Decision

Decision Date: September 25, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020085

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $160.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC)?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions (CSR)?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On June 28, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance through NYSOH. Based on that application, NYSOH rendered a preliminary eligibility determination finding you eligible for up to $160.00 monthly of APTC.

Also on June 28, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH’s Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the amount of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

On June 29, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for up to $160.00 monthly of APTC, effective as of July 1, 2017. The notice also stated that you were ineligible for CSR and Essential Plan because your income exceeded the income thresholds for both of these programs.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On July 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that as of July 11, 2017, you were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of August 1, 2017.

On September 20, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you are applying for health insurance for yourself.
- 2) According to your June 28, 2017 application and testimony, you attested to an annual household income of $36,400.00.
- 3) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return with the tax status of single and do not expect to claim any dependents on that return.
- 4) According to your NYSOH account, you do not expect to claim any deductions on your 2017 federal income tax return.
- 5) On June 26, 2017, and June 27, 2017, you submitted copies of your monthly mortgage payments and condominium fees to NYSOH (see [REDACTED]).
- 6) You testified that you want the amount paid for the interest on your mortgage and condominium fees to be considered when determining your eligibility for financial assistance.
- 7) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in [REDACTED], [REDACTED].
- 8) You testified you are unable to afford the health insurance premiums based on the amount of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)).

Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (26 USC § 262(a)).

Home mortgage interest payments may be itemized on a Form 1040 Schedule A; however, these expenses are not used to compute adjusted gross income (26 USC § 163(h); Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Publication 936 (2016)).

Household Composition

For APTC and CSR, the household size equals the number of individuals for whom the taxpayers are allowed a deduction under 26 USC § 151 for the taxable year, which typically includes: (1) the taxpayer, (2) his or her spouse, and (3) any claimed dependents (26 USC § 36B(d)(1)).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 300% but less than 400% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 9.69% and 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Affordability Exemption

Under some circumstances, a person may receive an exemption from paying a penalty for not purchasing health insurance coverage. Such an exemption may be granted if that person can show that he or she experienced a financial hardship or has domestic circumstances that (1) caused an unexpected increase in essential expenses that prevented that person from obtaining health coverage under a QHP; (2) would have caused the person to experience serious deprivation of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, as a result of the expense of purchasing health coverage under a QHP; or (3) prevented that person from obtaining coverage under a QHP (45 CFR § 155.605(a), (g)).

NY State of Health has deferred to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on the matter of hardship exemptions (see 45 CFR § 155.505(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under appeal is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $160.00 of APTC per month.

Based on the application that was submitted on June 28, 2017, you attested to an expected annual household income of $36,400.00 and the June 29, 2017 eligibility determination relied upon that information.

During the hearing, you testified that the amount you provided in your application was correct. However, you testified that you also want the amount paid for the interest on your mortgage and condominium fees to be considered when calculating your annual household income. Since the Internal Revenue Service rules do not allow such expenses to be deducted when computing adjusted gross income, they cannot be deducted when the NYSOH computes your modified adjusted gross income for APTC purposes. Therefore, NYSOH correctly determined your household income to be $36,400.00.

An individual who expects to file a federal income tax return, the household equals the taxpayers and the number of individuals for whom the taxpayer is claiming as a dependent.

You attested that you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return with the tax status of single and did not expect to claim any dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you were in a one-person household for purposes of this analysis.

You reside in Suffolk County, New York, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $453.55 per month.

An annual income of $36,400.00 is 306.40% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 306.40% of the FPL, the expected contribution in 2017 is 9.69% of the household income, or $293.93 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($453.55 per month) minus your expected contribution ($293.93 per month), which equals $159.62 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $160.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you were properly found ineligible for CSR.

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a one-person household with an income of $36,400.00 is 306.40% of the FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be ineligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $36,400.00 is 306.40% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The June 29, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $160.00 per month in APTC, and ineligible for CSR and the Essential Plan. Therefore, it is correct and AFFIRMED.

Decision

The June 29, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 25, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility
