Decision

Decision Date: October 20, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021187

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan was effective as of September 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On July 26, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice, based on your July 25, 2017 updated application, stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on July 26, 2017, a plan enrollment notice was issued confirming that you were enrolled in a Medicaid Managed Care plan, effective September 1, 2017.

On August 4, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan as it began on September 1, 2017, and not August 1, 2017.

On October 18, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You submitted an updated application to NYSOH for financial assistance on July 25, 2017, to reflect that you were pregnant and expecting one child with a due date of [REDACTED].
- 2) According to your NYSOH account, on July 25, 2017, your eligibility was redetermined and you were found eligible for Medicaid. That same day, you selected your Medicaid Managed Care plan and you were enrolled in that plan effective September 1, 2017.
- 3) You testified that you called NYSOH to seek health coverage for your expected child before he was born and did not realize that once you updated your account, your current health plan would cancel and you would only have Medicaid Fee-For Service for the month of August 2017.
- 4) You testified that you want your Medicaid Managed Care plan, which was effective as of September 1, 2017, to begin on August 1, 2017 because your provider does not accept Medicaid Fee-For Service.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Medicaid Managed Care Plan – Effective Date

Medicaid Managed Care (MMC) plan enrollments received on or before the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the following month. Enrollments received after the fifteenth day of the month are effective the first day of the second following month (Medicaid Managed Care Model Contract (Appendix H(6)(b)(ii) & (iii), effective 3/1/2014 – 2/28/2019, N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law §364-j(1)(c); 18 NYCRR § 360-10.3(h)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan was effective as of September 1, 2017, and not as of August 1, 2017.

You submitted an updated application to NYSOH for financial assistance on July 25, 2017, to reflect that you were pregnant and expecting one child with a due date of [REDACTED]. That same day, you selected your Medicaid Managed Care Plan and you were enrolled effective September 1, 2017.

The date on which a Medicaid Managed Care plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you selected your Medicaid Managed Care plan on July 25, 2017, it must take effect on the first day of the second month following July 2017; that is, on September 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's July 26, 2017 plan enrollment notice is AFFIRMED because it properly began your enrollment in your Medicaid Managed Care plan on September 1, 2017.
