The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

> Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were disenrolled from Medicaid and your Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective June 30, 2017?

Procedural History

On November 23, 2015, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective January 1, 2016.

On November 25, 2015, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2016.

On October 20, 2016, NYSOH issued a renewal notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective January 1, 2017. This was because federal and state data sources showed that your income was between $0.00 and $22,108.00.

On November 17, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, based on your plan selection on November 16, 2016, stating that you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective January 1, 2017.

On June 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for 2017. That notice stated that, based on information from federal and state sources, NYSOH could not make a decision about whether you would qualify for financial help paying for your health coverage, and that you needed to update your account by July 15, 2017 or you might lose the financial assistance you were currently receiving.

On June 18, 2017, you submitted an updated application for financial assistance.

On June 19, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on June 19, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Medicaid and Medicaid Managed Care plan would end on June 30, 2017. This was because you were no longer eligible to enroll in Medicaid.

On June 19, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were found ineligible for financial assistance.

On July 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. This was because you had been granted Aid to Continue until a decision was made on your appeal.

On July 7, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective July 1, 2017.

On September 21, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) You were determined eligible for Medicaid, effective January 1, 2017.

2) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.

3) You are seeking insurance for yourself.

4) The application that was submitted on June 18, 2017 listed annual household income of $83,168.00, consisting of $21,600.00 per month your spouse receives in [redacted] and $61,568.00 per month your spouse earns from his employment. You testified that this amount was correct.

5) You testified that you have no income.

6) You testified that your spouse receives $1,800.00 per month in [redacted] [redacted]. You explained that because your spouse is working full time, his Social Security benefits are taxed at the highest rate of 85%.

7) You testified that your spouse receives a net payment of $892.17 each Wednesday from his employer. You further testified that you believe the gross amount is $1,100.00, but you are not sure. You explained that your spouse works for a small company, and he is paid by a personal check.

8) The application you submitted on June 18, 2017 states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return. You testified that you will be claiming a deduction for medical expenses including copays.

9) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in [redacted] [redacted]

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid for Adults between the Ages of 19 and 65

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the federal poverty level (FPL) for the applicable family size (42 CFR §§ 435.119(b), 435.911(b)(1), 435.603(d)(4); NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

Generally, most adults determined eligible for Medicaid are guaranteed 12 months of Medicaid coverage, even if they lose Medicaid eligibility because of any changes or updates they make to their NYSOH account. For example, even if income increases above the Medicaid limit allowed for the household size, the insured will remain covered under Medicaid for a 12-month period. This 12-month period is referred to as “continuous coverage” and is set based on the start date of the original Medicaid eligibility determination or the date of a subsequent Medicaid eligibility determination based on modified adjusted gross income (NY Social Services Law § 366(4)(c)).

An individual will be enrolled or remain in their Medicaid plan with limited exceptions, including entering prison or another facility that provides medical care, lack of state residence, failing to provide a valid social security number, or having third party health insurance (NY Social Services Law § 366(4)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were disenrolled from Medicaid and your Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective June 30, 2017.

On October 20, 2016, NYSOH issued a renewal notice stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective January 1, 2017. That determination has not been appealed and is not under review.

On June 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a renewal notice requesting that you update your NYSOH account by July 15, 2017 in order for your eligibility for financial assistance to be determined.

Also on June 18, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. As a result of this update, NYSOH found that you were eligible to enroll in a full cost qualified health plan, effective July 1, 2017. You were found ineligible for Medicaid coverage because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

However, under New York State law, once a person is found eligible for Medicaid, that eligibility generally continues for 12 months, even if the household income rises above 138% of the FPL. This provision is called “continuous coverage”.

The record reflects that there were no events that would have been a basis for your Medicaid coverage to have been terminated, such as a permanent move or incarceration. Since you were determined eligible for Medicaid in the October 20, 2016 renewal notice, effective January 1, 2017, you remain eligible for Medicaid for 12 continuous months, regardless of any increases in your household income. As a result, you were improperly disenrolled from Medicaid and your Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective June 30, 2017.

Since NYSOH determined that you were eligible for Medicaid as of January 1, 2017, and therefore eligible for continuous coverage, the June 20, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to provide you Medicaid coverage until the end of your 12-month continuous coverage period.

The June 20, 2017 disenrollment notice is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate you into Medicaid and your Medicaid Managed Care plan as of July 1, 2017 and to continue your Medicaid barring subsequent changes in your eligibility until December 31, 2017.

Decision

The June 20, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to provide you Medicaid coverage until the end of your 12-month continuous coverage period.

The June 20, 2017 disenrollment notice is RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate you into Medicaid and your Medicaid Managed Care plan as of July 1, 2017 and to continue your Medicaid barring subsequent changes in your eligibility until December 31, 2017.

Effective Date of this Decision: November 8, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your Medicaid coverage, which began on January 1, 2017, continue until December 31, 2017, barring subsequent changes in your eligibility.

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to reinstate you into your Medicaid and Medicaid Managed Care plan as of July 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).
