Decision

Decision Date: September 15, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019679

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $693.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective July 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On June 8, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance.

On June 9, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $693.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective July 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you and your spouse were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on June 9, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you and your spouse were found ineligible for the Essential Plan.

On September 11, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you and your spouse expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim one dependent on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself and your spouse.
- 3) The application that was submitted on June 8, 2017 listed annual household income of $40,680.00, consisting of wages you earn from your employment. You testified that this amount was correct. You further testified that neither your spouse nor your child have any income.
- 4) On June 7, 2017 you uploaded a letter (Doc. [REDACTED]) from your employer dated June 6, 2017 stating that you receive a gross monthly salary of $3,390.00.
- 5) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you and your spouse will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 6) Your application states, and you confirmed that you live in [REDACTED].
- 7) You stated that it is your position that you and your spouse should be found eligible for the Essential Plan as your gross household income is less than 200% of the 2017 Federal Poverty Level for a household of three. You uploaded a document with the title "2017 Income Levels for Select Poverty Guidelines" (Doc. ID# [REDACTED]) in support of your argument.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $20,160.00 for a three-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were eligible for an APTC of up to $693.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on June 8, 2017 listed an annual household income of $40,680.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You and your spouse expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim one dependent on that tax return. Therefore, you and your spouse are in a three-person household.

You reside in [REDACTED], where the second lowest cost silver plan available for a couple through NYSOH costs $912.91 per month.

An annual income of $40,680.00 is 201.79% of the 2016 FPL for a three-person household. At 201.79% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 6.49% of income, or $220.13 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a couple in your county ($912.91 per month) minus your expected contribution ($220.13 per month), which equals $692.78 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you and your spouse to be eligible for up to $693.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you and your spouse were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $40,680.00 is 201.79% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your spouse to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size.

The determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was the 2016 FPL. The 2016 FPL for a three-person household is $20,160.00. Since an annual household income of $40,680.00 is 201.79% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the June 9, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you and your spouse were eligible for up to $693.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
