Decision

Decision Date: November 9, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000020995

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 16, 2017, NYSOH received your application for health insurance.

On May 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating you were eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit up to $288.00 per month, as well as cost sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective July 1, 2017. The notice stated you must confirm your health plan selection by July 14, 2017.

Also on May 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in a silver level qualified health plan, effective June 1, 2017.

On June 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating your coverage with your silver level qualified health plan would end June 1, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On July 13, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application.

On July 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $288.00 per month as well as cost sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective August 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On July 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit of up to $288.00 per month as well as cost sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective September 1, 2017. It further stated that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

On July 31, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed those eligibility determination insofar as you were not eligible to enroll in a health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On October 13, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open up to October 30, 2017, to allow you to submit supporting documents in the form of a letter showing the end date of your employer sponsored insurance.

As of October 30, 2017, the Appeals Unit did not receive any documents from you and none were viewable in your NYSOH account. Therefore, the record was closed that same day and this decision is based on the record as developed at the time of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On May 16, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance.
- 2) The application you submitted on May 16, 2017 attested to the fact you lost employer sponsored insurance effective May 15, 2017.
- 3) You testified you were told by your former employer that you would lose your employer sponsored insurance effective June 1, 2017.
- 4) You testified you believe your employer sponsored insurance did not actually end until July 1, 2017.
- 5) You testified you could not provide documentation showing the end date of your employer sponsored insurance.

- 6) You testified you did not make a premium payment for June 2017 because you did not want to have double coverage for the month of June 2017.
- 7) On May 17, 2017 NYSOH issued a notice indicating that you qualified to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period and that you needed to select a health plan by July 14, 2017.
- 8) You testified and the record shows that on July 13, 2017 you attempted to enroll into a qualified health plan.
- 9) You testified that you are appealing because you do not want to be responsible for tax penalty when you file your 2017 tax return for being without coverage.
- 10) You testified you are seeking coverage in your qualified health plan be reinstated as of July 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.

(ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.

(iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

- (ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;
- (8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.
- (9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;
- (10) A qualified individual or enrollee—
  - (i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or
  - (ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;
- (11) A qualified individual or dependent—
  - (i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or
  - (ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;
- (12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or
- (13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period, effective August 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On May 16, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance and requested to enroll in a qualified health plan. On May 17, 2017 NYSOH issued a notice stating that you qualified for a special enrollment period and had until July 14, 2017 to select a health plan. You enrolled in a plan that day for a June 1, 2017 start date. You were subsequently disenrolled for non-payment of premium.

You then updated your application on July 13, and 26, 2017 and attempted to enroll in a plan, however NYSOH issued eligibility determination notices stating you do not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

However, your updated application for health insurance was submitted on July 13, 2017, prior to the expiration of the special enrollment period you had been granted in the May 17, 2017 eligibility determination notice. Due to error on the part of NYSOH your application was not properly processed, and you were denied the ability to reenroll within the 60-day period from your loss of employer sponsored health insurance per your prior application.

Therefore, NYSOH's July 14 and 27, 2017 eligibility determination notices stating that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your July 13, 2017 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of July 13, 2017 because NYSOH failed to process your application, and had your application been processed that day, you would have been eligible for a special enrollment period due to your loss of employer sponsored health insurance. In the alternative, you may elect to enroll into coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.

NYSOH's failure to grant you a special enrollment period resulted in you being without insurance coverage for part of the 2017 coverage year. During the hearing, you testified that you are concerned about receiving a tax penalty as a result of being without coverage.

Sometimes after an appeal decision, an appellant can claim an exemption from the requirement to have health insurance. You might qualify for a health coverage exemption in 2017 if you did not have health coverage while you were waiting for an appeal decision about coverage eligibility or savings and your appeal was eventually successful.

You must claim this exemption through the United States Department of Health and Human Services (HHS). Currently, NYSOH does not accept hardship exemption applications.

You will find the information you need to claim the exemption due to an appeal decision at <https://www.healthcare.gov/exemptions-tool/#/results/2016/details/eligible-based-on-appeal>. You can also call 1-800-318-2596.

Important: If you do not get a response from HHS to your exemption application in time to file your tax return, write the word "pending" in column "c" and file your return. If HHS does not approve your exemption, you will need to file an amended return later.

Decision

The July 14, and 27 eligibility determination notices that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 are MODIFIED to reflect that you are eligible for a special enrollment period as of the date of your July 13, 2017 application.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in enrolling into a qualified health plan. You may choose to enroll into a qualified health plan as of July 13, 2017, if so choose.
