Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a different qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On March 31, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued an eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for up to $304.00 per month in advanced premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled into a silver-level qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017. This notice also states that you were eligible to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, and that you must pick a plan for enrollment by May 29, 2017.

On April 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a bronze-level qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017.

On June 16, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to change your enrollment into a different qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On June 19, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance. That day, you attempted to change your enrollment into a different qualified health plan that day, but you were unable to do so.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 20, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the June 19, 2017 application for financial assistance, stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $304.00 per month, effective August 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On September 15, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit, and [REDACTED] assisted with the hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record indicates that on March 31, 2017, NYSOH found you eligible for advanced premium tax credits of up to $304.00 per month.
- 2) The record indicates that on April 13, 2017, you enrolled into a bronze-level qualified health plan, effective May 1, 2017.
- 3) You testified, and the application indicates, that you received assistance with your application from a navigator at a local agency in your area.
- 4) You testified that when explaining the difference between the qualified health plans, the navigator did not explain that the bronze-level qualified health plan you enrolled in would have a deductible, but only indicated that the monthly premium would be less.
- 5) You testified that you are unable to afford your bronze-level qualified health plan due to the deductible being so high.
- 6) You testified that you were informed by the navigator that you would have 90 days to change your enrollment to a different qualified health plan.
- 7) On June 19, 2017, you attempted to change your enrollment into a different qualified health plan.
- 8) You testified that since filing your application in March 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.
- 9) You testified that you would like to be able to change your enrollment to a different "level" of qualified health plan because you are unable to afford the deductible of the bronze-level qualified health plan you are enrolled in now.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

- (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.
- (5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;
- (6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.
- (7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—
 - (i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or
 - (ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;
- (8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.
- (9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;
- (10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a different qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective August 1, 2017.

On April 14, 2017, you enrolled into enroll in a bronze- qualified health plan. On June 19, 2017, you attempted to change your enrollment into a different qualified health plan. On June 20, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You credibly testified that you enrolled into your bronze-level qualified health plan on April 14, 2017, and that you did so with the guidance of a navigator employed by a local agency. You testified that when the navigator went through the options for qualified health plans with you that she did not mention that your deductible would be so high, and only informed you that your monthly premium for the bronze-level qualified health plan would be lower per month. You testified that you were also informed that you would have 90 days to change enrollment in your qualified health plan. You testified that you relied upon that information when enrolling into a bronze-level qualified health plan. You testified that after realizing that you were unable to afford the deductible associated with the bronze-level qualified health plan, that you attempted to change enrollment into a different qualified health plan but were unable to do so.

Since the record, along with your credible testimony, indicates that your enrollment into a bronze-level qualified health plan was the direct result of a misstatement made to you by a navigator with an entity providing enrollment assistance and conducting enrollment activities, you should have been granted a special enrollment period as of June 19, 2017 to be able to change your enrollment into a different qualified health plan.

Therefore, the June 20, 2017 eligibility determination notice that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your June 19, 2017 application.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in changing your enrollment into a different qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of June 19, 2017; which would result in an August 1, 2017 start date, because an entity of NYSOH gave you incorrect information. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

Decision

The June 20, 2017 eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your June 19, 2017 application.
