Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $214.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC)?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions (CSR)?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were ineligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On July 27, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance through NYSOH.

On July 28, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible for a tax credit up to $214.00 per month and CSR, effective as of September 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on July 28, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your Essential Plan coverage would end on August 31, 2017, because you were no longer eligible to enroll in an Essential Plan.

On August 8, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the amount of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

On October 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Testimony was taken during the hearing, and the record was left open until November 2, 2017, to allow you to submit your four most recent paystubs to NYSOH Appeals Unit.

On October 30, 2017, you submitted five-pages of documentation to NYSOH Appeals Unit. That documentation was made part of the record as "Appellant Exhibit A." The record is now complete and closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are only appealing the amount of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.
- 2) According to your July 27, 2017 application, you attested that your annual household income would be the same as last year, which was $37,557.00.
- 3) According to your July 27, 2017 application, you expected to file a 2017 federal income tax return, with the tax status of Head of Household (with qualifying individual), and expected to claim one dependent on that return.
- 4) According to your NYSOH account, you do not expect to claim any deductions on your 2017 federal income tax return.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in [REDACTED] New York.
- 6) You testified that your income was inconsistent and you did not expect your income to be the same as last year.
- 7) You testified you are unable to afford the health insurance premiums based on the amount of financial assistance you were determined eligible to receive.

8) On October 30, 2017, you submitted four weekly paystubs to NYSOH Appeals Unit. You were issued taxable gross income of:

- (a) $522.94 on September 25, 2017;
- (b) $653.28 on October 2, 2017;
- (c) $902.90 on October 9, 2017;
- (d) $752.72 on October 16, 2017;

(see [REDACTED])

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term “modified adjusted gross income” means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

“Adjusted gross income” means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from time savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)).

Living expenses, such as rent and utilities are not an allowable deduction in computing adjusted gross income (26 USC § 262(a)).

Household Composition

For APTC and CSR, the household size equals the number of individuals for whom the taxpayers are allowed a deduction under 26 USC § 151 for the taxable year, which typically includes: (1) the taxpayer, (2) his or her spouse, and (3) any claimed dependents (26 USC § 36B(d)(1)).

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

Affordability Exemption

Under some circumstances, a person may receive an exemption from paying a penalty for not purchasing health insurance coverage. Such an exemption may be granted if that person can show that he or she experienced a financial hardship or has domestic circumstances that (1) caused an unexpected increase in essential expenses that prevented that person from obtaining health coverage under a QHP; (2) would have caused the person to experience serious deprivation of food, shelter, clothing, or other necessities, as a result of the expense of purchasing health coverage under a QHP; or (3) prevented that person from obtaining coverage under a QHP (45 CFR § 155.605(a), (g)).

NY State of Health has deferred to the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services (HHS) on the matter of hardship exemptions (see 45 CFR § 155.505(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for up to $214.00 of APTC per month.

Based on the application that was submitted on July 27, 2017, you attested to an expected annual household income of $37,557.00, and the July 28, 2017, eligibility determination relied upon that information.

For an individual who expects to file a federal income tax return, the household equals the taxpayers and the number of individuals for whom the taxpayer is claiming as a dependent.

You attested that you expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return, with the tax status of Head of Household (with qualifying individual), and expected to claim one dependent on that return. Therefore, you were in a two-person household.

You reside in [REDACTED], New York, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $453.36 per month.

An annual income of $37,557.00 is 234.44% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 234.44% of the FPL, the expected contribution is 7.66% of the household income, or $239.74 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($453.36 per month) minus your expected contribution ($239.74 per month), which equals $213.62 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $214.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue under review is whether you were properly found eligible for CSR.

CSR are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a two-person household with an income of $37,557.00 is 234.44% of the FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for CSR.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were determined ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $37,557.00 is 234.44% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The July 28, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $214.00 per month in APTC and CSR, and ineligible for the Essential Plan. Therefore, it is correct and AFFIRMED.

You testified that your income was inconsistent and you did not expect your income to be the same as last year. Therefore, you were instructed to provide your four most recent pay stubs to NYSOH Appeals Unit.

On October 30, 2017, you submitted your four weekly paystubs to NYSOH Appeals Unit. Based on the documentation submitted, your expected 2017 household income will be $($522.94 + $653.28 + $902.90 + $752.72) \times 13$ periods) $36,813.92.

Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to recalculate your eligibility for financial assistance based on a two-person household for an individual living in Nassau County, NY, with a 2017 household income of $36,813.92.

If you wish to be considered for a hardship exemption, which would exempt you from paying a penalty for not having health insurance during 2017, you can check the Federal Marketplace website (www.healthcare.gov) for direction.

Decision

The July 28, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to recalculate your eligibility for financial assistance based on a two-person household for an individual living in Nassau County, NY, with a 2017 household income of $36,813.92.

Effective Date of this Decision: November 7, 2017
