Decision

Decision Date: September 26, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020071

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Was your qualified health plan (QHP) properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums?

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period as of June 24, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Essential Plan coverage would end on May 31, 2017, because you were no longer eligible to enroll in an Essential Plan.

On May 11, 2017, your account was updated.

On May 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for a tax credit up to $233.00 per month, effective as of June 1, 2017.

On May 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that, as of May 15, 2017, you were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of June 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your QHP coverage would end June 1, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On June 23, 2017, your account was updated.

On June 24, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

Also on June 27, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as your coverage in your QHP was terminated and you were denied a special enrollment period.

On September 20, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the disenrollment of your coverage and your ineligibility for a special enrollment period.
- 2) According to your account, your Essential Plan coverage ended on May 31, 2017.
- 3) According to your account and testimony, you were enrolled in a Fidelis Care QHP, effective June 1, 2017.
- 4) You testified that you were told by a NYSOH representative that you had fifteen days to pay your June 2017 health insurance premium.
- 5) You testified that you were told by a Fidelis Care representative that the health insurance premium had to be paid by June 1, 2017.
- 6) You testified that you never received a premium invoice or welcome packet from Fidelis Care.
- 7) According to your June 23, 2017 application, you attested that you were seeking a special enrollment period because you lost health coverage as May 31, 2017.

- 8) You testified that you want the QHP to be effectuated June 1, 2017, to cover medical bills that you incurred in June 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption; (4) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (5) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.

(iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Loss of Minimum Essential Coverage - Length of Special Enrollment Period

Generally, a qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR §155.420(c)(1)). A qualified individual or their dependent, who loses health insurance that is considered to be minimum essential coverage, has 60 days before or after the loss of coverage to select a QHP (45 CFR §155.420(c)(2)).

Loss of Minimum Essential Coverage – Effective Date

When an individual loses minimum essential coverage, if the plan selection is made on or before the date of the loss of coverage, NYSOH must ensure that the coverage effective date is on the first day of the month following the loss of coverage. If the plan selection is made after the date of the loss of coverage, NYSOH must ensure that coverage is effective with the regular effective dates or the first day of the following month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(iv)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether your QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums.

The record reflects that you were enrolled in a QHP effective June 1, 2017. On June 22, 2017, NYSOH issued you a disenrollment notice stating that your coverage was terminated for non-payment of premiums.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) an eligibility determination for an exemption, (4) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination and (5) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether or not you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal regarding whether your QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums is DISMISSED.

Fidelis Care may be able to help you with your request for coverage. If you have not already been assisted with your current coverage issue, please contact 1-888-343-3547.

In addition, since your issue concerns a health insurer and/or payment, reimbursement, coverage, benefits, rates and premiums, you can contact NY Department of Financial Services at their Consumer Hotline at (800) 342-3736 (Monday through Friday, 8:30 AM to 4:30 PM); or locally to (212) 480-6400; or you can file a complaint at <http://www.dfs.ny.gov/consumer/fileacomplaint.htm>

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period as June 24, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

The record reflects that your Essential Plan coverage had ended on May 31, 2017. Loss of your Essential Plan coverage is considered a triggering life event, which allows you to select a QHP.

A qualified individual, who loses health insurance that is considered to be minimum essential coverage, has 60 days before or after the loss of coverage to select a QHP. Since your Essential Plan coverage ended on May 31, 2017; you had until July 30, 2017 to select a QHP.

The record reflects that on June 23, 2017, you applied for a special enrollment period. Since the special enrollment period that was granted on the basis of losing minimum essential coverage as of May 31, 2017 had not expired, NYSOH incorrectly denied you a special enrollment period.

Therefore, the June 24, 2017 eligibility determination notice stating you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period for 60 days from the date of this decision.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling in a QHP.

If a QHP is selected after the date of the loss of coverage, NYSOH must ensure that coverage is effective with the regular effective dates or the first day of the following month.

Therefore, you will have the options to select the enrollment start date of the QHP:

- (1) July 1, 2017;
- (2) August 1, 2017;

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

(3) Prospectively, based on when the QHP is selected.

Decision

Your appeal regarding whether your QHP was properly cancelled for non-payment of premiums is DISMISSED.

The June 24, 2017 eligibility determination notice stating you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period for 60 days from the date of this decision.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 26, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your case has been returned to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling in a QHP.

You will have the option to select the enrollment start date of the QHP:

- (1) July 1, 2017;
- (2) August 1, 2017;
- (3) Prospectively, based on when the QHP is selected.

You will be responsible to pay for the monthly health insurance premiums to effectuate this coverage.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).
