Decision

Decision Date: October 5, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020418

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NY State of Health as of July 11, 2017 because you are not considered lawfully present?

Procedural History

On May 24, 2017, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On May 25, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium per month for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. The notice stated that NYSOH was checking federal data sources to confirm your immigration status and that you would be contacted if you needed to send in proof that you have an eligible immigration status.

On May 25, 2017, an enrollment notice was issued confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan 1, effective July 1, 2017.

On May 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium per month for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. The notice requested you provide proof of your Immigration Status by August 24, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On May 27, 2017, NYSOH received your immigration document verification request form G-845.

On May 28, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice based on information verified on May 27, 2017. The notice stated that you were not eligible for Child Health Plus, Essential Plan, or to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance. The notice also stated that you were not eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost. The notice stated you were not eligible for Medicaid because the household income you provided of $23,565.00 was over the allowable income limit of $16,643.00.

On May 28, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating your enrollment in the Essential Plan 1 ends July 1, 2017.

On July 11, 2017, NYSOH received your immigration documentation in the form of your I-766 Employment Authorization Card reflecting a category code of "C33."

Also on July 11, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice based on information verified on July 11, 2017. The notice stated that you were not eligible for Child Health Plus, Essential Plan, or to receive tax credits or cost-sharing reductions to help pay for the cost of insurance. The notice also stated that you were not eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost. The notice stated you were not eligible for Medicaid because the household income you provided to us of $19,500.00 was over the allowable income limit of $16,643.00.

On July 11, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal of that eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

On September 28, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open up to October 13, 2017, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

On September 29, 2017, NYSOH Appeal's Unit received a two-page fax with your supporting documentation and was incorporated into the record as Appellant's Exhibit 1. The record was then closed as of this date.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) The record reflects that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a status of single and you will claim no dependents on that tax return.

- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) Your application states you are an immigrant non-citizen.
- 4) You uploaded a copy of your Employment Authorization card on July 11, 2017 with the status of C-33, which was verified previously through your verification request on May 27, 2017.
- 5) The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals.
- 6) The application that was submitted on July 11, 2017, which requested financial assistance, listed annual household income of $19,500.00, consisting of income you earn from employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time.
- 7) You provided documentation showing that in July 2017 you earned $1,456.00 in Appellant's Exhibit 1 pgs. 1-2.
- 8) You testified that you believe NYSOH is incorrect in its determination that you are not eligible for the Essential Plan.
- 9) Your application states that you live in Sullivan County.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Qualified Immigrants Transitioned to the Essential Plan

In New York State, qualified immigrants who were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 19, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>). This category of qualified immigrants includes individuals lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States who are still in their first five years of permanent residency (18 NYCRR § 349.3, 8 USC § 1613).

Medicaid

A person who meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard is eligible for Medicaid benefits (45 CFR § 155.305(c)). One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. A person is eligible for Medicaid when his or her immigration status is satisfactory and he or she meets all other requirements for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Qualified Health Plan

To enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) through the Marketplace, an applicant must be a citizen or national of the United States or a non-citizen who is lawfully present in the United States and reasonably expects to become a citizen or remain a lawfully present noncitizen for the entire period for which enrollment is being sought (45 CFR § 155.305(a)(1)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Immigration Status

Generally, no person except a United States citizen, a naturalized citizen, a qualified alien, and persons permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL), is eligible for medical assistance from the state (NY Soc. Serv. Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2(j)).

A PRUCOL alien is a person who is residing in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the United States such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)). The New York Department of Health regards aliens who have been issued an Employment Authorization Document (I-688B or I-766), and have the requisite category code, to be PRUCOL (08 OHIP/INF-4, dated August 4, 2008)).

The guide, “Key to I-766/I-688B, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs)”, defines certain codes on the USCIS Employment Authorization Documents” (08 MA/033, dated December 1, 2008, and as amended). It confirms that a person who has category code of “(c)(33)” has PRUCOL status for Medicaid and Child Health Plus only (id.).

Legal Analysis

The only issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH as of July 11, 2017 because you are not considered lawfully present.

On May 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. Your eligibility was contingent on you providing documentation of your immigration status by August 24, 2017.

On July 11, 2017, you provided to NYSOH a copy of your I-766 EAC. On July 11, 2017, this information was verified and an application was submitted to NYSOH on your behalf. That application listed an annual household income of $19,500.00 and reflected that you were an immigrant non-citizen.

As a result, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, stating that you were not qualified to enroll in coverage through NYSOH. The notice further stated you were not eligible for Medicaid because your household income of $19,500.00 was over the allowable income limit of $16,643.00.

Your employment authorization documentation states you are an immigrant non-citizen with a C-33 status. The status of C-33, according to the United States

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33 category are persons considered not “lawfully present” for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

In addition, while individuals who have been determined to be qualified aliens and were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016, this is not the case for persons who received Deferred Action status.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct in finding you not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

However, NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of “PRUCOL alien”; even though the federal government has not. The New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

Since your current Deferred Action status does confer PRUCOL status for individuals seeking Medicaid eligibility, we may review whether you met the financial criteria for Medicaid.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your applications, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $19,500.00 is 161.69% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid can also be based on current monthly household income and family size.

You submitted documentation after your hearing showing that in July 2017 you earned $1,456.00 in Appellant’s Exhibit 1 pgs. 1-2.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the documentation you provided shows that you earned $1,456.00 in July 2017, you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Finally, federal regulations require that a person seeking enrollment in a qualified health plan through the NYSOH have United States citizenship or satisfactory or immigration status. Under the federal regulations, individuals with Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals status are not considered to be lawfully present for the purposes of obtaining coverage in a qualified health plan through NYSOH.

Accordingly, the July 11, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan or QHP based on you not being lawfully present. However, your ineligibility for Medicaid is properly based on your annual household income being over the limit for that program, not your legal presence.

Decision

The July 11, 2017, eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 5, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are not eligible for the Essential Plan or enrollment in a QHP because you are not lawfully present.

Although you qualify as a PRUCOL alien for state-based Medicaid, you are not eligible for Medicaid at this time because your household income is over the maximum allowable income limit.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.
