Decision

Decision Date: October 27, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021511

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a dental plan outside of the 2017 open enrollment period?

Procedural History

On January 13, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application for health insurance.

On January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you and your spouse were eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) at full cost, effective February 1, 2017.

Also on January 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, confirming that you and your spouse were enrolled in a bronze level Fidelis QHP, and a Delta Dental plan, beginning January 1, 2017.

On January 30, 2017, you updated your enrollment through NYSOH.

On January 31, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment confirmation, confirming that you and your spouse were enrolled in a platinum level Fidelis QHP, beginning March 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On February 1, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice, stating that you and your spouse were disenrolled from your Fidelis bronze level QHP, effective February 28, 2017. The notice also stated that you and your spouse were disenrolled from your [REDACTED], effective January 31, 2017.

On August 14, 2017, you attempted to enroll in a dental plan, but were unable to.

On August 16, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed, insofar as you and your spouse were not eligible to enroll in a dental plan outside of the 2017 open enrollment period.

On August 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice to confirm your appeal request from the previous day. That notice stated that the reason for your appeal was "denial of Special Enrollment Period (SEP)."

On October 23, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing, and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) On January 14, 2017, you submitted an application for health insurance and enrolled in a QHP and a dental plan, on behalf of yourself and your spouse.
- 2) On January 30, 2017, you contacted NYSOH and changed your enrollment from an Fidelis bronze plan to a Fidelis platinum plan, on behalf of yourself and your spouse.
- 3) Also on January 30, 2017, you and your spouse were disenrolled from your dental plan.
- 4) You testified that you contacted NYSOH because you wanted to upgrade your coverage, and that you never requested to terminate your dental plan.
- 5) You testified that you were not told that your dental coverage was being discontinued by the NYSOH agent you spoke with, nor did you think that you needed to make a point of instructing the agent to keep you enrolled in the dental plan, as you were not calling to make any changes to that part of your coverage.

- 6) In NYSOH's system, Incident [REDACTED], a NYSOH employee indicated on August 16, 2017 that the recording of your phone call with the NYSOH agent on January 30, 2017 was reviewed. The notes indicate that during the call you spoke to the NYSOH agent about changing your coverage to a platinum QHP, but that you did not ask about your dental coverage, and that your dental coverage was not discussed at all during the phone call.
- 7) On February 1, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice indicating that you and your spouse were disenrolled from your Delta Dental plan, effective January 31, 2017, because you asked to end this coverage on January 30, 2017.
- 8) You testified that you did not receive this notice from NYSOH.
- 9) You testified, and your NYSOH account reflects, that you receive notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 10) No notices issued to you at the address in your NYSOH account have been returned to NYSOH as undeliverable.
- 11) You testified that you did not know that you and your spouse had been disenrolled from your dental coverage until you received a refund of your premium payment.
- 12) You testified that you began looking into the issue and discovered that you did not have coverage, so you contacted NYSOH and tried to re-enroll in a dental plan on behalf of yourself and your spouse.
- 13) On August 14, 2017, you attempted to enroll in a dental plan.
- 14) You testified that since filing your application in January 2017, there have been no other major changes to your household.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

De Novo Review

NYSOH Appeals Unit must review each appeal de novo and "consider all relevant facts and evidence adduced during the appeals process" (45 CFR § 155.535(f)). "De novo review means a review of an appeal without deference to prior decisions in the case" (45 CFR § 155.500).

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a QHP and enrollees may change QHPs (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a QHP, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan. This is generally permitted when one of the following triggering events occur:

- (1) The qualified individual or his or her dependent either:
 - (i) Loses minimum essential coverage.
 - (ii) Is enrolled in any non-calendar year group health plan or individual health insurance coverage, even if the qualified individual or his or her dependent has the option to renew such coverage.
 - (iii) Loses pregnancy-related coverage.
 - (iv) Loses medically needy coverage as described under section 1902(a)(10)(C) of the Social Security Act only once per calendar year.
- (2)
 - (i) The qualified individual gains a dependent or becomes a dependent through marriage, birth, adoption, placement for adoption, or placement in foster care, or through a child support order or other court order.
 - (ii) the enrollee loses a dependent or is no longer considered a dependent through divorce or legal separation as defined by State law in the State in which the divorce or legal separation occurs, or if the enrollee, or his or her dependent, dies.
- (3) The qualified individual, or his or her dependent, becomes newly eligible for enrollment in a QHP because he or she gains citizenship, status as a national, or lawful present or is no longer incarcerated.

(4) The qualified individual's or his or her dependent's, enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities.

(5) The enrollee or, his or her dependent adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that the QHP in which he or she is enrolled substantially violated a material provision of its contract in relation to the enrollee;

(6) The enrollee or enrollee's dependent is newly eligible or ineligible for advance payments of the premium tax credit, or has a change in eligibility for cost-sharing reductions.

(7) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, gains access to a new QHP as a result of a permanent move and either—

(i) Had minimum essential coverage for one or more days during the 60 days preceding the date of the permanent move, or

(ii) Was living outside of the United States or in a United States territory at the time of the permanent move;

(8) The qualified individual or dependent who gains or maintains status as an Indian may enroll in a QHP or change from one plan to another, once per month.

