- 2) Fourteen days after the enrollee requests the termination, if they do not provide reasonable notice; or
- 3) On a date on or after the date the enrollee requests the termination, if the enrollee's qualified health plan issuer and the enrollee agree to such a date

(45 CFR § 155.430(d)(2)(i)-(iii)).

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to retroactively terminate or cancel their enrollment in a qualified health plan if:

- 1) The enrollee demonstrates that they attempted to terminate their coverage and experienced a technical error that did not allow the coverage to be terminated, and requests retroactive termination within 60 days after they discovered the technical error.
- 2) The enrollment in the qualified health plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or HHS, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Such enrollee must request cancellation within 60 days of discovering the unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous enrollment.
- 3) The enrollee was enrolled in a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by any third party, including third parties who have no connection with the Exchange, and requests cancellation within 60 days of discovering of the enrollment.

(45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(iv)(A-C)).

NYSOH permits a qualified health plan to terminate an individual's coverage if (1) the enrollee is no longer eligible for coverage or (2) non-payment of the premiums by the enrollee (45 CFR § 155.430(b)(2)(i)-(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in your qualified health plan ended effective June 30, 2017.

On December 27, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for up to $232.00 in advanced premium tax credits, effective February 1, 2017. You subsequently enrolled into a qualified health plan.

You testified that you contacted your qualified health plan sometime in March 2017 to request that you be disenrolled from your plan. You further testified that you thought you were disenrolled until you continued to receive monthly premium bills from your qualified health plan in the mail. You testified that you contacted your qualified health plan again, and you were informed that you would have to contact NYSOH in order to cancel your coverage. You testified that you contacted NYSOH on June 5, 2017 to request that your qualified health plan coverage be terminated. Subsequently, on June 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice indicating you would be disenrolled from your qualified health plan effective June 30, 2017.

You testified that you are seeking retroactive disenrollment from your qualified health plan effective March 31, 2017.

NYSOH must permit an enrollee to be retroactively disenrolled from their qualified health plan if the enrollee demonstrates that there was a technical error that should have allowed them to terminate coverage earlier, or if their enrollment in the plan was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and was the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities, or the enrollee was enrolled into a qualified health plan without their knowledge or consent by a third party.

There is no indication in the record that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 27, 2016 enrollment notice was unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous, nor was your enrollment in a qualified health plan the result of the error or misconduct of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities. Furthermore, there is no indication that your enrollment in a qualified health plan as confirmed in the December 27, 2016 enrollment notice was without your knowledge or consent.

Therefore, there is no basis to find that NYSOH must permit you to retroactively terminate or cancel your enrollment in a qualified health plan.

You testified that you first contacted NYSOH on June 5, 2017 in order to request that you be disenrolled from your qualified health plan.

Enrollees must be allowed to terminate their coverage with a qualified health plan at the date they specify if they provide reasonable notice to NYSOH or to their health plan. Reasonable notice is defined as at least 14 days prior to the requested termination date.

You requested that your coverage through your qualified health plan be terminated on June 5, 2017. Subsequently, NYSOH terminated your insurance coverage with your qualified health plan, effective June 30, 2017, which was the last day of the month following your request.

Since you do not qualify to be retroactively disenrolled from your coverage and you did not provide reasonable notice to NYSOH, NYSOH properly determined that your disenrollment in your qualified health plan was effective June 30, 2017.

Therefore, the June 6, 2017 disenrollment notice is AFFIRMED.
