Issue

The issue presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health is:

Did NY State of Health (NYSOH) properly determine that you were enrolled in a qualified health plan (QHP) with an enrollment start date of June 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On August 11, 2017, you submitted a financial assistance application through NYSOH.

On August 12, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating, in relevant part, that you were eligible for a shared tax credit up to $347.00 per month, effective September 1, 2017.

On August 13, 2017, NYSOH issued an enrollment notice confirming, in relevant part that, as of August 12, 2017, you were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of June 1, 2017.

On August 31, 2017, you spoke with NYSOH's Account Review Unit and requested an appeal relative to the enrollment start date of your QHP.

On November 7, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified that you are only appealing the enrollment start date of your QHP.
- 2) According to your August 11, 2017 application, you indicated that your special enrollment reason was “pregnancy.”
- 3) You testified that you found out that you were pregnant at a doctor’s appointment at the end of [REDACTED].
- 4) According to your NYSOH account, you enrolled in a gold-level Healthfirst QHP on August 12, 2017, and that coverage was effectuated on June 1, 2017.
- 5) You testified that you did not want to be enrolled in a QHP in the month of June 2017 because you were unable to use the health insurance during that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Enrollment in a Qualified Health Plan

NYSOH must provide annual open enrollment periods during which time qualified individuals may enroll in a qualified health plan and enrollees may change qualified health plans (45 CFR § 155.410(a)(1)).

For the benefit year beginning on January 1, 2017, the annual open enrollment period began on November 1, 2016, and extended through January 31, 2017 (45 CFR § 155.410(e)(2)).

Special Enrollment Periods

After each open enrollment period ends, NYSOH provides special enrollment periods to qualified individuals. During a special enrollment period, a qualified individual may enroll in a qualified health plan, and an enrollee may change their enrollment to another plan (45 CFR § 155.420(a)(1), NYS Insurance Law § 4328(b)(4)(A)).

Special Enrollment Period - Pregnancy

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

In addition to the enrollment periods stated in 45 CFR § 155.420(d), New York has authorized a special enrollment period for a pregnant individual. Such individual may enroll at any time after a health care professional certifies that the individual is pregnant. Upon enrollment, coverage shall be effective as of the first day of the month in which the health care professional certifies that the individual is pregnant, unless the individual elects to have coverage effective on the first day of the month following the date of the certification (NYS Insurance Law § 4328(b)(4)(B)).

Legal Analysis

The issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that you were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment start date of June 1, 2017.

NYSOH provided an open enrollment period from November 1, 2016 until January 31, 2017.

Once the annual open enrollment period ends, an individual must qualify for a special enrollment period to enroll in, or change to another health plan offered in NYSOH. To qualify for a special enrollment period, a person must experience a triggering event.

New York has authorized that pregnancy is an event that creates a special enrollment period. An individual may enroll at any time after a health care professional certifies that the individual is pregnant.

The record reflects that you found out you were pregnant at a doctor's appointment at the end of [REDACTED]. Further, you applied for health insurance on August 11, 2017, because of your pregnancy and enrolled in a QHP on August 12, 2017, with an enrollment start date of June 1, 2017.

Once an individual enrolls in a health plan, based on their pregnancy, coverage shall be effective as of the first day of the month in which the health care professional certifies that the individual is pregnant, unless the individual elects to have coverage effective on the first day of the month following the date of the certification.

You testified that you did not want to be enrolled in a QHP in the month of June 2017 because you were unable to use the health insurance during that month. Since you did not want coverage in June 2017, your QHP should have been effectuated on the first day of the month following June 2017; that is July 1, 2017.

Therefore, the August 13, 2017, enrollment notice is MODIFIED to state that you were enrolled in a QHP with an enrollment state of July 1, 2017.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

Your case is RETURNED to NYSOH to effectuate this change in your QHP start date and to notify you accordingly.
