Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your oldest child is not eligible to enroll in coverage through NY State of Health because she is not considered lawfully present?

Procedural History

On August 1, 2017, NYSOH received your family's updated application for health insurance.

On August 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a denial notice stating that your oldest child does not qualify for health coverage through NYSOH. This notice also stated that your oldest child was not eligible for Medicaid because the household income you provided was over the allowable income limits for that program.

Also on August 2, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Accounts Review Unit and requested an appeal of the denial notice insofar as your oldest child was not eligible for health insurance through NYSOH.

On October 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. During the hearing, Hebrew Interpreter [REDACTED] interpreted. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are only appealing your oldest child's eligibility, who is [REDACTED].
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a status of married filing jointly and will claim four dependents on that tax return.
- 3) Your application states, and you testified that, your spouse is pregnant with one child.
- 4) Your application states that your oldest child is an immigrant non-citizen.
- 5) On August 1, 2017, you uploaded a copy of your oldest child's Employment Authorization card with the status code of C-33.
- 6) The status of C-33, according to the United States Customs and Immigration Services (USCIS) and Social Security Administration (SSA) is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals.
- 7) The application that was submitted on August 1, 2017, in which you requested financial assistance, listed an annual household income of $60,331.00, consisting of income you earn from employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time.
- 8) You testified that your gross monthly income at this time is approximately $5,000.00.
- 9) You testified that you do not understand why your oldest child is the only one who is not able to obtain health insurance through NYSOH.
- 10) Your application states that your family lives in Nassau County, New York.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

Qualified Immigrants Transitioned to the Essential Plan

In New York State, qualified immigrants who were formerly eligible for Medicaid through the state, but not eligible for Medicaid under federal law, were transitioned to the Essential Plan as of January 1, 2016 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 19, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>). This category of qualified immigrants includes individuals lawfully admitted for permanent residence in the United States who are still in their first five years of permanent residency (18 NYCRR § 349.3, 8 USC § 1613).

Medicaid

A person who meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard is eligible for Medicaid benefits (45 CFR § 155.305(c)). One of the non-financial criteria for Medicaid eligibility is the immigration status of the person applying for health insurance. A person is eligible for Medicaid when his or her immigration status is satisfactory and he or she meets all other requirements for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your applications, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $32,960.00 for a six-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Qualified Health Plan

To enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) through the Marketplace, an applicant must be a citizen or national of the United States or a non-citizen who is lawfully present in the United States and reasonably expects to become a citizen or remain a lawfully present noncitizen for the entire period for which enrollment is being sought (45 CFR § 155.305(a)(1)).

Immigration Status

Generally, no person except a United States citizen, a naturalized citizen, a qualified alien, and persons permanently residing in the United States under color of law (PRUCOL), is eligible for medical assistance from the state (NY Soc. Serv. Law § 122(1); 18 NYCRR § 360-3.2(j)).

A PRUCOL alien is a person who is residing in the United States with the knowledge and permission or acquiescence of the federal immigration agency and whose departure from the United States such agency does not contemplate enforcing (18 NYCRR §360-3.2(j)). The New York Department of Health regards aliens who have been issued an Employment Authorization Document (I-688B or I-766), and have the requisite category code, to be PRUCOL (08 OHIP/INF-4, dated August 4, 2008)).

The guide, “Key to I-766/I-688B, Employment Authorization Documents (EADs)”, defines certain codes on the USCIS Employment Authorization Documents” (08 MA/033, dated December 1, 2008, and as amended). It confirms that a person who has category code of “(c)(33)” has PRUCOL status for Medicaid and Child Health Plus only (id.).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your oldest child is not eligible to enroll in coverage through NYSOH because she is not considered lawfully present.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On August 1, 2017, NYSOH received your family's updated application for financial assistance with health insurance. That application listed an annual household income of $60,331.00 and stated that your oldest child was an immigrant non-citizen.

Your oldest child's employment authorization documentation, that was submitted on August 1, 2017, states that she is an immigrant non-citizen with a C-33 status. The status of C-33, according to USCIS and SSA is in reference to a status classified as Deferred Action on Childhood Arrivals. Individuals who have obtained an Employment Authorization card with the status of C-33 category are persons considered not "lawfully present" for purposes of the federal definition, and are therefore not recognized as eligible to receive federal funding under those programs.

Therefore, NYSOH was correct in finding your oldest child not eligible for coverage under the Essential Plan.

However, NY State has consistently recognized persons with Deferred Action status within the accepted meaning of "PRUCOL alien"; even though the federal government has not. The New York Court of Appeals ruled, in Aliessa, et al. v. Novello (96 NY 2d 418 [2001]), that New York must provide state-funded Medicaid to the lawfully residing immigrants who had been excluded from access to the federal Medicaid program.

Since your oldest child's current Deferred Action status does confer PRUCOL status for her as an individual seeking Medicaid eligibility, we may review whether she met the financial criteria for Medicaid.

Your oldest child is in a six-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim four dependents on that tax return. Your application indicates that your oldest child is [REDACTED].

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $32,960.00 for a six-person household. Since $60,331.00 is 183.04% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found your oldest child to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

Financial eligibility for Medicaid can also be based on current monthly household income and family size.

You testified that in the month of August 2017 you received income of $5,000.00.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

To be eligible for Medicaid, your oldest child would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $3,791.00 per month. Since you provided testimony that you earned $5,000.00 in August 2017, which exceeds the allowable monthly income limit, your oldest child does not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Finally, federal regulations require that a person seeking enrollment in a qualified health plan through the NYSOH have United States citizenship or satisfactory or immigration status. Under the federal regulations, individuals with Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals status are not considered to be lawfully present for the purposes of obtaining coverage in a qualified health plan through NYSOH.

Accordingly, the August 2, 2017 denial notice properly found your oldest child to be ineligible for the Essential Plan or QHP based on her not being lawfully present. However, your oldest child's ineligibility for Medicaid was properly based on her annual household income being over the limit for that program, not her legal presence.

Decision

The August 2, 2017 denial notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: November 6, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

Your oldest child is not eligible for the Essential Plan or enrollment in a QHP because she is not lawfully present.

Although your oldest child qualifies as a PRUCOL alien for state-based Medicaid, she is not eligible for Medicaid at this time because her household income is over the maximum allowable income limit.
