Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

> Did NY State of Health properly determine you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20 monthly premium, effective August 1, 2017?
> Did NY State of Health properly determine were not eligible for Medicaid, effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On June 16, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance.

On June 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective August 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid, because your income was over the allowable income limits for that program.

On June 23, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible for Medicaid.

On September 21, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) You testified you are appealing your eligibility only.

2) You were determined conditionally eligible for Medicaid, effective December 1, 2016 pending receipt of documentation verifying your immigration status. That application indicated your income for 2017 was $0.00.

3) NYSOH received and verified your immigration documentation on March 24, 2017 and your eligibility was redetermined based on the income information from your prior application. According to your account, NYSOH was unable to verify that information and requested documentation to verify your income. You were disenrolled from your Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective April 30, 2017, pending receipt of income documentation necessary to determine your eligibility.

4) There is no record NYSOH ever received any documentation of your income.

5) On June 16, 2017, NYSOH received an updated application submitted on your behalf. That application indicated you would file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of head of household and you would claim one dependent. You testified that information was accurate.

6) The application listed your annual income as $24,960.00 consisting of $480.00 of weekly gross earnings from your employment. You testified that information was accurate.

7) You testified that although you received some paid time off, you did not work for a week in September, because your employer's building was closed for repairs. You testified you were not paid for that week.

8) You testified the previous application you submitted in December 2016 indicated you had $0.00 income, because you were laid off by your employer for two months. You stated that you began working again for the same employer in January 2017 and you have been employed there since.

9) You testified that in June 2017 you earned $480.00 in gross income in each week. You testified you are paid on each Friday.

10) You testified you do not intend to take any deductions on your 2017 tax return.

11) You testified, and your application indicates, you reside in Dutchess County.

12) You testified you are seeking eligibility for Medicaid.

13) You testified that you were told by a NYSOH representative that you were no longer eligible for Medicaid due to your immigration status. You testified you became a naturalized citizen in December 2017. Your account confirms you submitted your certificate of naturalization in March 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, on the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $16,240.00 for a two-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective August 1, 2017.

Your June 16, 2017 application lists your income for 2016 as $24,960.00 consisting of $480.00 gross you earned weekly from your employment. You testified that information was accurate.

You testified, and your application indicates, you will file your 2017 tax return with a tax filing status of Head of Household and you will claim one dependent. Therefore, for the purposes of determining your eligibility for financial assistance, you are deemed to be in a two-person household.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household.

Even accepting your testimony that you did not earn income for a week in September 2017, the income information in the June 16, 2017 application and your own testimony establishes your income for 2017 would be $24,480.00, which is 152.80% of the 2016 FPL and still qualifies you for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, because your income is over 150% of the applicable FPL.

Thus, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective August 1, 2017.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,240.00 for a two-person household. Since $24,480.00 is 150.74% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income based on your testimony and the information in your June 16, 2017 application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified you were paid $480.00 in gross income on each Friday in June 2017. Accordingly, as there were five Fridays in June 2017, based on your testimony, you earned $2,400.00 in income in June 2017.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,354.00 per month. Since, based on your testimony, you earned $2,400.00 in June 2017 you do not qualify for Medicaid based on monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the June 18, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium and ineligible for Medicaid, effective August 1, 2017, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

It is noted that you testified you were told by a NYSOH representative that you were no longer eligible for Medicaid due to your immigration status. However, the evidence establishes the change in your eligibility was solely due to the change in your reported income.

Decision

The June 18, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 6, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You remain eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium.
