Issues

The issues presented for review by the Appeals Unit of NY State of Health are:

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective September 1, 2017?

Did NY State of Health properly determine that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective October 1, 2017?

Procedural History

On April 13, 2017, NY State of Health (NYSOH) received your updated application for financial assistance with health insurance.

On April 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan for a limited time, effective May 1, 2017. The notice further directed you to provide documentation confirming your income before July 12, 2017.

Also on April 14, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice confirming your enrollment in an Essential Plan, effective May 1, 2017.

No income documentation was received by July 12, 2017.

On July 19, 2017, NYSOH issued an eligibility determination notice stating that you were newly eligible to receive up to $333.00 in advance premium tax credits. The notice stated that you were not eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY - Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

because NYSOH did not receive the income documentation needed to verify the income listed in your application. This eligibility was effective September 1, 2017.

Also on July 19, 2017, NYSOH issued a disenrollment notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan would end as of August 31, 2017 because you were no longer eligible to remain in your plan.

On September 1, 2017, you updated your application for financial assistance. That day, a preliminary eligibility determination was prepared stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan and you selected a plan for enrollment.

Also on September 1, 2017, you spoke to NYSOH's Account Review Unit and appealed the termination of your Essential Plan for the month of September 2017.

On September 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a notice of eligibility determination stating that you were eligible to enroll in the Essential Plan, effective October 1, 2017.

Also on September 2, 2017, NYSOH issued a plan enrollment notice, based on your plan selection on September 1, 2017, confirming your enrollment in your Essential Plan, effective October 1, 2017.

On October 26, 2017, you had a telephone hearing with a Hearing Officer from NYSOH's Appeals Unit. The record was developed during the hearing and the record was closed at the end of the hearing.

Findings of Fact

A review of the record supports the following findings of fact:

- 1) You testified, and your application indicates, that you receive all your notices from NYSOH via regular mail.
- 2) No notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.
- 3) You testified that you think you got the April 14, 2017 notice asking you to submit income documentation.
- 4) You testified that you spoke to a representative in April and you were told to send in income documentation which you did so the next day.

- 5) You testified that the representative gave you an address to send your income documentation to and he may have given you the wrong address.
- 6) You gave the Hearing Officer permission to listen to phone recordings that you placed to NYSOH in April. Two phone recordings were reviewed:
 - i. You placed a call to NYSOH on April 13, 2017. During that phone call, you resubmitted an application for health insurance and reenrolled into the Essential Plan. There was no mention of you submitting income documentation during this call
 - ii. You placed a call to NYSOH on April 17, 2017. During that phone call, you spoke to the research department regarding electronic alerts that you were receiving in your email. This call was disconnected when you were put on hold. There was no mention of you submitting income documentation during this call.
- 7) Your NYSOH account indicates that on July 18, 2017, your application was run and you were found no longer eligible for the Essential Plan as of August 31, 2017.
- 8) The record indicates that you submitted an updated application on September 1, 2017, and reenrolled in an Essential Plan that day.
- 9) You testified that you are seeking enrollment in your Essential Plan as of September 1, 2017 because you have medical bills from that month.

Conflicting evidence, if any, was considered and found to be less credible than the evidence noted above.

Applicable Law and Regulations

Verification of Eligibility for the Essential Plan

NYSOH must generally determine an applicant eligible for the Essential Plan, a basic health plan, if the person is (1) a resident of New York State, (2) expects to have a household income between 138% and 200% of the applicable federal poverty level (FPL) or, in the case of an individual who is a lawfully present non-citizen who is ineligible for Medicaid or Child Health Plus as a result of their immigration status, has a household income that is between 0% and 200% of the FPL, (3) is not otherwise eligible for minimum essential coverage except through the individual market, (4) is 64 years old or younger, (5) is a citizen or a lawfully present non-citizen, and (6) is not incarcerated (see 42 CFR § 600.305, 42 CFR

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

§ 435.603(d)(4), 45 CFR § 155.305(e), NY Social Services Law § 369-gg(3), 42 USC § 18051).

NYSOH must verify the eligibility of an applicant for the Essential Plan consistent with the standards set in 45 CFR § 155.315 and § 155.320 (New York's Basic Health Plan Blueprint, pgs. 16-17, as approved January 2016; see <https://www.medicaid.gov/basic-health-program/basic-health-program.html>; 42 CFR § 600.345(a)(2)).

