Decision

Decision Date: November 2, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020535

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to change enrollment in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $203.00 per month, effective January 1, 2017.

Also on December 14, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, based on your December 13, 2016 plan selection, stating that you were enrolled in a Healthfirst platinum level qualified health plan with a plan enrollment start date of January 1, 2017 and that your APTC would be applied to your monthly premium as of January 1, 2017.

On April 11, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. Specifically, you updated the income information in your application.

On April 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the April 11, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible for up to $146.00 per month in APTC, effective May 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on April 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that you were enrolled in a Healthfirst platinum level qualified health plan, effective January 1, 2017, and that your new APTC amount would be applied to your monthly premium as of May 1, 2017.

On July 15, 2017, you attempted to change the qualified health plan you were enrolled in, but were unable to do so.

Also on July 15, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible to change your qualified health plan enrollment outside of the open enrollment period.

On July 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "Denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP)".

On October 27, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to be able to change qualified health plans outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.
- 2) Your NYSOH account reflects that on December 13, 2016 you updated your application for financial assistance and enrolled in a Healthfirst platinum level qualified health plan that day.
- 3) You testified that you selected the Healthfirst platinum level qualified health plan after researching plans yourself on the NYSOH website. You testified that you selected this plan because you believed that a plan with no deductible was the best option for you at the time.
- 4) You testified that no NYSOH representative made any representations to you regarding the Healthfirst platinum level plan that turned out to be untrue. You testified that when you contacted NYSOH to enroll in a plan for 2017, you had already selected the Healthfirst platinum level plan, and you just called NYSOH and told the representative in which plan you wanted to enroll.

- 5) Your NYSOH account reflects that on April 11, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and updated your application for financial assistance. Specifically, you updated the income amount in your application.
- 6) You testified that in April 2017, you contacted NYSOH to update your income as based on your 2016 tax return. You further testified that you were not seeking to change your qualified health plan at that time.
- 7) You testified that in Summer 2017 your day to day expenses increased. You explained that this change in expenses rendered your Healthfirst platinum level qualified health plan premium unaffordable to you.
- 8) You testified that you contacted NYSOH in mid-July 2017 to enroll in a different qualified health plan.
- 9) Your NYSOH account reflects that on July 15, 2017 you attempted to change the qualified health plan in which you were enrolled.
- 10) You testified that other than the change in income which you reported to NYSOH on April 11, 2017, there have been no major changes to your household in 2017, such as a birth, death, or marriage.
- 11) You testified that you reside in Kings County and have done so throughout 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and “consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process” (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). “De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case” (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
  - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)
  - (i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
  - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to change enrollment in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to change enrollment into a different health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony along with the July 16, 2017 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was “denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP)”, permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On July 15, 2017, you requested to change your enrollment in a qualified health plan to a different plan. Also on July 15, 2017, NYSOH denied this request stating that you do not qualify to change enrollment to a different qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You testified that you selected the Healthfirst platinum qualified health plan after researching the plan yourself, and that no NYSOH representative provided you with misinformation which caused you to select this plan for enrollment. Since the record does not indicate that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information, a special enrollment period cannot be granted.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Although you testified that an increase in day to day expenses in Summer 2017 rendered your Healthfirst platinum qualified health plan monthly premium unaffordable to you, this is not considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
