Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period as of August 12, 2017?

Procedural History

On January 3, 2017, you submitted an updated application for health insurance to NYSOH.

On January 4, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to purchase a qualified health plan at full cost through NYSOH, effective February 1, 2017. You were subsequently enrolled in a gold-level qualified health plan with a plan start date of January 1, 2017.

On January 27, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your gold-level qualified health plan ended effective January 1, 2017, because you did not pay your insurance bill by the payment deadline.

On February 1, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice based on your January 31, 2017 plan selection, stating that you were enrolled in a full cost silver-level qualified health plan with a $2,350.00 annual deductible and a monthly premium of $468.17, with a plan enrollment start date of March 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On March 13, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.

On March 14, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were eligible to receive an advance premium tax credit (APTC) of up to $100.00 per month, effective April 1, 2017.

On March 16, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice, based on your plan selection on March 13, 2017, stating that you were enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan with a monthly premium of $368.17 after application of your $100.00 APTC and a plan start date of April 1, 2017.

On May 20, 2017 and May 31, 2017, NYSOH issued plan enrollment notices stating that you were enrolled in a silver-level qualified health plan with a monthly premium of $368.17 after application of your $100.00 APTC and a plan start date of April 1, 2017.

On August 12, 2017, you attempted to change your enrollment to a different type of qualified health plan, but were unable to do so.

Also on August 12, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed insofar as you were not eligible to change your enrollment to a different health plan outside of the open enrollment period.

On August 13, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "Denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP)."

On October 23, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period so you can change health insurance plans.
- 2) On January 31, 2017, you enrolled in a full cost silver level qualified health plan with a $2,350 deductible and a monthly premium of $468.17, effective March 1, 2017.

- 3) On March 13, 2017, you submitted an updated application for health insurance and were determined eligible for APTC of up to $100.00 per month to help pay for health coverage, effective April 1, 2017.
- 4) On March 13, 2017, you selected a silver-level qualified health plan with a plan enrollment start date and application of APTC, effective April 1, 2017.
- 5) On August 12, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and requested to change health plans and were told you did not qualify for a special enrollment period and you were not allowed to change plans.
- 6) You testified that, when you selected your health plan on January 31, 2017, the NYSOH representative did not clearly explain how the plan was structured and how the deductible would be applied.
- 7) You testified that the deductible is too high and you would like a plan with a smaller deductible with a higher monthly premium.
- 8) You testified that since filing your updated application on March 13, 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and “consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process” (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). “De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case” (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)(i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a qualified health plan because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.
- (4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.
- (5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the qualified health plan in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to new qualified health plan as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a qualified health plan or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a qualified health plan; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a qualified health plan (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you did not qualify to enroll in a qualified health plan outside of the open enrollment period as of August 12, 2017.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period so you can enroll into a different level qualified health plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination. Your credible testimony, along with the August 13, 2017 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was “Denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP),” permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. On January 3, 2017, you enrolled in a full cost gold-level qualified health plan with a plan start date of January 1, 2017. You were subsequently disenrolled from that plan for non-payment of premium effective January 1, 2017. On January 31, 2017, you selected a full cost silver-level qualified health plan with a plan enrollment start date of March 1, 2017. On March 13, 2017, you submitted an updated application for health insurance and were determined eligible for $100.00 in APTC, effective April 1, 2017. At that time, you were allowed to enroll in a silver-level qualified health plan with a $2,350.00 annual deductible, a monthly premium of $368.17 after application of your $100.00 APTC, and a plan start date of April 1, 2017.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period in order to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. In order to qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual's enrollment or non-enrollment in a qualified health plan is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You testified that a NYSOH representative did not fully explain the plan structure and application of deductibles for your silver-level qualified health plan. However, NYSOH issued plan enrollment notices on February 1, 2017, March 16, 2017, May 20, 2017 and May 31, 2017, that outlined the monthly premium amount as well as the annual deductible for the silver level plan. Since the record does not indicate that NYSOH, by action or inaction, made an error or misrepresented information, a special enrollment period cannot be granted.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a health plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
