Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit ended effective June 1, 2017.

Did NYSOH properly determine that your eligibility for advance payments of the premium tax credit was effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were conditionally eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $246.00 per month and, conditionally eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions (CSR) if you enrolled in a silver-level plan, effective February 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before April 13, 2017.

On January 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in qualified health plan (QHP) with APTC and CSR, effective February 1, 2017.

On April 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost. The notice stated that you were not eligible to receive APTC or CSR because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application. This eligibility was effective June 1, 2017.

Also on April 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you were enrolled in a QHP with $0.00 of APTC applied to your premium.

On July 10, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance.

On July 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $274.00 in APTC and eligible to receive CSR if you enrolled in a silver-level QHP, effective August 1, 2017.

Also on July 11, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your APTC as of May 1, 2017, as was reflected in your premium statements.

On July 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a QHP with APTC and CSR, effective August 1, 2017.

On September 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) Your NYSOH account indicates that you receive all of your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 2) You testified that you do not recall receiving any notices stating that your eligibility was only conditional and that you needed to provide documentation of your household's income.
- 3) No notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 4) You testified that you did not know that you needed to submit documentation of your income until you began to receive bills from your insurance carrier reflecting a higher premium, which did not include any APTC.
- 5) You testified that you believe that you were forced to pay premiums without any APTC for coverage during the months of May, June and July 2017.

- 6) Your NYSOH account indicates that on April 18, 2017, your application was run and you were found no longer eligible for APTC as of June 1, 2017.
- 7) You updated the income information in your NYSOH account on July 10, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking reinstatement of your APTC during the months of May, June and July 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for Advance Payments of the Premium Tax Credit

APTC are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a qualified health plan, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income for purposes of determining their eligibility for APTC (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any changes in eligibility to APTC effective as of the first day of the month following the date of the notice (45 § 155.310(f), 45 CFR § 155.330(e), (f)(1)(i)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for APTC ended effective June 1, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking APTC, NYSOH must request income data from federal data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on January 14, 2017, you were advised that your eligibility for APTC was only conditional, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before April 13, 2017.

You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to provide income documentation to confirm your eligibility. You testified, and your NYSOH account confirms, that you elected to receive notifications by regular mail. However, there is no evidence in the record that any of the notices that were sent to your mailing address were returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, NYSOH properly notified you of an inconsistency in your account and that documentation was needed to confirm the income you listed in the account.

If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine an individual's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation. Any changes in APTC are to be made effective the date following the eligibility redetermination notice.

Accordingly, your eligibility for APTC should have ended as of May 1, 2017, the month following the April 19, 2017 eligibility redetermination.

Therefore, the April 19, 2017 eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that you were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application, effective May 1, 2017

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for advance premium tax credits was effective August 1, 2017.

On July 10, 2017, you updated the income information in your NYSOH account. On July 11, 2017, a notice of eligibility redetermination was issued stating that you were eligible to receive up to $274.00 in APTC and eligible to receive CSR if you enrolled in a silver-level QHP, effective August 1, 2017.

As stated above, any changes in APTC are to be made effective the date following the eligibility redetermination notice.

Since you updated your application on July 10, 2017, any changes in APTC should have been made effective as of August 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's July 11, 2017 eligibility determination notice is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The April 19, 2017 notice of eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that you were not eligible to receive APTC because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application, effective May 1, 2017

The July 11, 2017 notice of eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: September 29, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

NYSOH properly found you not eligible to receive APTC effective May 1, 2017 because you did not provide documentation of your household's income.

NYSOH properly found that your redetermination for APTC was effective August 1, 2017.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.
