Decision

Decision Date: November 29, 2017

NY State of Health Account ID: [REDACTED]
Appeal Identification Number: AP000000021669

Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were eligible to receive up to $315.00 per month in advance payments of the premium tax credit, effective September 1, 2017?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were eligible for cost-sharing reductions?

Did NYSOH properly determine that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan?

Procedural History

On August 10, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination based on your August 9, 2017 application, stating that you were eligible to receive up to $315.00 in APTC and eligible to receive cost-sharing reductions if you enrolled in a silver level qualified health plan, effective September 1, 2017. That notice also stated that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan because your income was over the allowable income limit for that program.

On August 21, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the eligibility determination, insofar as you were determined not eligible for the Essential Plan.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

On October 19, 2017, you had a scheduled telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. You requested to reschedule the hearing because you were working. The Hearing Officer agreed to adjourn the hearing.

On October 23, 2017, you had an adjourned telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and held open up to November 6, 2017, to allow you time to submit supporting documents.

On October 23, 2017 and November 6, 2017, you uploaded documentation. It was entered into the record as appellant's Exhibit #1, and the record was closed on November 6, 2017.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you expect to file your 2017 taxes with a tax filing status of single. You will claim no dependents on that tax return.
- 2) You are seeking insurance for yourself, specifically the Essential Plan.
- 3) The application that was submitted on August 9, 2017 listed annual household income of $24,960.00, consisting of income you earn from employment. You testified that you could not confirm that amount.
- 4) You testified that you earn $15.00 per week, and that you average 32 hours or less per week.
- 5) You also testified that you should still be eligible for the Essential Plan because your income has not changed from prior years.
- 6) You submitted your 2016 form 8879 IRS e-file Signature Authorization.
- 7) You did not submit your 2016 1040 form.
- 8) Your application states that you will not be taking any deductions on your 2017 tax return.
- 9) Your application states that you live in [REDACTED]

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Advance Payments of Premium Tax Credit

Advance payments of the premium tax credit (APTC) are generally available to a person who is eligible to enroll in a qualified health plan (QHP) and (1) expects to have a household income between 138% and 400% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL), (2) expects to file a tax return and claim a personal exemption deduction for a person who meets the eligibility requirements to enroll in a QHP, and (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market (see 45 CFR § 155.305(f), 42 CFR § 435.119(b), 42 CFR § 435.911(b)(1), 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4)).

The maximum amount of APTC that can be authorized equals:

- 1) the cost of the health insurance premium for the taxpayer's coverage family in the second lowest cost silver plan offered through NY State of Health in the county where the taxpayer resides minus

- 2) the taxpayer's expected contribution amount

(see 26 USC § 36B, 26 CFR § 1.36B-3).

The taxpayer's expected contribution amount is the amount that the taxpayer is expected to spend on health insurance premiums. The expected contribution for 2017 is set by federal law at 2.04% to 9.69% of household income (26 USC § 36B(b)(3)(A), 26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), IRS Rev. Proc.2016-24).

In an analysis of APTC eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR §§ 155.300(a), 155.305(f)(1)(i)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is 11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

For annual household income in the range of at least 200% but less than 250% of the 2016 FPL, the expected contribution is between 6.43% and 8.21% of the household income (26 CFR § 1.36B-3T(g)(1), 45 CFR § 155.300(a), IRS Rev. Proc. 2016-24).

People who use the APTC to help pay health insurance premiums must file a federal tax return and reconcile their expected income (stated on NYSOH application) with their actual income (stated on their federal income tax return). Those who take less tax credit in advance than they claim on the tax return may get the rest of it as an income tax refund or have their tax bill reduced. Those who take more tax credit in advance than they can claim on their tax return will owe the difference as additional income taxes (26 CFR § 1.36B-4).

Cost-Sharing Reductions

Cost-sharing reductions (CSR) are available to a person who (1) is eligible to enroll in a QHP through NYSOH, (2) meets the requirements to receive APTC, (3) is expected to have an annual household income that does not exceed 250% of the FPL for the first day of the open enrollment period of the benefit year for which coverage is requested, and (4) is enrolled in a silver-level QHP (45 CFR § 155.300(a), 45 CFR § 155.305(g)(1)).

Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR § 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

In an analysis of Essential Plan eligibility, the determination is based on the FPL in effect on the first day of the benefit year for which coverage is requested (45 CFR § 155.300(a)). On the date of your application, that was the 2016 FPL, which is $11,880.00 for a one-person household (81 Fed. Reg. 4036.).

A person who has a household income that is at or below 150% of the FPL has a $0.00 premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, p. 21, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>).

A person who has a household income greater than 150% of the FPL or below 200% of the FPL has a $20.00 per month premium contribution (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, as approved January 2016).

The Essential Plan is considered minimum essential coverage therefore, a person who is eligible for the Essential Plan is not eligible for any premium tax credit because they are eligible for minimum essential coverage through the individual market (see 26 CFR § 1.36B-2(c)(1), 26 USC § 5000A(f)(1)(C)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were eligible for an APTC of up to $315.00 per month.

The application that was submitted on August 9, 2017 listed an annual household income of $24,960.00 and the eligibility determination relied upon that information. You testified that you could not confirm your income based on your hourly rate, but that you earn $15.00 per week for an average of 32 hours or less per week. You also testified that you should still be eligible for the Essential Plan because your income has not changed. However, as you did not submit your 2016 1040 form or August 2017 paystubs, you did not submit sufficient documentation to recalculate your income, and NYSOH was proper to use $24,960.00 ($$15.00/\text{hr} \times 32 \text{ hours/week} \times 52 \text{ weeks/year}$).

You are in a one-person household. You expect to file your 2017 income taxes as single and will claim no dependents on that tax return.

You reside in New York County, where the second lowest cost silver plan available for an individual through NYSOH costs $456.46 per month.

An annual income of $24,960.00 is 210.10% of the 2016 FPL for a one-person household. At 210.10% of the FPL, the expected contribution to the cost of the health insurance premium is 6.79% of income, or $141.23 per month.

The maximum amount of APTC that can be approved equals the cost of the second lowest cost silver plan available through NYSOH for an individual in your county ($456.46 per month) minus your expected contribution ($141.23 per month), which equals $315.23 per month. Therefore, rounding to the nearest dollar, NYSOH correctly determined you to be eligible for up to $315.00 per month in APTC.

The second issue is whether you were properly found eligible for cost-sharing reductions. Cost-sharing reductions are available to a person who has a household income no greater than 250% of the FPL. Since a household income of $24,960.00 is 210.10% of the applicable FPL, NYSOH correctly found you to be eligible for cost sharing reductions.

The third issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were not eligible for the Essential Plan.

The Essential Plan is provided through NYSOH to individuals who meet the non-financial requirements and have a household modified adjusted gross income that is between 138% and 200% of the FPL for the applicable family size. On the date of your application, the relevant FPL was $11,880.00 for a one-person household. Since an annual household income of $24,960.00 is 210.10% of the 2016 FPL, NYSOH properly found you to be not eligible for the Essential Plan.

Since the August 10, 2017 eligibility determination properly stated that, based on the information you provided, you were eligible for up to $315.00 per month in APTC, eligible for cost-sharing reductions, and not eligible for the Essential Plan, it is correct and is AFFIRMED.
