Decision

Decision Date: October 17, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020267

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NY State of Health?

Procedural History

On July 5, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were not eligible to enroll in health care coverage through NYSOH.

Also on July 5, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Accounts Review Unit and requested an appeal of the preliminary eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan or Medicaid because you were not considered lawfully present.

On July 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a denial notice, based on your July 5, 2017 application, stating that you were not eligible for Child Health Plus, Essential Plan, to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance, or to purchase a qualified health plan. The notice stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On September 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open until October 11, 2017, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

On October 9, 2017, the NYSOH's Appeals Unit received a two-page fax from you containing the supporting documentation. The two-page document was incorporated into the record as "Appellant's Exhibit #1", and the record was closed that same day.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record reflects that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a status of single and you will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) Your application states that you are an immigrant non-citizen.
- 4) You testified that you are present in the United States under the status of Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals, or "DACA".
- 5) You submitted an illegible copy of your employment authorization card.
- 6) The application that was submitted on July 5, 2017, which requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $20,800.00, consisting of income you earn from employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time.
- 7) You testified that your gross weekly income at this time is on average $400.00 per week; which matches the income amount entered into your July 5, 2017 application.
- 8) You testified that you do not understand why you are not eligible for health insurance because your immigration status has not changed, and you were receiving health insurance through NYSOH prior to this year.
- 9) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in [REDACTED].

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

Qualified Immigrants Transitioned to the Essential Plan

In New York State, qualified immigrants who were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 19, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>). This category of qualified immigrants includes individuals lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States who are still in their first five years of permanent residency (18 NYCRR § 349.3, 8 USC § 1613).

Medicaid

A person who meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard is eligible for Medicaid benefits (45 CFR § 155.305(c)). One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. A person is eligible for Medicaid when his or her immigration status is satisfactory and he or she meets all other requirements for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one -person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Immigration Status

Generally, no person except a United States citizen, a naturalized citizen, a qualified alien, and persons permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL), is eligible for medical assistance from the state (NY Soc. Serv. Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2(j)).

A PRUCOL alien is a person who is residing in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the United States such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)). The New York Department of Health regards aliens who have been issued an Employment Authorization Document (I-688B or I-766), and have the requisite category code, to be PRUCOL (08 OHIP/INF-4, dated August 4, 2008)).

The guide, “Key to I-766/I-688B, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs)”, defines certain codes on the USCIS Employment Authorization Documents” (08 MA/033, dated December 1, 2008, and as amended). It confirms that a person who has category code of “(c)(33)” has PRUCOL status for Medicaid and Child Health Plus only (id.).

Legal Analysis

The only issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because you are not considered lawfully present.

On July 5, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance. This application stated that you were an immigrant non-citizen. You further testified that your immigration status is classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals (DACA). You submitted a copy of your employment authorization card to verify your immigration status; however, the copy of the card was too dark to read the status on the card.

However, you credibly testified that you are an immigrant non-citizen with a DACA, or C-33 status. The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33 category are persons considered not “lawfully present” for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

In addition, while individuals who have been determined to be qualified aliens and were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016, this is not the case for persons who received Deferred Action status.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct in finding you not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

However, NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of “PRUCOL alien”; even though the federal government has not. The New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

Since your current Deferred Action status does confer PRUCOL status for individuals seeking Medicaid eligibility, we may review whether you met the financial criteria for Medicaid.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your applications, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $20,800.00 is 172.47% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid can also be based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified that you are paid on average $400.00 in gross income per week. Further, the income information you entered into your July 5, 2017 application indicated that you made $400.00 per week. Therefore, the record indicates that in the month of July 2017 you received gross income in the amount of $1,600.00.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since you testified, and the record indicates, that you earned $1,600.00 in July 2017 you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Accordingly, the July 6, 2017 denial notice properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan based on you not being lawfully present. However, your ineligibility for Medicaid is properly based on your annual household income being over the limit for that program, not your legal presence. Therefore, the July 6, 2017 denial notice is AFFIRMED.

Should your immigration status or household income change, you may reapply to NYSOH.

Decision

The July 6, 2017 denial notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 17, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are not eligible for the Essential Plan because you are not lawfully present.

Although you qualify as a PRUCOL alien for state-based Medicaid, you are not eligible for Medicaid at this time because your household income is over the maximum allowable income limit.

Should your immigration status or household income change, you may reapply to NYSOH.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.
