On May 17, 2017, you updated your household's application for financial assistance.

On May 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. This notice directed you to submit documentation of your household's income by August 15, 2017 in order to confirm your and your spouse's eligibility for financial assistance.

Also on May 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in an Essential Plan with a plan enrollment start date of July 1, 2017.

On May 30, 2017, you uploaded income documents to your NYSOH account.

Also on May 30, 2017, NYSOH reviewed the income documentation you submitted, recalculated your household income based on this documentation, updated the income in your household's application based on this recalculation, and submitted an application on your household's behalf.

On May 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $592.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on May 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your and your spouse's enrollment with your Essential Plan would end on July 1, 2017. This was because you and your spouse were no longer eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan.

On August 10, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $592.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective September 1, 2017.

Also on August 10, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you and your spouse were not found eligible for the Essential Plan.

On August 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on the August 10, 2017 application, stating that you and your spouse were eligible to receive up to $592.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective September 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you and your spouse were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On August 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. This was because you and your spouse had been granted Aid to Continue until a decision was made on your appeal.

Also on August 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation stating that you and your spouse were enrolled in the Essential Plan with a plan enrollment start date of July 1, 2017.

On October 17, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and left open for fourteen days to allow you the opportunity to submit additional income documentation.

On October 26, 2017, the Appeals Unit received via fax copies of two of your paystubs. These documents were collectively marked as Appellant's Exhibit #1 and incorporated into the record. The record is now closed.

the rate of time and a half. However, for five weeks of the year, your earnings are capped at a straight forty hours per week. You are paid biweekly by your employer.

- 7) Your application states, and you confirmed, that you live in Monroe County.
- 8) Following the hearing, you submitted two paystubs; the first is for pay date October 6, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $1,337.13; the second is for pay date October 20, 2017 for pay period October 1, 2017 to October 14, 2017 for a gross pay amount of $1,341.07 and a gross year to date amount of $28,141.74.
- 9) You testified that you are seeking the Essential Plan because you believe this is the most cost-effective coverage for you as you have on-going medical issues.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides

minus

2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Federal Register 4036).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $16,020.00 for a two-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Modified Adjusted Gross Income

NYSOH bases its eligibility determinations on modified adjusted gross income as defined in the federal tax code (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). The term "modified adjusted gross income" means adjusted gross income increased by (1) any income that was excluded under 26 USC § 911 for United States citizens or residents living abroad, (2) tax-exempt interest received or accrued, and (3) Social Security benefits that were excluded from gross income under 26 USC § 86 (see 26 USC § 36B(d)(2)(B), 26 CFR § 1.36B-1(e)(2)).

"Adjusted gross income" means, in the case of an individual taxpayer, gross federal taxable income minus certain specific deductions, such as expenses reimbursed by an employer, losses from sale or exchange of property, losses from premature withdrawal of funds from tax savings accounts, deductions attributable to royalties, and certain retirement savings (26 USC § 62(a)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were eligible for an APTC of up to $592.00 per month.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

The application that was submitted on August 10, 2017 listed an annual household income of $33,591.61 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information.

You and your spouse expect to file your 2017 income taxes as married filing jointly and will claim no dependents on that tax return. Therefore, you and your spouse are in a two-person household.

You reside in Monroe County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for a couple through NYSOH costs $781.58 per month.

An annual income of $33,592.00 is 209.69% of the 2016 FPL for a two-person household. At 209.69% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 6.77% of income, or $189.65 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for a couple in your county ($781.58 per month) minus your expected contribution ($189.65 per month), which equals $591.93 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you and your spouse to be eligible for up to $592.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you and your spouse were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $33,592.61 is 209.69% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse were ineligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $16,020.00 for a two-person household. Since an annual household income of $33,591.61 is 209.69% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be ineligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the August 11, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you and your spouse were eligible for up to $592.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and ineligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.

Following the hearing, you submitted paystubs that show that your household annual expected income is now $34,816.60 (combined gross from two most recent paystubs equals $2,678.20 divided by four weeks for a weekly average of $669.55, multiplied by 52 weeks). Therefore, your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to redetermine your and your spouse's eligibility based on a household of two, residing in Monroe County, with an annual expected income of $34,816.60.
