Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) outside of the open enrollment period as of August 9, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 4, 2017, you submitted a financial assistance application through NYSOH.

On May 5, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a QHP at full cost, effective June 1, 2017.

Also on May 5, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that as of May 4, 2017, you enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of June 1, 2017.

On August 8, 2017, your NYSOH account was updated.

Also on August 8, 2017, you spoke with NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to your eligibility for a special enrollment period.

On August 9, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating in part that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On October 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from the NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you want to change the health insurance plan that you are currently enrolled in.
- 2) You testified that you were enrolled in Medicaid coverage through the Human Resources Administration (HRA) until July 1, 2017.
- 3) According to your May 4, 2017 application, your Medicaid coverage ended on June 30, 2017.
- 4) You testified that, on May 4, 2017, you were enrolled in a Healthfirst QHP with the assistance of a representative from that insurance company.
- 5) You testified that the representative misinformed you about the coverage and out-of-pocket costs of that health plan.
- 6) You testified that you contacted Healthfirst to change health plans; however, you were informed that you were ineligible to change plans.
- 7) According to your NYSOH account, on August 8, 2017, you attempted to change your health plan through NYSOH, but were not able to do so

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
  - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
  - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.
- (5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Length of Special Enrollment Period

Generally, a qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR §155.420(c)(1)). A qualified individual or their dependent, who loses health insurance that is considered to be minimum essential coverage, has 60 days before or after the loss of coverage to select a QHP (45 CFR §155.420(c)(2)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period as of August 9, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A qualified individual or their dependent, who loses health insurance that is considered to be minimum essential coverage, has 60 days before or after the loss of coverage to select or change their QHP.

The record reflects that your Medicaid coverage, through HRA, ended on June 30, 2017. The special enrollment period that began on June 30, 2017, expired as of August 29, 2017. Therefore, you had until August 29, 2017, to select or change your QHP. Since you attempted to change your QHP on August 8, 2017, which was within 60 days of the loss your Medicaid coverage, you were eligible to change the QHP that you were enrolled in.

Therefore, the August 9, 2017, eligibility determination notice is MODIFIED to state that you were eligible for a special enrollment period.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to assist you in changing your qualified health plan. You must change your coverage within 60 days from the date of this decision.
