Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) provide you proper and adequate notice that your child's eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus would end as of May 31, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 1, 2016, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus for a cost of $0.00 per month effective June 1, 2016.

On April 6, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice stating that it was time to renew your children's health insurance for the next coverage year. That notice stated that NYSOH did not have enough information from state and federal data sources to determine whether your child qualified for financial help paying for their coverage. The notice directed you to update the information in your account by May 15, 2017 or the financial assistance your child was receiving might end.

No updates were made to your account by May 15, 2017.

On May 17, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility redetermination notice stating that, effective June 1, 2017, your child was no longer eligible for financial assistance or health insurance through NYSOH because you did not respond to the renewal notice and did not complete the renewal in the required timeframe.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Also on May 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's coverage through their Child Health Plus plan would end May 31, 2017, because they were no longer eligible to enroll in health insurance.

On May 26, 2017, your account was updated.

On May 27, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination stating, in relevant part, that your child was eligible for Child Health Plus at full cost, effective July 1, 2017.

Also on May 27, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice confirming that on May 26, 2017, your child was enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan with an enrollment start date of July 1, 2017

On August 28, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the enrollment start date of your child's health plan.

On November 2, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are appealing the fact that your child was not enrolled in a Child Health Plus plan for the month of June 2017.
- 2) Your child was born on [REDACTED]
- 3) According to your account, you receive notices from NYSOH by regular mail.
- 4) You testified that you did not receive any notice from NYSOH instructing you to renew your child's coverage.
- 5) You testified that you became aware that your child's coverage would end when you received the disenrollment notice from NYSOH.
- 6) According to your NYSOH account, you re-enrolled your child on May 27, 2017, with an enrollment start date of July 1, 2017.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Child Health Plus

A child who meets the eligibility requirements for Child Health Plus may be eligible to receive a subsidy payment if the child resides in a household with a household income at or below 400% of the federal poverty level (FPL) (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)(iii)).

To be eligible for Child Health Plus, the child:

- Must be under 19 years of age;
- Must be a New York State Resident;
- Must not have other health insurance coverage; and
- Must not be eligible for, or enrolled in, Medicaid

(NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(a)-(e)).

The “period of eligibility” for Child Health Plus is “that period commencing on the first day of the month during which a child is an eligible child and enrolled or recertified for enrollment on an annual basis based on all required information and documentation and ending on the last day of the twelfth month following such date,” unless the CHP premiums are not timely paid, or the child no longer resides in New York State, gains access to or obtains other health insurance coverage, or becomes eligible for Medicaid (NY Public Health Law § 2510(6)).

“A State must specify a method for determining the effective date of eligibility for [Child Health Plus], which can be determined based on the date of application or through any other reasonable method that ensures coordinated transition of children between [Child Health Plus] and other insurance affordability programs as family circumstances change and avoids gaps or overlaps in coverage,” including for periodic renewals (42 CFR § 457.340(f); 42 CFR §457.343).

In general, a child eligible for Child Health Plus must recertify their eligibility for enrollment through NYSOH once every twelve months (42 CFR § 457.343; 42 CFR § 435.916(a)(1), (d)). NYSOH must make its “redetermination of eligibility without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency, including but not limited to information accessed through any data bases accessed by the agency” (NY Public Health Law § 2511(2)(f)(ii)).42 CFR § 435.916(a)(2)).

NYSOH is required to provide proper written notice to an applicant of any decision effecting an enrollee's Child Health Plus eligibility (42 CFR § 457.340(e)). When Child Health Plus coverage is denied, suspended or terminated NYSOH must provide sufficient notice to enable the child's parent or caretaker relative to take appropriate actions in order to allow Child Health Plus coverage to continue without interruption (42 CFR § 457.340(e)(1)(D); 42 CFR § 457.1130(a)(3)).

The State of New York has provided that a child's period of eligibility for Child Health Plus begins on the first day of the month during which a child is eligible. A child will become eligible on the first day of the next month, if the application is received by the 15th of the month; applications received after the 15th day of the month will be processed for the first day of the second following month (see State Plan Amendment (SPA) NY-14-0005, approved February 3, 2015 and effective January 1, 2014).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH provided you proper and adequate notice that your child's eligibility for and enrollment in Child Health Plus would end as of May 31, 2017.

Your child was determined eligible for Child Health Plus and enrolled in a health plan effective June 1, 2016.

Generally, NYSOH must redetermine a qualified child's eligibility for Child Health Plus once every twelve months without requiring information from the individual if able to do so based on reliable information contained in the individual's account or other more current information available to the agency. NYSOH's April 6, 2017, renewal notice stated that NYSOH did not have enough information from state and federal data sources to determine whether your child qualified for financial help paying for her coverage. The notice directed you to update the information in your account by May 15, 2017 or the financial assistance your child was receiving might end.

No updates were made to your NYSOH account prior to May 15, 2017.

On May 17, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your child's coverage in their Child Health Plus plan would end effective May 17, 2017. According to the eligibility determination also issued on May 17, 2017, this was because you did not respond to the renewal notice and did not complete the renewal in the required time frame.

When NYSOH denies, terminates, or suspends a child's Child Health Plus coverage, they are required to provide sufficient notice so that a child's parent is able to take action to prevent a gap in coverage for the child. The April 6, 2017 renewal notice does not indicate that your child's Child Health Plus plan enrollment would be terminated if you failed to respond. You were first informed that your child's coverage through her Child Health Plus plan would end in the May 17, 2017 eligibility redetermination notice.

The record indicates that on May 26, 2016, you updated your NYSOH account and submitted an updated application for your child.

When changes are made to an individual's application after the 15th of any month, NYSOH must make the redetermination that results from a change effective the first day of the second following month. Since you would have received NYSOH's notice terminating your child's Child Health Plus eligibility after the 15th of the month, any changes you would have made to your account would not have been effective until July 1, 2017, resulting a gap in coverage.

Therefore, NYSOH failed to provide you with proper and adequate notice that would have allowed you to update your account and prevent a gap in your child's coverage for the month of June 2017. As such, the May 17, 2017 eligibility determination and disenrollment notices are RESCINDED.

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to reinstate your child's Child Health Plus coverage for the month of June 2017, and to notify you accordingly.

Decision

The May 17, 2017 eligibility determination notice is RESCINDED.

The May 17, 2017 disenrollment notice is RESCINDED.
