Decision

Decision Date: October 4, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020191

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly terminate your qualified health plan for non-payment of premium, effective June 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On May 24, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your application for health insurance.

On May 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for up to $259.00 per month in advanced premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled into a silver-level qualified health plan, effective July 1, 2017. This notice also stated that you must confirm your health plan selection by June 30, 2017.

Also on May 25, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a qualified health plan, effective June 1, 2017.

On June 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan disenrollment notice stating that you had been disenrolled from your qualified health plan, effective June 1, 2017. This notice stated that your coverage is ending because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 27, 2017, you attempted to reenroll into a qualified health plan, but were unable to.

On July 3, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible to reenroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On September 22, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open for the Hearing Officer to listen to NYSOH's Call Center recording from June 27, 2017.

The Hearing Officer listened to the available recording from June 27, 2017, after which the record was closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to reenroll into a health plan through NYSOH.
- 2) On May 24, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance.
- 3) The record indicates that you were given a special enrollment period until June 30, 2017.
- 4) You testified that you enrolled into a qualified health plan which was effective June 1, 2017.
- 5) You testified that after enrolling, you were unable to pay your health insurance premium right away because you did not have the money to pay.
- 6) You testified that you are single parent and work paycheck to paycheck, so you try to pay your bills when you get paid once every other week.
- 7) You testified that you spoke with both NYSOH and your qualified health plan about extending the due date, but both NYSOH and your qualified health plan told you that there was nothing that could be done.
- 8) You testified, and the record reflects, that you were disenrolled for nonpayment of premium, effective June 1, 2017.

- 9) You testified that you contacted NYSOH and attempted to reenroll into a qualified health plan prior to June 30, 2017, but you were unable to do so.
- 10) NYSOH's Appeals Unit reviewed the phone call you made to NYSOH on June 27, 2017 and determined that:
- a. You stated to the NYSOH representative that the reason for your call was to reenroll into a qualified health plan.
 - b. You stated that you had been informed to call NYSOH by your qualified health plan in order to get a new start date.
 - c. The NYSOH representative asked you some follow up questions, and then informed you that you were unable to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period unless you had a qualifying life event; which you did not have.
 - d. The NYSOH representative informed you that you would have to wait until the next open enrollment period to enroll into a qualified health plan.
- 11) You testified that you would like to have the ability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and "consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process" (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). "De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case" (45 CFR § 155.500).

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly terminated your qualified health plan for non-payment of premium, effective June 1, 2017.

On May 24, 2017, you were enrolled in a qualified health plan for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $187.10, effective June 1, 2017.

You testified that you were unable to pay your premium to your qualified health plan by the due date. As a result, you missed a payment.

On June 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective June 1, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the June 22, 2017 plan disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to reenroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to enroll into a health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony, along with Incident [REDACTED] entered on July 3, 2017 which indicates that you are requesting the ability to reenroll into a qualified health plan, permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On June 27, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to reenroll into a qualified health plan, but were unable to do so.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted to an enrollee if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment into a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

On May 25, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you qualified for a special enrollment period and that you needed to select and confirm enrollment in a qualified health plan by June 30, 2017. You subsequently attempted to select a qualified health plan for reenrollment on June 27, 2017, but you were denied.

Since the May 25, 2017 eligibility determination notice stated you had until June 30, 2017 to select and confirm a qualified health plan, NYSOH had to honor this granting of a special enrollment period until June 30, 2017. It was in error that you were not allowed to select a qualified health plan for reenrollment on June 27, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's verbal determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is incorrect, you should have been eligible for a special enrollment period as of June 27, 2017 when you attempted to reenroll into a qualified health plan.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of June 27, 2017 because NYSOH failed to honor the special enrollment period it had granted to you. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

Decision

The June 22, 2017 plan disenrollment notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

NYSOH's verbal determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is incorrect, you should have been eligible for a special enrollment period as of June 27, 2017.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of June 27, 2017, if so choose.
