Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan was effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On December 6, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your December 5, 2016 initial application, stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, and that your coverage for Fee-For-Service Medicaid would be effective December 1, 2016. The next day, NYSOH issued a notice confirming you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care (MMC) plan, effective January 1, 2017.

On April 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on an April 17, 2017 system update, stating that you remained eligible for Medicaid, effective May 1, 2017. The notice further stated the type of Medicaid coverage you are eligible for does not require or allow you to enroll in a health plan.

Also on April 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating in part that your coverage in your MMC plan would be terminated, effective April 30, 2017, because you were enrolled in other (full benefit) health insurance.

On June 29, 2017, you submitted a letter, dated April 7, 2017, which in part stated that your employer-sponsored health coverage ended February 28, 2017 (see Document).

On July 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your July 3, 2017 updated application, stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, and that your coverage with Fee-For-Service Medicaid would be effective July 1, 2017.

On July 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a preliminary eligibility redetermination, based on your plan selection of that day, stating that your MC plan would begin effective August 1, 2017.

Also on July 5, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the preliminary eligibility redetermination insofar as it began your MMC plan on August 1, 2017, and not May 1, 2017.

On July 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice, consistent with the preliminary eligibility redetermination, stating in part that the effective date of your MMC plan was August 1, 2017.

On September 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account, on December 6, 2016, you were determined eligible for Medicaid, effective December 1, 2016, and were enrolled in a MMC plan the next day, effective January 1, 2017.
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, when NYSOH systematically ran your application for health insurance on April 17, 2017, you were terminated from your MMC plan as of April 30, 2017. This was because at the time of the update, the system showed that you were covered by employer-sponsored health insurance.
- 3) On June 29, 2017, you submitted a letter, dated April 7, 2017, from your employer-sponsored health plan that states your health coverage terminated on February 28, 2017 (see Document.
- 4) According to your NYSOH account, upon receipt and validation of the April 7, 2017 letter, NYSOH removed the third-party health insurance information from your account and redetermined your eligibility.

- 5) According to your NYSOH account, on July 5, 2017, you selected a MMC plan, which began effective August 1, 2017.
- 6) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement in your MMC plan as of May 1, 2017 because you have medical bills that are not covered by Medicaid Fee-For Service.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid

An individual is eligible for fee-for-service Medicaid effective on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b), Medicaid Eligibility Changes under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010,13ADM-03(III)(F)).

MMC plan enrollments received on or before the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the following month. Enrollments received after the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the second following month (Medicaid Managed Care Model Contract (Appendix H-6(b)(ii) & (iii), effective 3/1/2014 – 2/28/2019; see 42 USC § 1315; § 364-j(1)(c); 18 NYCRR § 36010.3(h), Medicaid Eligibility Changes under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010,13ADM-03(III)(F)).

An individual will be enrolled or remain in their Medicaid plan with limited exceptions, including entering prison or another facility that provides medical care, lack of state residence, failing to provide a valid social security number, or having third party health insurance (NY Social Services Law § 366(4)(c)).

A Medicaid recipient who has primary medical or health care coverage available from a Third-Party payor may be required to enroll with a managed care program when the payment of the premium or cost sharing amounts would be cost effective, as determined by the local social services district (NY Soc. Serv. Law § 364-j(3)(e)(xx)).

Third Party Health Insurance

A person who has primary medical or health care coverage available from or under a third-party insurance provider is not permitted to enroll into a Medicaid Managed Care plan (NY SSL § 364-j(3)(e)(xx); Medicaid Managed Care Model Contract (Appendix H-6), effective 3/1/2014 – 2/28/2019). However, they will remain eligible for fee-for-service Medicaid with limited exceptions, including entering prison or another facility that provides medical care, lack of state residence, having active third-party health insurance or failing to provide a valid social security number (NY SSL § 366(4)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in your MMC plan was effective August 1, 2017.

According to the December 6, 2016 eligibility determination notice, you were originally found eligible for Medicaid, effective December 1, 2016. On December 6, 2016, you selected a MMC plan, effective January 1, 2017, as is documented by the December 7, 2016 plan enrollment notice. These facts are not in dispute.

Generally, when an individual is eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH, they are required to enroll in a MMC plan. Applicants determined eligible will be enrolled or remain in their Medicaid plan with limited exceptions, including entering prison or another facility that provides medical care, moving out of state, having active third-party health insurance or failing to provide a valid Social Security number.

When NYSOH determines that a person has active coverage in a health insurance plan outside of NYSOH, that person is not eligible to enroll or remain enrolled in a MMC plan.

On April 17, 2017, NYSOH redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance with health insurance and the system showed that you had full benefit employer-sponsored health insurance. Since this constitutes a disqualifying event, on April 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice advising that your coverage in your MMC plan would be terminated as of January 31, 2017.

On June 29, 2017, you submitted a letter, dated April 7, 2017, from your employer-sponsored health plan that states your health coverage terminated on February 28, 2017.

Upon receipt and validation of the April 7, 2017 letter, NYSOH removed the thirdparty health insurance information from your account and redetermined your eligibility. As such, you were then able to re-select your MMC plan.

According to your NYSOH account, on July 5, 2017, you were able to reenroll into your MMC plan with an effective start date of August 1, 2017.

Generally, the date on which a MMC plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

However, as noted above, you were unable to enroll into a plan prior to July 5, 2017 due to there being third-party health insurance information on your account, which was in error. Had this misinformation not been reflected in your NYSOH account, you would not have been terminated from your MMC plan on April 18, 2017.

Therefore, the July 6, 2017 plan enrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your MMC plan was effective August 1, 2017, is MODIFIED to stated that your enrollment in your MMC plan was effective May 1, 2017.

Your case is being RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate you in your MMC plan as of May 1, 2017, and notify you accordingly.

Decision

The July 6, 2017 plan enrollment notice stating that your enrollment in your MMC plan was effective August 1, 2017, is MODIFIED to state that your enrollment in your MMC plan was effective May 1, 2017.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to effectuate the changes noted above, and to notify you accordingly.

This decision has not effect on any subsequent determinations or plan enrollments made by NYSOH.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 29, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your case is being sent back to NYSOH to change the start date of your MMC plan from August 1, 2017 to May 1, 2017. NYSOH will notify you once this change has been made.

Once reinstated in your MMC plan, you will have coverage in that plan for the months of May 2017 through July 2017, and then again as of August 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:

- By calling the Customer Service Center at 1-800-318-2596
- By mail at:
