Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On May 29, 2017, NYSOH received your initial application for health insurance.

On May 30, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice based on the information contained in the May 29, 2017 application. The notice stated that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $107.00 per month for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. You were requested to provide income documentation by August 27, 2017 to confirm your eligibility. The notice advised you to select a health plan by July 22, 2017 because if you missed this date, you could not obtain coverage for 2017.

On August 10, 2017, NYSOH received an update to your application for health insurance.

Also on August 10, 2017, NYSOH received a letter issued by your employer, [REDACTED], dated August 7, 2017, stating that your anticipated gross earnings for 2017 was $38,475.00.

On August 11, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice based on the information contained in your August 10, 2017 application. The notice stated that you were eligible to receive an APTC of up to $107.00 per month for a limited time, effective July 1, 2017. You were requested to provide income documentation by August 27, 2017 to confirm your eligibility. It further stated that you did not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017.

Also on August 11, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed your inability to enroll into a qualified health plan (QHP) outside of the open enrollment period.

On October 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On May 29, 2017, you submitted your initial application for health insurance. You testified that this was because you turned [REDACTED] and aged out of your parents' health insurance plan. This application reflected that you were seeking a special enrollment period because your coverage had ended as of May 23, 2017.
- 2) You testified that after completing your application on May 29, 2017, you elected not to select a health plan at that time because you were in the midst of switching jobs, and were reviewing your options for health insurance outside of NYSOH.
- 3) You testified that contrary to the information you provided in your May 29, 2017 application, your insurance coverage through your parents' plan had actually ended on May 31, 2017, not on May 23, 2017.
- 4) On August 10, 2017, you updated your application to NYSOH and attempted to enroll in a QHP at that time.
- 5) Your application on August 10, 2017 states that you were seeking a special enrollment based on your health coverage having ended effective May 31, 2017.
- 6) You testified that since filing your application on August 10, 2017 there have been no other major changes to your household.

- 7) You testified that you were told by a NYSOH representative that if you had a change in income, you might be eligible to enroll in a health plan for the remainder of 2017. You further testified that after having provided the letter from your employer to NYSOH, you were still not able to enroll in a health plan through NYSOH and felt that this was a misrepresentation on the part of the NYSOH representative.
- 8) You testified that you did not rely on any statements made by NYSOH that prevented you in enrolling in a QHP sooner.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
  - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
  - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
  - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.

(iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.

(2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.

(ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.

(3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you do not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period, effective September 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On May 29, 2017, you applied for health insurance and were found eligible to enroll in a QHP until July 22, 2017, based on your attestation that you lost your health coverage as of May 23, 2017. You testified, and your account confirms, that you elected not to select a plan at that time.

You updated your NYSOH account on August 10, 2017. On August 11, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that you did not qualify to enroll in a QHP outside of the open enrollment period.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

You testified that your previous insurance coverage through your parent's plan ended on May 31, 2017 due to your aging out of that plan. Loss of insurance coverage outside of NYSOH is generally considered a triggering life event.

When a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual has 60 days from the date of that event to select a QHP.

Because 60 days from May 31, 2017 is July 30, 2017, you would have qualified to select a QHP outside of the open enrollment period until July 30, 2017.

Your application and request to enroll into a qualified health plan did not occur until August 10, 2017, which is outside of the 60-day window.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

You testified that you were told by a NYSOH representative that if you had a change in income, you might be eligible to enroll in a health plan for the remainder of 2017. You further testified that after having provided the letter from your employer to NYSOH, you were still not able to enroll in a health plan through NYSOH and felt that this was a misrepresentation on the part of the NYSOH representative.

While the record reflects that you did experience a change in income based on a change in employment, this particular change in income does not qualify as one which would have resulted in a determination that you were eligible for a special enrollment period. Moreover, you stated that this apparent misstatement did not influence your decision to delay in selecting a plan.

Since the record does not indicate that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information, a special enrollment period cannot be granted.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017 and your special enrollment period ended on July 30, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's August 11, 2017 eligibility determination that you do not qualify to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
