Decision

Decision Date: November 3, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021519

Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) provide you proper and adequate notice that your youngest child's eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus terminated as of June 30, 2017?

Procedural History

On June 4, 2016, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your June 3, 2016 application, stating that your youngest child was eligible for Child Health Plus effective July 1, 2016. He was subsequently enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan.

On May 4, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice that it was time to renew your youngest child's health insurance for 2017. That notice stated that NYSOH did not have enough information from state and federal data sources to determine whether or not your youngest child qualified for financial help paying for his coverage. The notice asked that you update the information in your account by June 15, 2017 or the financial assistance your child was receiving may end. The notice stated to make changes between May 16, and June 15, 2017.

On June 18, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that effective July 1, 2017 your child was no longer eligible for health insurance through NYSOH because you did not respond to the renewal notice and did not complete the renewal in the required time frame.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On June 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your youngest child's coverage through his Child Health Plus plan would end June 30, 2017 because you did not renew his health insurance coverage.

On June 22, 2017, NYSOH received your youngest child's updated application for health insurance.

On June 23, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination, based on your June 22, 2017 application, stating that your child was eligible to enroll in Child Health Plus, effective August 1, 2017.

On July 12, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of enrollment, based on your plan selection on June 22, 2017, stating that your youngest child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan and that coverage would start on August 1, 2017.

On August 16, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the start date of your youngest child's Child Health Plus plan insofar as he did not have coverage for the month of July 2017.

On October 20, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are only appealing your youngest child's disenrollment from his Child Health Plus plan for the month of July 2017.
- 2) You testified that you previously received all of your notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 3) You testified that you did not receive a renewal notice in May by regular mail.
- 4) You testified you had updated your youngest child's application on May 15, 2017 as a result of your child having a late payment on his account. You then enrolled your child back into his Child Health Plus plan that day for a June 1, 2017 start date.
- 5) The May 4, 2017 renewal notice does not indicate that your child's Child Health Plus plan enrollment would be terminated if you failed to respond. The notice does state that your child's financial eligibility may end.

- 6) You testified that you became aware that your child had been disenrolled from his Child Health Plus plan first in June when you received the disenrollment notices.
- 7) You testified that when you became aware that your child had been disenrolled you contacted NYSOH to reenroll them.
- 8) On June 22, 2017, NYSOH received your updated application and Child Health Plus plan selection.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Child Health Plus

A child who meets the eligibility requirements for Child Health Plus may be eligible to receive a subsidy payment if the child resides in a household with a household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

To be eligible for Child Health Plus, the child:

- Must be under 19 years of age;
- Must be a New York State Resident;
- Must not have other health insurance coverage; and
- Must not be eligible for, or enrolled in, Medicaid

(NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)-(e)).

The "period of eligibility" for Child Health Plus is "that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date," unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid, or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

"A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage,” including for periodic renewals (42 CFR § 457.340(f); 42 CFR §457.343).

In general, a child eligible for Child Health Plus must recertify their eligibility for enrollment through NYSOH once every twelve months (42 CFR § 457.343; 42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(f)(ii)).42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH is required to provide proper written notice to an applicant of any decision effecting an enrollee’s Child Health Plus eligibility (42 CFR § 457.340(e)). When Child Health Plus coverage is denied, suspended or terminated NYSOH must provide sufficient notice to enable the child's parent or caretaker relative to take appropriate actions in order to allow Child Health Plus coverage to continue without interruption (42 CFR § 457.340(e)(1)(D); 42 CFR § 457.1130(a)(3)).

The State of New York has provided that a child’s period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH provided you proper and adequate notice that your youngest child’s eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus terminated as of June 30, 2017.

Your youngest child was originally found eligible for Child Health Plus and enrolled effective July 1, 2016.

Generally, NYSOH must redetermine a qualified child's eligibility for Child Health Plus once every twelve months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's May 4, 2017 renewal notice stated that NYSOH did not have enough information from state and federal data sources to determine whether or not your child qualified for financial help paying for his coverage. The notice asked that you update the information in your account by June 15, 2017 or the financial assistance your child was receiving may end.

On June 18, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's coverage in his Child Health Plus plan would end effective June 30, 2017. According to the eligibility redetermination notice issued on June 18, 2017, this was because you did not respond to the renewal notice and did not complete the renewal in the required time frame.

When NYSOH denies, terminates, or suspends a child's Child Health Plus coverage, they are required to provide sufficient notice so that a child's parent is able to take action to prevent a gap in coverage for the child. Notice is considered received five days after the date on the notice. The May 4, 2017 renewal notice does not indicate that your youngest child's Child Health Plus plan enrollment would be terminated if you failed to respond. You were first informed that your child's coverage through his Child Health Plus plan would end in the June 18, 2017 eligibility redetermination and June 18, 2017 disenrollment notices.

You updated his application after his June 18, 2017 redetermination on June 22, 2017. You testified that you updated the account as soon as you received the notice that your child had been disenrolled from coverage.

When changes are made to an individual's application after the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from a change effective the first day of the next following month. Since you would have received NYSOH's notice terminating your youngest child's Child Health Plus eligibility after the 15th of the month, any changes you would have made to your account to prevent a gap in coverage would not have been effective until August 1, 2017.

Therefore, NYSOH failed to provide you with sufficient notice that would have allowed you to take action in order to prevent a gap in Child Health Plus coverage for your youngest child for the month of July and the June 18, 2017 disenrollment notice and June 18, 2017 eligibility determination notice are RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your youngest child into his Child Health Plus plan for the month of July 2017, and to notify you accordingly.
