Decision

Decision Date: September 18, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019558

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was your and your child's qualified health plan (QHP) properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums?

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your child did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 13, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that you and your one child were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective January 1, 2017. The notice stated that you and your child were ineligible for a tax credit and income-based cost-sharing reductions because of missing information about your taxes.

On December 13, 2016, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming, in relevant part, that as of December 12, 2016, you and your child were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of January 1, 2017.

On March 13, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating, in relevant part, that your and your child's coverage would end on January 31, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On June 5, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on June 5, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the termination of your and your child's QHP coverage, and your and your child's eligibility for a special enrollment period.

On June 6, 2017, NYSOH acknowledged receipt of your request for an appeal as it related in part to a "Denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP)."

On September 11, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. You requested to amend your appeal to your and your child's disenrollment from your QHP and denial of SEP, which the Hearing Officer granted. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing only the disenrollment of your and your child's coverage from your QHP and subsequent ineligibility for a special enrollment period.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, your child was born on [REDACTED]
- 3) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you and your child were enrolled in an Empire BlueCross BlueShield (Empire) QHP, effective January 1, 2017.
- 4) You testified that you contacted Empire to pay the January 2017 and February 2017 health insurance premiums in March 2017; however, they would not accept payment because your coverage had been terminated.
- 5) You testified that you thought you had 90 days to pay your health insurance premiums before the coverage was terminated.
- 6) You testified that Empire informed you that your coverage was cancelled after 30 days of failing to pay your health insurance premiums because you were not receiving financial assistance.
- 7) You testified you contacted NYSOH in March 2017, and was informed that you were not eligible for a tax credit in 2017 because you did not include a 2015 Form 8962 with your 2015 federal tax return.
- 8) You testified that you were not informed by your health insurance company that you needed to file a 2015 Form 8962.

9) You testified that your 2015 Form 8962 was filed with the Internal Revenue Service in May 2017.

10) You testified that you contacted NYSOH on June 5, 2017, and were verbally denied a special enrollment period.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

De Novo Review

The Marketplace Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and "consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process" (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). "De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case" (45 CFR § 155.500).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
  - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
  - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.
- (5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;
- (6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether your and your child's QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums.

The record reflects that you and your child were enrolled in a QHP, effective January 1, 2017. On March 13, 2017, NYSOH issued you a notice stating that your coverage was terminated for non-payment of premiums.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal regarding whether your and your child's QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums is DISMISSED.

Empire may be able to help you with your request for coverage. If you have not already been assisted with your current coverage issue, please contact Empire directly at 1-855-748-1806.

In addition, since your issue concerns a health insurer and/or payment, reimbursement, coverage, benefits, rates and premiums, you can contact NY Department of Financial Services at their Consumer Hotline at (800) 342-3736 (Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM); or locally to (212) 480-6400; or you can file a complaint at <http://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumer/fileacomplaint.htm>

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your child did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

The record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination regarding the issue of denying you a special enrollment period (SEP). The lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of SEP does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are entitled to appeal a determination of eligibility for an enrollment period. During the hearing, you testified that the reason for your appeal was so you and your child could be granted a special enrollment period to re-enroll in coverage through NYSOH. The text of the June 6, 2017 notice, which in part acknowledges the appeal on the issue of denial of SEP, permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your request for SEP.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH's determinations are performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the notice of eligibility determination had it been issued.

You testified that you are seeking the reinstatement of your and your child's health plan through NYSOH.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. Once that annual open enrollment period ended, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums, which NYSOH considers to be a voluntary action that caused your and your child's coverage to terminate.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, and you have not experienced a triggering event that would qualify you or your spouse for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, the denial of a special enrollment period is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal regarding whether your and your child's QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums is DISMISSED.

NYSOH's determination to deny you and your child a special enrollment period is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 18, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You and your child did not qualify for a special enrollment period.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