(9) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, demonstrates to the Exchange, in accordance with guidelines issued by HHS, that the individual meets other exceptional circumstances as the Exchange may provide;

(10) A qualified individual or enrollee—

(i) Is a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, including a dependent or unmarried victim within a household, is enrolled in minimum essential coverage and seeks to enroll in coverage separate from the perpetrator of the abuse or abandonment; or

(ii) Is a dependent of a victim of domestic abuse or spousal abandonment, on the same application as the victim, may enroll in coverage at the same time as the victim;

(11) A qualified individual or dependent—

(i) Applies for coverage through NYSOH during the annual open enrollment period or due to a qualifying event, is assessed as potentially eligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus either after open enrollment has ended or more than 60 days after the qualifying event; or

(ii) Applies for coverage at their Local Department of Social Services or Human Resources Administration during the annual open enrollment period, and is determined ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus after open enrollment has ended;

(12) The qualified individual or enrollee, or his or her dependent, adequately demonstrates to NYSOH that a material error related to plan benefits, service area, or premium influenced the qualified individual's or enrollee's decision to purchase a QHP; or

(13) At the option of NYSOH, the qualified individual provides satisfactory documentary evidence to verify his or her eligibility for an insurance affordability program or enrollment following termination of enrollment due to a failure to verify such status within 90 days. NYSOH has not elected to adopt this subsection at this time.

(45 CFR § 155.420(d)).

Generally, if a triggering life event occurs, the qualified individual or enrollee has 60 days from the date of a triggering event to select a QHP (45 CFR § 155.420(c)(1)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you and your spouse did not qualify to enroll in a dental plan outside of the 2017 open enrollment period.

You testified that you are appealing the denial of a special enrollment period to enroll into a dental plan through NYSOH. However, the record does not contain a notice of eligibility determination or redetermination on the issue of special enrollment period.

Here, the lack of a notice of eligibility determination on the issue of special enrollment periods does not prevent the Appeals Unit from reaching the merits of the case or constitute material error. Under 45 CFR § 155.505(b), you are as entitled to appeal NYSOH failure to timely issue a notice of eligibility determination as you are to appeal an adverse notice of eligibility determination.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Your credible testimony along with the August 17, 2017 appeal confirmation notice stating that the reason for your appeal was “denial of SEP,” permits an inference that NYSOH did deny your special enrollment request.

Since the Appeals Unit review of NYSOH determinations is performed on a de novo basis, no deference would have been granted to the eligibility determination notice had it been issued.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017. You originally enrolled in a QHP and a dental plan on January 13, 2017. However, on January 30, 2017, you updated your enrollment to a Fidelis platinum plan, and you were disenrolled from your dental plan. On August 14, 2017, you attempted to re-enroll in a dental plan on behalf of yourself and your spouse, but were unable to do so.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, a health plan enrollee must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

A special enrollment period can be granted if a qualified individual’s enrollment or non-enrollment in a QHP is unintentional, inadvertent, or erroneous and is the result of the error, misrepresentation, misconduct, or inaction of an officer, employee, or agent of NYSOH, its instrumentalities, or a non-NYSOH entity providing enrollment assistance or conducting enrollment activities

You credibly testified that you never asked to disenroll from your dental plan when you called to upgrade your QHP from a bronze plan to a platinum plan on January 30, 2017. Additionally, NYSOH’s notes in Incident [REDACTED] indicate that your dental coverage was not discussed at all during your phone call with NYSOH on January 30, 2017, which supports your assertion that you had no intention of changing or discontinuing your dental coverage. Since the record indicates that NYSOH made an error in disenrolling you and your spouse from your dental coverage, you would have been eligible for a special enrollment period on that basis.

However, when an event that triggers a special enrollment period occurs, an individual has sixty days from the date of that event to enroll in coverage. In this case, the event in question was the January 31, 2017 termination of you and your spouse’s dental plan coverage. Sixty days from January 31, 2017 was April 1, 2017, so you would have had until April 1, 2017 to re-enroll in a dental plan.

You testified that you did not realize that you and your spouse had been disenrolled from your dental coverage until you received a refund of your premium, and that this was the reason that you did not attempt to re-enroll in a dental plan until August 2017.

Nevertheless, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice on February 1, 2017 stating that you and your spouse were disenrolled from your dental plan coverage as of January 31, 2017. The record reflects that you receive notices from NYSOH by regular mail, and that no notices issued to you by NYSOH at your current mailing address – including the February 1, 2017 disenrollment notice – have been returned to NYSOH as undeliverable.

For this reason, you are considered to have been on notice that you and your spouse's dental plan enrollment was discontinued as of January 31, 2017, and there is no basis in the record for extending the sixty-day special enrollment period that expired on April 1, 2017.

The credible evidence of record indicates that, since the open enrollment period closed on January 31, 2017, no other triggering events have occurred that would qualify you and your spouse for a special enrollment period.

Therefore, NYSOH's denial of a special enrollment period to select a dental plan outside of the open enrollment period for 2017 is AFFIRMED.
