Decision

Decision Date: October 17, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000019911

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly terminate your and your child's qualified health plan for non-payment of premium, effective April 30, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you and your child do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 16, 2016, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On December 17, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your child were eligible for a limited time to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $552.00 per month, and eligible for cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017. You were directed to submit income documentation by March 16, 2017.

Also on December 17, 2016, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you and your child were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017.

On March 22, 2017, an application for health insurance was run on your behalf.

On March 23, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that you and your child were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost, effective May 1, 2017. The notice stated that you and your child were not eligible for APTC or cost-sharing reductions because you did not provide income documentation and NYSOH relied on data sources to determine your eligibility.

Also on March 23, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, stating that you and your child were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017.

On May 9, 2017, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On May 10, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your child were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $552.00 per month, and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enroll in a silver-level qualified health plan, effective June 1, 2017. It further stated that you and your child may qualify to enroll in coverage outside of the open enrollment period.

Also on May 10, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice, stating that you and your child were enrolled in a qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017.

On June 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that your enrollment in your qualified health plan was terminated, effective April 30, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the deadline.

On June 21, 2017, you attempted to reenroll into a qualified health plan, but were unable to.

Also on June 21, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On June 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "denial of SEP."

On September 15, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. You were unable to participate in the hearing at that time, and the Hearing Officer agreed to adjourn your hearing.

On September 19, 2017, you had an adjourned telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You and your child were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $206.38, effective January 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that you made premium payments to your qualified health plan for January 2017 through April 2017.
- 3) You testified that you spoke with the health plan on May 22, 2017, and you were advised that NYSOH had not paid the APTC. You did not pay the full premium of $758.38, but paid the full premium less the APTC amount, or $206.38, for April 2017. You testified that you did not make a premium payment in May 2017.
- 4) The record reflects that on March 23, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your child were no longer eligible for APTC as of May 1, 2017. That notice is not under appeal.
- 5) You and your child were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, effective April 30, 2017.
- 6) On June 21, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to reenroll into a qualified health plan.
- 7) The record reflects that you and your child have been without health insurance since May 1, 2017.
- 8) You testified that since filing your application on December 16, 2016 there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and “consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process” (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). “De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case” (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your and your child’s qualified health plan for non-payment of premium effective May 1, 2017.

On December 17, 2016, you and your child were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $206.38, effective January 1, 2017.

You testified that you made premium payments to your qualified health plan for January 2017 through April 2017. However, in May 22, 2017, you spoke with the health plan and were advised that NYSOH did not pay APTC for April 2017, and that you owed the full premium. You testified that you did not pay the full premium, but paid $206.38, or the full premium less the APTC amount. You testified that you did not make a premium payment in May 2017.

On June 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you and your child were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective April 30, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the June 6, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your child do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony along with the June 22, 2017 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was “denial of SEP”, permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On June 21, 2017, you submitted a request to reenroll in a qualified health plan.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period. You testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017.

Though you did lose health coverage as a result of the June 6, 2017 disenrollment, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums which NYSOH considers a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Decision

Your appeal of the June 6, 2017 disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 17, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You and your child do not qualify for a special enrollment period at this time.
