Decision

Decision Date: September 28, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020328

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for the Essential Plan, effective August 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were ineligible for Medicaid?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in an Essential Plan was effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On July 7, 2017, you submitted your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective August 1, 2017.

Also on July 7, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not found eligible for coverage as of July 1, 2017.

On July 8, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the July 7, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective August 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limits for that program. This notice also directed you to submit proof of your income by October 5, 2017 in order to confirm your eligibility for financial assistance.

Also on July 8, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, based on your plan selection on July 7, 2017, stating that you were enrolled in the Essential Plan with a plan enrollment start date of August 1, 2017.

On September 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on July 7, 2017 listed annual household income of $19,272.00. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) You testified that you were out of work for approximately 2.5 months due to an injury. You explained that your last day of work was the last Saturday of May 2017.
- 5) You testified that your insurance coverage through your employer ended in June 2017.
- 6) You testified that while you were out of work, you were receiving New York State Short Term Disability benefits of $136.00 per week and you received checks every three weeks.
- 7) You testified that you also receive a pension of $1,600.00 per month which is paid to you via direct deposit on the first of each month.
- 8) You testified that your only income in July 2017 was your pension and your New York State Short Term Disability benefits.
- 9) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.

- 10) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in New York County.
- 11) You testified that you first submitted an application to NYSOH in the beginning of July 2017. Your NYSOH account reflects that you submitted an application to NYSOH for financial assistance on July 7, 2017.
- 12) You testified that you selected an Essential Plan for enrollment when you first submitted your application. The record reflects that you selected a plan for enrollment on July 7, 2017.
- 13) You testified that you are seeking coverage for the month of July 2017 because you have outstanding medical bills for treatment you received in that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size

(42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Medicaid Effective Date

An individual is eligible for fee-for-service Medicaid effective on the first day of the month if an individual was eligible any time during that month (42 CFR § 435.915(b), Medicaid Eligibility Changes under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010,13ADM-03(III)(F)).

Medicaid Managed Care plan enrollments received on or before the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the following month. Enrollments received after the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the second following month (Medicaid Managed Care Model Contract (Appendix H-6(b)(ii) & (iii), effective 3/1/2014 – 2/28/2019; see 42 USC § 1315; § 364-j(1)(c); 18 NYCRR § 360-10.3(h), Medicaid Eligibility Changes under the Affordable Care Act (ACA) of 2010,13ADM-03(III)(F)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective August 1, 2017.

The application that was submitted on July 7, 2017 listed an annual household income of $19,272.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $19,272.00 is 162.22% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $19,272.00 is 159.80% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified that in July 2017 you received $1,600.00 in pension payments as well as New York State Short Term Disability benefits of $136.00 per week. You testified that you would receive New York State Short Term Disability benefit checks covering three weeks of benefits, but you did not provide the dates of those checks. Therefore, the record reflects that your monthly income for July 2017 was at least $1,600.00.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since the testimony you provided shows that you received at least $1,600.00 in July 2017 you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

The third issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective August 1, 2017.

You testified that you submitted your application for financial assistance in early July 2017, and the record indicates that you submitted your NYSOH application on July 7, 2017. As a result, you were found eligible for the Essential Plan as of July 8, 2017 and enrolled into a plan that day.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

On July 7, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan, so your enrollment properly took effect on the first day of the first month following July 2017; that is, on August 1, 2017.

Therefore, the July 8, 2017 eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective August 1, 2017 is AFFIRMED.

The July 8, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective August 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

The July 8, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.
