Decision

Decision Date: September 14, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID:

Appeal Identification Number: AP00000019845

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in the Essential Plan and your child's enrollment in a Child Health Plus plan were effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On June 19, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a preliminary eligibility determination, based on your initial application and plan selection that day, stating in part that you were eligible for and enrolled in the Essential Plan and your child was eligible for and enrolled in a Child Health Plus (CHP) plan, both effective August 1, 2017.

Also on June 19, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that preliminary eligibility determination insofar as both your Essential Plan and your child's CHP plan began on August 1, 2017, and not June 1, 2017.

On June 20, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, consistent with the preliminary eligibility determination, stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan and your child was eligible for CHP, effective August 1, 2017.

Also on June 20, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that you and your child were enrolled in the Essential Plan and a CHP plan, respectively, with an enrollment start date of August 1, 2017.

On September 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- You submitted an initial application to NYSOH for financial assistance on June 19, 2017. You enrolled in the Essential Plan and enrolled your child in a CHP plan that same day.
- 2) You testified that you and your child previously had Medicaid coverage through your local Department of Social Services.
- 3) You testified that neither your health plan nor your local Department of Social Services notified you that you or your child were terminated from your Medicaid Managed Care (MMC) plan. You found out you were terminated when you went to the in June 2017.
- 4) You testified that you want your enrollment in your Essential Plan and your child's enrollment in his CHP plan to begin effective June 1, 2017, because you have medical bills for June 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Child Health Plus Effective Date

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for CHP begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in an Essential Plan and your child's enrollment in his CHP plan were effective August 1, 2017.

You testified that you were never given notice by your health plan or your local Department of Social Services that your MMC coverage was about to end. You first learned that you were terminated from your MMC plan when you visited the in June 2017. You further testified that you previously had Medicaid coverage through your local county's Department of Social Services.

Since NYSOH's Appeal Unit has no jurisdiction over your local Department of Social Services nor your health plan, our authority to review your case is limited to whether, based on the evidence in your NYSOH account and your testimony, NYSOH properly determined that your and your child's enrollment in your Essential Plan and your child's CHP plan, were effective August 1, 2017.

According to your NYSOH account, the record shows that on June 19, 2017 you initially applied for health insurance for yourself and your child through NYSOH and submitted a request to enroll in an Essential Plan and a CHP plan that day.

The date on which an Essential Plan and a CHP plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you selected your Essential Plan and your child's CHP plan on June 19, 2017, they must take effect on the first day of the second month following June 2017; that is, on August 1, 2017.

Therefore, June 20, 2017, eligibility determination and plan enrollment notices are AFFIRMED because they properly began your eligibility for and enrollment in your Essential Plan on August 1, 2017 and your child's eligibility for and enrollment in his CHP plan on August 1, 2017.

You testified that you were not notified by your local Department of Social Services that you're and your child's coverage in your MMC plan was terminated. You can visit the website of NYS Office of Temporary and Disability Assistance at https://otda.ny.gov/hearings/faq.asp to see if you can avail yourself of the fair hearing process in this regard.
