Decision

Decision Date: October 20, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021353

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were ineligible for health insurance coverage through its Exchange, effective August 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On June 16, 2017, you submitted an application for financial assistance through NYSOH.

On June 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you did not qualify for: Medicaid, the Essential Plan, tax credits or cost-sharing reductions, and could not enroll in a qualified health plan through NYSOH, effective August 1, 2017. Further, the notice stated that you did not qualify for health insurance through NYSOH because federal and state data sources indicated that you were enrolled in Medicare.

On August 10, 2017, you contacted NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal insofar as you were determined ineligible for health insurance through NYSOH.

On October 17, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you are applying for health insurance for yourself.
- 2) You testified that you want to be determined eligible for Medicaid.
- 3) According to your June 16, 2017 application, you attested that you did not expect to file a 2017 federal income tax return.
- 4) According to your NYSOH account and testimony, you do not have any dependents.
- 5) According to your NYSOH account, you have been enrolled in Medicare since March 1, 2017.
- 6) You testified that you are enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B.
- 7) You testified that you are issued approximately $1,634.00 monthly, before deductions, in Social Security Disability Insurance benefits.
- 8) You testified that you received approximately $3,000.00 in vacation pay, from your employer, at the end of January 2017 or beginning of February 2017.
- 9) According to your NYSOH account, you reside in [REDACTED], New York.
- 10) You testified that you have applied for Medicaid through Nassau County Local Department of Social Services, but your application was denied.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Qualified Health Plan

It is unlawful for a person to sell or issue to an individual, entitled to benefits under Medicare Part A or enrolled under Medicare Part B, a health insurance policy with the knowledge that the policy duplicates health benefits to which the individual is otherwise entitled to be enrolled in (42 U.S. Code § 1395ss(d)(3)(A));

(last updated April 28, 2016).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

Minimum essential coverage includes most government-sponsored insurance plans such as Medicaid, Medicare, CHIP, Tricare, Veterans' Health Coverage, and eligible employer-sponsored insurance (26 USC §§ 36B(c)(2)(B) and 5000A(f)).

Medicaid

An individual is eligible for enrollment in Medicaid through NYSOH (called MAGI-based Medicaid) when he or she meets certain nonfinancial criteria and has a household income that is at or below the applicable Medicaid income standard (45 CFR § 155.305(c); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

In general, to qualify for MAGI-based Medicaid through NYSOH, you must also be one of the following:

- An adult aged 19-64 who is not eligible for Medicare Part A or Part B,
- A pregnant woman or infant,
- A child aged 1-18, or
- A parent or caretaker relative

(45 CFR § 155.305(c); N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(b)).

If an individual does not fall into one of these categories, he or she may still be eligible for non-MAGI-based Medicaid coverage through their Local Department of Social Services or the New York City Human Resources Administration (see N.Y. Soc. Serv. Law § 366(1)(c)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether you were properly determined ineligible for health insurance through NYSOH.

The sale or issuance of duplicate health insurance coverage to Medicare beneficiaries, including qualified health plans through NYSOH, is prohibited. The record reflects that you have been enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B since [REDACTED]. Therefore, you were not eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH.

The Essential Plan is available to individuals who are not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage. Various government-sponsored plans provide minimum essential coverage, including Part A of the Medicare program. Again, since you have been enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B since [REDACTED], you were not eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan because you were enrolled in minimum essential coverage.

Medicaid through NYSOH is available to individuals who are between the ages of 19 and 64, who are not eligible for Medicare Parts A or B; pregnant women or infants; children between the ages of 1 and 18; and parent or caretaker relatives.

The record reflects that, when NYSOH issued the June 18, 2017 eligibility determination, you were eligible for and enrolled in Medicare Parts A and B. Furthermore, the record reflects that you have no dependents and, therefore, are not a parent or a caretaker relative of a dependent child. Therefore, you do not qualify on that basis.

Since you were enrolled in Medicare and were not a parent or caretaker relative, NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for Medicaid through NYSOH.

Therefore, you were properly determined ineligible to enroll in health insurance through NYSOH, and the June 18, 2017 eligibility determination notice to this effect is AFFIRMED.

Decision

The June 18, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

Effective Date of this Decision: October 20, 2017

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility

You are ineligible for health insurance through NYSOH.

If You Disagree with this Decision (Appeal Rights)

This Decision is final unless you submit an appeal request to the Federal Marketplace or bring a lawsuit under New York Civil Practice Law and Rules, Article 78.

You may bring a lawsuit on any Appeals Unit decision in New York State court in accordance with Article 78 of the New York Civil Practice Law and Rules. This must be done within four months of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision.

Additionally, Appeals Unit decisions on issues involving eligibility for qualified health plans, advance premium tax credits, and cost-sharing reductions may be appealed to the Federal Marketplace. This must be done within 30 days of the Decision Date, which appears on the first page of this Decision (45 CFR § 155.520(c)).

If you have questions about appealing to the Federal Marketplace, you can contact them in any of the following ways:

- By calling the Customer Service Center at 1-800-318-2596
- By mail at:
Health Insurance Marketplace
