Decision

Decision Date: November 8, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021194

[REDACTED]

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were not eligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective September 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On August 4, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost, effective September 1, 2017. It also stated that you were not eligible for financial assistance.

Also on August 4, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed that you were not found eligible for financial assistance through NYSOH.

On August 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the August 4, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost, effective September 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for an advance premium tax credit, cost-sharing reduction, the Essential Plan and Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limits for those programs.

On October 18, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and remained open as the Hearing Officer directed you to provide as additional evidence to corroborate your testimony: (1) a letter of separation from prior employer, (2) all earnings statements you received from prior employer during month of August 2017, (3) an online unemployment benefit payment history reflecting benefits paid to you during the month of August 2017, (4) and your first earnings statement received from your new employer. The record was to be closed 15 days after the hearing date, or upon the receipt of the above referenced documents, whichever occurred earlier. No additional documents were received from you by November 2, 2017.

Accordingly, the record was closed on November 2, 2017.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself only.
- 3) The application that was submitted on August 4, 2017 listed annual household income of $49,700.00, consisting of $50,000.00 you earned from your former employer, [REDACTED] between January 1, 2017 and August 3, 2017, and $300.00 in student loan interest deductions you anticipate taking on your 2017 taxes. You testified that these amounts were correct.
- 4) You testified that your position with [REDACTED] ended since you had been laid off on or about August 4, 2017.
- 5) You testified that around the time your employment with [REDACTED] ended, you filed a claim for unemployment benefits, and was awarded $430.00 per week.

- 6) You testified that since filing a claim for unemployment benefits, you have now found employment.
- 7) You live in [REDACTED], New York.
- 8) You testified that you are unable to afford health insurance with some level of financial assistance from NYSOH.
- 9) You did not provide any of the income documentation requested by the Hearing Officer prior to the record closing on November 2, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/downloads/ny-blueprint.pdf>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL "for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility" (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size

(42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for an APTC, effective September 1, 2017.

The application that was submitted on August 4, 2017 listed an annual household income of $49,700.00, which consisted of $50,000.00 you earned from your former employer, [REDACTED], between January 1, 2017 and August 3, 2017, and $300.00 in student loan interest deductions you anticipate taking on your 2017 taxes. The eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

APTC is available to a person who has a household income no less than 200% and no greater than 400.00% of the applicable FPL. Since a household income of $49,700.00 is 418.35% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be not eligible for APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found not eligible for CSR.

CSR is available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $49,700.00 is 418.35% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be not eligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $49,700.00 is 418.35% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The fourth issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid.

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $49,700.00 is 412.11% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

In order to determine your monthly gross income during August 2017, the Hearing Officer requested that you provide: (1) a letter of separation from prior employer, (2) all earnings statements you received from prior employer during month of August 2017, (3) an online unemployment benefit payment history reflecting benefits paid to you during the month of August 2017, (4) and your first earnings statement received from new employer.

The record reflects that you did not provide any of the above referenced income documentation prior to the record closing on November 2, 2017.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00 per month. Since you did not provide the income documentation as requested by the Hearing Officer, we are unable to determine whether you are eligible for Medicaid based on monthly household income as of the date of your August 4, 2017 application.

Since the August 5, 2017 eligibility determination notice properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible to enroll in a QHP at full cost, and not eligible for APTC, CSR, the Essential Plan and Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The August 5, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: November 8, 2017
