Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to enroll in qualified health plan at full cost, effective August 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On July 4, 2017, NYSOH received a letter issued by the [redacted] Department of Labor and Development, containing instructions for claiming unemployment benefits. This document reflected that your date of separation from that employer was June 16, 2017.

On July 10, 2017, NYSOH received a letter from your prior insurance carrier, Cigna, reflecting that your coverage under that plan had ended effective June 30, 2017.

On July 11, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost, effective August 1, 2017.

Also on July 11, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that you were not found eligible for financial assistance.

On July 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the July 11, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost, effective August 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions (CSR), the Essential Plan or Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On September 29, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and remained open as the Hearing Officer directed you to provide as additional evidence to corroborate your testimony: (1) [redacted] (DOL) record of UIB payments made to you during the months of June and July 2017, and (2) letter from your prior employer confirming the income you received during the months of June and July 2017. The record was to be closed 15 days after the hearing date, or upon the receipt of the above referenced documents, whichever occurred earlier.

On September 29, 2017, you provided to the NYSOH Appeals Unit a screenshot of the [redacted] history of unemployment benefits issued to you during the months of June and July 2017. You had not provided proof of your earnings from your prior employer during the months of June and July 2017. No further documents were received by NYSOH Appeals Unit from you prior to October 14, 2017.

Accordingly, the record was closed on October 14, 2017.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.

2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only.

3) The latest application that was submitted on July 11, 2017 listed annual household income of $48,560.00, consisting of $34,000.00 you earned from [redacted] between January 1, 2017 and June 16, 2017, and $560.00 per week you anticipate receiving in unemployment benefits from [redacted] over 26 weeks during the remainder of 2017. You testified that this amount was correct.

4) On September 29, 2017, you provided to NYSOH a screenshot of your [redacted] history of unemployment benefits, reflecting that you received: (1) $1,120.00 on July 3, 2017, (2) $560.00 on July 10, 2017, (3) $560.00 on July 17, 2017, (4) $487.00 on July 24, 2017 and (5) $487.00 on July 31, 2017.

5) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.

6) You live in [redacted], New York.

7) You testified that you believed you should be eligible for greater financial assistance since having been recently unemployed. You further testified that your eligibility should be based on your unemployment benefits you are receiving now, as opposed to your prior earning and future unemployment benefits.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost, effective August 1, 2017.

The application that was submitted on July 11, 2017 listed an annual household income of $48,560.00, which consisted of $34,000.00 you earned from [redacted] between January 1, 2017 and June 16, 2017, and $14,560.00 ($560.00 x 26 weeks) you expected to receive in unemployment benefits from [redacted]. The eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

APTC is available to a person who has a household income between no less than 250% and no greater than 400% of the FPL. Since a household income of $48,560.00 is 408.75% of the application FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be not eligible for APTC, and eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost.

The second issue is whether you were properly found ineligible for CSR.

CSR is available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $48,560.00 is 408.75% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be not eligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $48,560.00 is 408.75% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $48,560.00 is 408.75% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

On September 29, 2017, you submitted to NYSOH Appeals Unit a screenshot of your [redacted] history of unemployment benefits, reflecting that you received: (1) $1,120.00 on July 3, 2017, (2) $560.00 on July 10, 2017, (3) $560.00 on July 17, 2017, (4) $487.00 on July 24, 2017 and (5) $487.00 on July 31, 2017.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since the documentation you provided shows that you earned at least $3,214.00 in July 2017, you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application. Also, while the record reflects that you did not receive any unemployment benefits during the month of June 2017, we are unable to review your eligibility for Medicaid during that month since you did not provide a letter issued to you by your prior employer confirming the gross income you received during the month of June 2017.

Since the July 12, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost, not eligible for CSR, not eligible for the Essential Plan and not eligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
