Decision

Decision Date: November 17, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021322

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective August 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that you were ineligible for Medicaid?

Procedural History

On June 21, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance.

On June 22, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 premium per month, effective August 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for Medicaid because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On August 9, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not found eligible for the Essential Plan with a $0.00 premium or Medicaid.

On October 31, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open for fourteen days, to allow you to submit supporting documents.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On November 8, 2017, the NYSOH Appeals Unit received via fax four of your paystubs. These documents have been marked as Appellant's exhibit #1 and are hereby incorporated into the record. The record is now closed.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will not claim any dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself.
- 3) The application that was submitted on June 21, 2017 listed annual household income of $19,153.45, consisting of wages you earn from your employment. You testified that this amount was correct at the time, however, your income has since changed as your employer has cut back your hours.
- 4) You testified that you have only had one employer throughout 2017. You explained that you are paid biweekly and are paid at a rate of $12.41 per hour. You went on to testify that you were previously working 36 to 37 hours per week, however, approximately 5 weeks prior to the hearing, your hours were cut to around 25 hours per week.
- 5) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 6) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in [REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
- 7) You faxed four paystubs to the NYSOH Appeals Unit, the first is for check date June 16, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $973.62; the second is for check date June 30, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $889.18; the third is for check date October 20, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $533.01; the fourth is for check date November 3, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $394.63.
- 8) On November 1, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and updated the income information in your application based on the change in your hours worked. On November 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in an Essential Plan with a $0.00 monthly premium for a limited time, effective December 1, 2017. This notice directed you to submit documentation of your income by January 30, 2018 in order to confirm your eligibility for financial assistance.

- 9) On November 9, 2017, NYSOH reviewed the income documentation you submitted and recalculated your annual income based on the recent paystubs you submitted. On November 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible for Medicaid, effective November 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Medicaid

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults who: (1) are age 19 or older and under age 65, (2) are not pregnant, (3) are not entitled to or enrolled for Medicare benefits under part A or B of title XVIII of the Act, (4) are not otherwise eligible for and enrolled for mandatory coverage under a State's Medicaid State plan in accordance with subpart B of this part, and (5) have a household modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size (42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)), NY Social Services Law § 366(1)(b)).

In an analysis of Medicaid eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL “for the applicable budget period used to determine an individual's eligibility” (42 CFR § 435.4). On the date of your application, that was the 2017 FPL, which is $12,060.00 for a one-person household (82 Fed. Reg. 8831).

Financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size (42 CFR § 435.603(h)(1); State Plan Amendment (SPA) 13-0055-MM3, as approved March 19, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective August 1, 2017.

The application that was submitted on June 21, 2017 listed an annual household income of $19,153.45 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will not claim any dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you are in a one-person household.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. A person who has a household income that is between 150% and 200% of the FPL will have a $20.00 per month premium. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $19,153.45 is 161.22% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were ineligible for Medicaid.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Medicaid can be provided through NYSOH to adults between the ages of 19 and 65 who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is at or below 138% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $12,060.00 for a one-person household. Since $19,153.45 is 158.82% of the 2017 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for Medicaid on an expected annual income basis, using the information provided in your application.

However, financial eligibility for Medicaid for applicants who are not currently receiving Medicaid benefits is based on current monthly household income and family size.

You submitted paystubs that show in June 2017 you received at least $1,862.80 in income.

To be eligible for Medicaid, you would need to meet the non-financial criteria and have an income no greater than 138% of the FPL, which is $1,387.00.00 per month. Since the documentation you provided shows that you earned at least $1,862.80 in June 2017 you do not qualify for Medicaid on the basis of monthly income as of the date of your application.

Since the June 22, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium and ineligible for Medicaid, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

During the hearing, you testified that your income has changed as a result of a reduction in your hours worked. You submitted two recent paystubs in support of your testimony.

NYSOH has subsequently redetermined your eligibility for financial assistance based on these recent paystubs.

Decision

The June 22, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: November 17, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

NYSOH properly found you eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium and ineligible for Medicaid based on your June 21, 2017 application.

This decision has no effect on subsequent eligibility determinations.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:
