Decision

Decision Date: November 20, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021173

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $477.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective September 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On August 3, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $477.00 in advanced premium tax credit, effective September 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you and your spouse were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limits for that program.

Also on August 3, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination insofar as you and your spouse were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

On August 11, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, for a limited time, effective August 1, 2017, because you and your spouse had been granted Aid to Continue until a decision could be made on your appeal.

Also on August 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your and your spouse's enrollment in the Essential Plan, effective August 1, 2017.

On November 6, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of married filing jointly. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking health insurance for yourself and your spouse.
- 3) The application that was submitted on August 2, 2017 listed annual household income of $53,980.00, consisting of $20,800.00 you earn from your employment, $22,000.00 your spouse received from her employment, and $11,180.00 your spouse receives in unemployment insurance benefits. You testified that this amount was correct.
- 4) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 5) Your application states that you and your spouse live in Bronx County, New York.
- 6) You testified that you applied for health insurance for your spouse because your spouse was terminated in May 2017, and lost her health insurance coverage through her employer.
- 7) You further testified that you and your spouse cannot afford your health insurance premiums even with the APTC subsidy and you would like you and your spouse to be found eligible for the Essential Plan.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036.).

For annual household income in the range of at least 300% but less than 400% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution for 2017 is 9.69% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were eligible for APTC of up to $477.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on August 2, 2017 listed an annual household income of $53,980.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You and your spouse are in a two-person household. This is because you expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You and your spouse reside in Bronx County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for a couple through NYSOH costs $912.91 per month.

An annual income of $53,980.00 is 336.95% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 336.95% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium in 2017 is 9.69% of income, or $435.89 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a couple in your county ($912.91 per month) minus your expected contribution ($435.89 per month), which equals $477.02 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you and your spouse to be eligible for up to $477.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you and your spouse were properly found ineligible for cost-sharing reductions.

Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $53,980.00 is 336.95% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $53,980.00 is 336.95% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you and your spouse to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the August 3, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information provided in your application, you and your spouse were eligible for up to $477.00 per month in APTC and ineligible for cost-sharing reductions for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
