Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your eligibility for and enrollment in your Essential Plan was effective September 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On May 8, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) issued a notice that it was time to renew your health insurance for the upcoming year. This notice stated that your Medicaid coverage through [REDACTED] Department of Social Services was ending on July 31, 2017. This notice further directed you to log onto your NYSOH account between June 16, 2017 and July 15, 2017 to make sure the information in your account is up-to-date.

On August 14, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance with health insurance through NYSOH. That day a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible for the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective September 1, 2017.

Also on August 14, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Accounts Review Unit and appealed the start date of your enrollment in the Essential Plan insofar as it did not begin on August 1, 2017.

On August 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, for a limited time, effective September 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on August 15, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming your enrollment in the Essential Plan with a $20.00 monthly premium, effective September 1, 2017.

On October 20, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. Arabic Interpreter [REDACTED] assisted with the hearing. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you were transferred from your Local Department of Social Services to NYSOH.
- 2) You testified that you receive your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 3) You testified that you did receive the notice in the mail telling you that you needed to update your application in order to renew your coverage; however, you were out of the State when the notice came in the mail.
- 4) You testified that you did not receive the notice until you returned from being out of the State in August 2017.
- 5) You testified that you updated your NYSOH account as soon as you received the notice.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account, on August 14, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.
- 7) You enrolled into an Essential Plan on August 14, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you are seeking to have coverage in the Essential Plan as of August 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Essential Plan Effective Date

For individuals seeking enrollment in an Essential Plan, New York State has elected to follow the same rules that NYSOH uses in determining effective dates for individuals seeking enrollment in qualified health plans (NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(4)(c); New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 16, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

The effective date of coverage by an Essential Plan is determined by the date on which an applicant selects a plan for enrollment. For individuals who are eligible for enrollment, NYSOH must generally ensure that coverage is effective the first day of the following month for selections received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320). For selections received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR §§ 155.410(f)(2), 155.420(b)(1)(ii)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for and enrollment in your Essential Plan was effective September 1, 2017.

NYSOH issued a notice dated May 8, 2017 which informed you of what steps you needed to take before your Medicaid coverage ended through your Local Department of Social Services. The notice directed you to log on to your NYSOH account between June 16, 2017 and July 15, 2017 to make sure that the information in your account was up to date. This notice further stated that if you did not update your information with NYSOH that you would not be able to continue with your health insurance coverage.

You testified that you received the notice from NYSOH telling you that you needed to update the information in your NYSOH account. You further testified that you were out of the State when the notice came in the mail, and you were unaware that you had to update your NYSOH account until after you returned to the State in August 2017.

Therefore, the record reflects that NYSOH properly notified you of your renewal and that information in your NYSOH account needed to be updated in order to ensure your enrollment in your health plan and eligibility for financial assistance would continue.

The record shows that, on August 14, 2017, you updated the information in your NYSOH account and submitted a request to enroll in an Essential Plan.

The date on which the Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected after the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since you selected your Essential Plan on August 14, 2017, it must take effect on the first day of the following after August 2017; that is, on September 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH's August 15, 2017 eligibility determination and plan enrollment notices are AFFIRMED because they properly began your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan on September 1, 2017.