An applicant is required to attest to their household's projected annual income. (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(B)). For all individuals whose household income is needed, NYSOH must request tax return data from the Secretary of the Treasury and data regarding Social Security benefits from the Commissioner of Social Security in order to confirm that the information the applicant is attesting to is accurate (45 CFR § 155.320(c)(1)(i); 45 CFR § 155.320(c)(3)(ii)(A)).

If income data is unavailable, or if an applicant's attestation is not reasonably compatible with the income data NYSOH obtains, NYSOH must request additional information from the applicant in order to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.320 (c)(3)(iii), (iv)).

NYSOH must provide the applicant with notice of the inconsistency in their account and 90 days to provide satisfactory documentary evidence to resolve the inconsistency (45 CFR § 155.315 (f)(2)). If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine the applicant's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation (45 CFR § 155.315(f)(2), (g)).

Upon making an eligibility redetermination, NYSOH must notify the applicant and implement any updates in eligibility to the Essential Plan effective the first day of the following month for changes received by NYSOH from the first to the fifteenth of any month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(i); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)). For updates received by NYSOH from the sixteenth to the last day of any month, NYSOH must ensure coverage is effective the first day of the second following month (45 CFR § 155.420(b)(1)(ii); see also 42 CFR § 600.320(c)).

Legal Analysis

The first issue under review is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for the Essential Plan ended effective August 1, 2017.

An individual requesting financial assistance to help pay for the cost of coverage provided through NYSOH is required to attest to his or her household's projected annual income. For individuals seeking enrollment in the Essential Plan, NYSOH must request income data from federal and state data sources in order to verify an individual's income attestation.

If you need this information in a language other than English or you need assistance reading this notice, we can help you. Call 1-855-355-5777 (TTY - English: 1-800-662-1220) (TTY – Spanish: 1-877-662-4886).

If NYSOH cannot verify an individual's attestation, it must provide the individual with notice of the inconsistency and provide a period of 90 days from the date notice is received to resolve the inconsistency.

In the eligibility determination issued on April 14, 2017, you were advised that you were eligible for the Essential Plan for a limited time, and that you needed to confirm your household's income before July 12, 2017.

You testified, and your application indicates, that you receive all your notices from NYSOH via regular mail. You testified that you think you got the April 14, 2017 notice asking you to submit income documentation and according to your NYSOH account, no notices that were sent to the address listed on your NYSOH account have been returned as undeliverable.

Therefore, NYSOH properly notified you of an inconsistency in your account and that documentation was needed to confirm the income you listed in the account.

You also testified that you spoke to a representative in April and you were told to send in income documentation which you did so the next day. You further testified that the representative gave you an address to send your income documentation to and he may have given you the wrong address. The Hearing Officer listened to two phone calls that you placed to NYSOH in April 2017. However, there was no address given to you by the NYSOH representative.

Therefore, the record does not contain any credible proof that you submitted income documentation before the July 12, 2017 deadline or that NYSOH improperly advised you where to send the income documentation to.

If NYSOH remains unable to verify the attestation of the applicant, NYSOH must redetermine an individual's eligibility based on the information available from the data sources unless the applicant demonstrates that they are unable to provide the required documentation.

Accordingly, your eligibility for the Essential Plan terminated as of August 1, 2017 because you did not submit documentation and did not adequately demonstrate that you could not provide documentation to confirm your income.

Therefore, the July 19, 2017 eligibility determination notice is AFFIRMED.

The second issue is whether NYSOH properly determined that your eligibility for and enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective October 1, 2017.

You testified, and your account confirms, that you updated your NYSOH application on September 1, 2017. That day, you selected an Essential Plan for enrollment.

The date on which enrollment in an Essential Plan can take effect depends on the day a person selects the plan for enrollment.

A plan that is selected from the first day to and including the fifteenth day of a month goes into effect on the first day of the following month. A plan that is selected from the sixteenth day of the month to the end of the month goes into effect on the first day of the second following month.

Since on September 1, 2017, you selected an Essential Plan, your enrollment would properly take effect on the first day of the next month following September 2017; that is, on October 1, 2017.

Therefore, the September 2, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice stating that your enrollment in the Essential Plan was effective October 1, 2017, is correct and must be AFFIRMED.

Decision

The July 19, 2017 notice of eligibility determination is AFFIRMED.

The September 2, 2017 enrollment confirmation notice is AFFIRMED.

How this Decision Affects Your Eligibility
