Decision

Decision Date: October 12, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020700

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Does the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health (NYSOH) have the authority to review whether you and your spouse's enrollment in your qualified health plan (QHP) was properly terminated for non-payment of premiums, effective February 28, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in a full cost QHP, effective February 1, 2017.

On January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment confirmation notice stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in a QHP, effective February 1, 2017.

On May 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a cancellation notice stating that you and your spouse's enrollment in your QHP was terminated, effective February 28, 2017, because a premium payment had not been received by the health plan.

On July 20, 2017, NYSOH received your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you and your spouse were eligible for a full cost QHP. You also attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan on that date but were unable to select a plan for enrollment.

Also on July 20, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed you and your spouse's inability to enroll into a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On July 21, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on the July 20, 2017 application for financial assistance, stating that you and your spouse do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On October 5, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You and your spouse were enrolled in a QHP for the 2017 coverage year with a monthly premium of $1,113.41, effective February 1, 2017.
- 2) You testified that your two children are currently enrolled in a Child Health Plus Plan, which was effective September 1, 2017 and that their eligibility and enrollment are not a part of this appeal.
- 3) You testified that you paid your premium for February 2017 and received an invoice for March 2017.
- 4) You testified that you were not satisfied with your QHP and for that reason you did not pay your premium for March 2017.
- 5) You and your spouse were disenrolled from your qualified health plan, effective February 28, 2017.
- 6) On July 20, 2017, you contacted NYSOH to reenroll into a qualified health plan.
- 7) You testified that you and your spouse have been without health insurance coverage from March 2017 through the present.
- 8) You testified that since filing your application on July 20, 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Appealable Issues

An applicant has the right to appeal to NYSOH's Appeals Unit: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions; (3) a failure by NYSOH to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination 45 CFR § 155.505; and (4) a denial of a request for a special enrollment period (45 CFR § 155.505(b)(1)(iii), 45 CFR § 155.305(b), and 45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

However, a loss of health insurance coverage such as that referenced above does not include,

“voluntary termination of coverage or other loss due to—

(1) Failure to pay premiums on a timely basis, including COBRA premiums prior to expiration of COBRA coverage, or

(2) Situations allowing for a rescission as specified in 45 CFR [§] 147.128” such as failure to comply with other requirements (45 CFR § 147.128(b))

(45 CFR § 155.420(e)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether the Appeals Unit of NYSOH has the authority to review whether you and your spouse’s enrollment in your QHP was properly terminated for non-payment of a premium, effective February 28, 2017.

On May 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you and your spouse were disenrolled from your health plan for non-payment of the premium, effective February 28, 2017.

NYSOH Appeals Unit only has the authority to review issues related to the following: (1) an eligibility determination, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (2) a redetermination of eligibility, including the amount of advance payments of the premium tax credit and level of cost-sharing reductions, (3) a failure to provide timely notice of an eligibility determination, and (4) a denial of a special enrollment period.

Since the Appeals Unit is not given the authority to review termination of enrollment due to non-payment of premiums, we cannot reach the merits as to whether you and your spouse were properly terminated from your health plan for non-payment of premiums. Therefore, your appeal of the May 11, 2017 cancellation notice is DISMISSED as a non-appealable issue.

The second issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

You testified that you paid your premium for February 2017 and received an invoice for March 2017. You testified that you were not satisfied with your QHP and for that reason you did not pay your premium for March 2017.

In the present case, there is no evidence in the record to establish grounds for a special enrollment period. You testified that there have been no changes to your household in 2017.

Although you and your spouse did lose health coverage because of the May 11, 2017 disenrollment, the loss of health insurance coverage in this case cannot be considered a triggering event for a special enrollment period, because it was a result of non-payment of your premiums which NYSOH considers a voluntary action causing the termination of your coverage.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, you did not experience a triggering event that would qualify you and your spouse for a special enrollment period as of the date of the hearing.

Therefore, the July 21, 2017 eligibility determination notice, to the extent it denied you and your spouse a special enrollment period, was correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision
