Decision

Decision Date: October 30, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020667

[REDACTED]

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective April 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 27, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility redetermination stating that you were eligible to receive up to $84.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credits (APTC). This eligibility was effective June 1, 2017.

On April 27, 2017, NYSOH issued a letter confirming your enrollment in a silver level qualified health plan with a monthly premium responsibility of $372.46, after your APTC of $84.00 was applied, effective April 1, 2017.

On July 19, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the enrollment confirmation notice insofar as it began your enrollment in a qualified health plan on April 1, 2017, and not June 1, 2017.

On October 3, 2017, you had a telephone hearing a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit and with the aid of Spanish Interpreters [REDACTED], [REDACTED]. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You submitted an application to NYSOH for financial assistance on April 26, 2017.
- 2) You testified, and the record reflects, that your Application Counselor selected a qualified health plan on April 26, 2017 on your behalf.
- 3) You testified you were told by your Application Counselor that your qualified health plan would start June 1, 2017.
- 4) You testified that you did not authorize your Application Counselor to select a start date of April 1, 2017 for your qualified health plan.
- 5) You testified you were unaware that your health plan enrollment could even start April 1, 2017.
- 6) You testified you did not use your health coverage for April, or May 2017.
- 7) Your enrollment in the plan became effective April 1, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking your qualified health plan and eligibility for financial assistance to begin on June 1, 2017 because your health plan is seeking past premium payments be made for the months of April, and May 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Redetermination During a Benefit Year

When a redetermination is issued as a result of a change in an applicant's information, NYSOH must generally make that redetermination effective on the first day of the month following the date NYSOH is notified of the change (45 CFR § 155.330 (f)(1)(ii)). However, NYSOH may determine that its policy will be that any change made after the 15th of any month will not be effective until the first of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.330(f)(2)).

When an eligibility redetermination results in a change in the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) for the benefit year, NYSOH must recalculate the amount of APTC in such a manner as to account for any advance payments already made on behalf of the tax filer, such that the recalculated advance payment amount is projected to result in total advance payments for the benefit year that correspond to the tax filer's total projected premium tax credit for that benefit year (45 CFR § 155.330(g)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

The effective date of coverage by a qualified health plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i)). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determine that your enrollment in a qualified health plan was effective, April 1, 2017.

On April 26, 2017, your application counselor updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in a qualified health plan. On April 27, 2017 NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that your enrollment in your qualified health plan was effective April 1, 2017 and that APTC would be applied to your monthly premium effective April 1, 2017.

The date on which a qualified health plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment. A plan that is after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Therefore, since you selected an enrollment on April 26, 2017, your qualified health plan would properly be effective the first day of the second month following April, that is on June 1, 2017.

In addition, you credibly testified you were told by your Application Counselor that your qualified health plan would start June 1, 2017. You further explained that you were not aware that the plan you enrolled in would start as of April 1, 2017, and did not use that coverage as a result. You testified that you did not authorize your Application Counselor to choose a start date of April 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's April 27, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice is MODIFIED to reflect you were eligible for and enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan with the application of APTC, effective June 1, 2017.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to ensure your coverage in your qualified health plan is effective June 1, 2017.

Decision

The April 27, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice is MODIFIED to reflect you were eligible for and enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan with the application of APTC, effective June 1, 2017.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to ensure your coverage in your qualified health plan is effective June 1, 2017.
